

“Be Accessible”

Yep...you read it right. God said, “Be accessible.”

Accessible for what? I thought you’d never ask....Be accessible for whatever He has planned for you today (grin). That’s all He’s asking.

Be accessible by being fixed firmly in your mind of His purposes for you today (1 Corinthians 15:58)

Be accessible for His Word to flow forth out of you (Hebrews 2:1).

Be accessible to give love or attention if someone needs it (1 Peter 3:8).

Be accessible to meet another’s needs without expecting anything in return (Philippians 2:4).

Be accessible by being observant to those around you and seeing them as God see’s them. To be accessible is love in action. It's not something we get for ourselves, but instead its an action that we express to show our love for God and others (1 John 3:14).

Being accessible for others even if it means scheduling priorities around to serve others (1 Thessalonians 5:18).

Be accessible to help carry another’s burdens (Galatians 6:2).

Be accessible to work with others in harmony (Psalm 133:1).

Be accessible to encourage others (Hebrews 3:13).

Be accessible to adjust to unexpected circumstances (Acts 8:26-31).

Pretty cool huh? I encourage you to seek God and ask Him to help you “Be Accessible.”

Gina Cobb
March 19, 2015