

Kim Poirier grew up in Raleigh and attended Broughton High School. She currently owns and operates Poirier Consulting, LLC, and is a former preschool teacher who spent seven years working part-time teaching three year olds. Prior to working she was a stay at home mom. Kim teaches Sunday School to 3rd graders at Greystone Baptist Church, and is an active member of the Junior League of Raleigh, serving on the Bargain Box Executive Committee. She has a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Management, and a Paralegal Certificate with a specialty in Real Estate from Meredith College. She currently lives in Raleigh with her husband and three children, Natalie, Rachael, and Cameron. Kim enjoys simple luxuries in life such as relaxing at the coast, and taking long walks with her kids.