

HACC General Membership Meeting
October 10, 2017
12:30pm at Tobies

Meeting was called to order at 12:30pm by Deb Kroschel.

There were 11 member businesses in attendance, all of whom made introductions.

Agenda was reviewed. Motion made to approve agenda by Loretta, seconded by Sarah. Motion carried.

Meeting minutes from September were reviewed. Motion made by John to approve, seconded by Loretta. Motion carried.

Financials: There was no discussion held. Motion made by Randy to approve financials, seconded by Meliza. Motion carried.

New members: Char has brought in 13 new business this year! This month is Lil Momma's Cupcakes, Dandelion Floral and Gift and Waldheim Resort.

Citizen of the Year: Betty nominated Karen Schmidt. Karon has been involved with the carnival for many years with organizing the parade, she is very active in her church and she has been a lifelong area resident. Meliza nominated Jennifer Youkum. Jen is the editor of the Hinckley News, she attends community events, got a school newspaper going at HFHS. A vote was taken and Karon Schmidt will be the 2017 citizen of the year.

Chamber board: Deb, Jess, Sue and Barb are all up for re-election and are willing to stay on the ballot. Floor was open to nominations or volunteers to come forward for a board position. Deb asked if anyone would like to volunteer or nominate someone else to please email her.

Santa Days is coming up and will be held at the community center in the morning from 7:30-11 on December 2nd. Kids will be given a movie pass from Grand Cinema again.

Community Dinner: is a great alternative to a work Christmas party! Family Feud is played and it is a fun evening for socialization.

Char is going to add a section on the on the website for rental space, both special occasion and office space. She would also like to post job availability for member businesses.

Travor has a sign-up sheet for bell ringing on behalf of the Salvation Army. The ringing is done at Daggetts in two-hour slots. He also has the red kettles to collect donations so if any business would like to have one at their location, please let him know.

Tim made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Randy. Motion carried.

Meeting adjourned at 12:54am.