

Elizabeth Ann Hawley, of Sebewaing, passed away Sept. 24, 2016, at the age of 62.

She was born in Union City, Tennessee, Dec. 2, 1953, to Robert and Sarah (Denson) Spitznas. She married John Hawley July 23, 1983, in Arizona, and he precedes her in death.

She was a phlebotomist, enjoyed Bible Studies, Christian and country music, spending time in Tennessee, serving others through various charities, spending time with her family and especially the times spent with her grandbabies.

She is survived by her four children, Robert Spitznas of White Lake, Patrick Gola of Shepherd, Brian (Jenni) Gola of Shepherd and Sarah (Mike) Geeck of Coleman; step-daughter, Christine Rhodes of Detroit; 11 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; father, Robert Spitznas of Garden City; brother, Robert Timothy (Maude) Spitznas of White Lake; six nieces; a nephew and many cousins.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Sarah and three brothers, Dennis, Danny and Mike.

A memorial service will take place at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 2, 2016, at Faith United Methodist Church, 203 Jefferson Street, Coleman, MI 48618. Pastor Nate Reed will officiate.