Date: Tuesday, December 26
Course: Quail Brook - Blue - R - Rating 69.3 Slope 128 Par 72 / Silver - S - Rating 65.4 Slope 114 Par 72
The boys from the south were up for the holiday and decided to play a round in "cold" (mid-40's) New Jersey weather.
Adjusting to the weather wasn't their only issue. It seems that neither of them have walked a course or carried their bag in 6 months. Bruce's back tightened up after the 2nd hole and Dave complained about the looooog walk between 9 & 10. They pushed through the pain and both shot 74 to tie Rick for first place. They could have easily won, but the atigue effected them in different ways. It caused Bruce to 3 putt four greens and Dave was totally exhausted after taking 4 shots to get out of the front bu
