

Sunrise Civinotes

ISSUED MONTHLY BY THE

SUNRISE CIVITAN CLUB OF SPARTANBURG

CHARTERED JUNE 11, 1965

Meets Each Thursday, 7:00 AM Mary Black Hospital Spartanburg, SC

THE CIVITAN CREED

I AM CIVITAN as old as life, as young as the rainbow,
as endless as time.
MY HANDS do the work of the world and reach out in service to others.
MY EARS hear the cry of children and the call throughout the world for peace, guidance, progress and unity.
MY EYES search for others to join in the fellowship and service of Civitan.
MY MOUTH utters the call to daily duty and speaks prayers in every tongue.
MY MIND teaches me respect for law and the flag of my country.
MY HEART beats for every friend, bleeds for every injury to humanity,
and throbs with joy at every triumph of truth.
MY SOUL knows no fear but its own unworthiness.
MY HOPE is for a better world through Civitan.
MY MOTTO: Builders of good citizenship.
MY BELIEF: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.
MY PLEDGE: To practice the Golden Rule and to build upon it a better and nobler citizenship.

SUNRISE CIVITAN CLUB OF SPARTANBURG

Civitan International:
A Century of Service
1917 -2017

1930-1939

Economic depression seizes the world, and Civitan is not immune. Expansion comes to a standstill and many clubs become tragedies of the times. Seventy-two clubs emerge from these difficult days, but they are active Civitans, particularly concerned with tuberculosis, crime, character building and underprivileged young people. Clubs touch thousands of young lives through cooperation with Scouts, the YMCA and Boys' Clubs.

The '30s is a decade of important firsts. Nashville, Tennessee, starts the first new member orientation program — Civitan School. Civitan reaches out for younger members for the first time; "20-30 Civitan Associates" is the name given clubs designed for young men.

The international convention is held outside the United States in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. The first international citizenship essay contest is held. In a move that foreshadows the future, Civitan clubs begin organizing auxiliaries for women, and 1936 will be the first year Civitan International is free of debt since its founding.

1940-1949

The 1940s dawn against a backdrop of international tension and global warfare. Civitans are becoming accustomed to rationing, blackouts and air raid warnings. Civitans again contribute their share of members to the front lines. Those remaining at home busy themselves with numerous projects to raise civilian and military morale. As the war draws to a close in 1945, Civitans focus their energies on peaceful issues. Honor Keys, the highest award given for service by Civitan International, are presented for the first time in 1945, and the cause of mental retardation is adopted as a special emphasis on the international level.

The years following World War II are prosperous ones. The number of Civitan clubs doubles by 1950, and a committee is formed to study problems resulting from rapid growth.
