A MESSAGE FROM WALK #176 LAY DIRECTOR

It is hard to believe that my original Walk was Walk #64 and now we are on Walk #176. I am sure The Lord had a good laugh as I sat there on Walk #64 thinking to myself, "There's no way I'll ever stand up there and give a talk". Now, in 2016, I am about to deliver my last Emmaus talk. That is how God helps us grow - by stepping out of our comfort zone and trusting that he will use us for something greater than ourselves. I don't know what God has planned for me next, but one thing I've learned along this journey is that if I trust Him and let Him lead the way, I will persevere.

Words cannot express the blessings that being a part of this Emmaus community have been in my life. I have enjoyed serving in the various work areas and especially have enjoyed all the amazing and inspiring friends I've made along the way. If you have not come back and gotten involved, I encourage you to do so - you will be richly blessed. Some of my greatest memories are from serving in the background in order to make each Walk the greatest Walk ever. No job is too big or too small, come and try them all!

A MESSAGE FROM WALK #176 SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

“An intentional process of growing closer to the image of Christ for the benefit of others,” That’s the way Dr. Robert Muholland defines spiritual formation and, I think, it’s a pretty good definition. Years ago, The Walk to Emmaus began as a process of building committed and effective spiritual leaders for our LORD’s CHURCH. People would attend the weekend, lay their baggage down, rise as new creatures, and go back home to become the image of Christ to their families, friends, and others. All of this was to be made possible through a personal growing relationship with Jesus Christ. What a dream! What a vision!

As we approach this weekend, a lot of water has gone over the dam. People have journeyed from all points on the spiritual spectrum; from new converts to conviction and commitments by saints to deeper discipleship. It seems like we have established a legacy of “growing closer to the image of Christ.” The opportunity is renewed with every walk to act, “for the benefit of others.” As this walk approaches, may each one, who reads this, be diligent in pray and complete at least one act of agape that helps someone else realize they are loved by God. And, while you are at it, remember who you are; a child of God chosen and blessed now and forever.

C.S. Lewis once said, “The world is crowded with God. He walks everywhere incognito.” As we continue to journey, be prepared. God has a habit of showing up. May it be so in your lives.

De Colores, Mike Densmore
