Research and Scholarships in Neurodegenerative Diseases

Co-Presidents' Message

Dear BNC Phoenix Friends and Colleagues:

2018 is off to a marvelous beginning for the Phoenix Chapter, thanks in part to the Brandeis journalism professors Eileen McNamara and Maura Jane Farrelly. At our University on Wheels breakfast, we were riveted by their discussion: From Election To Investigation And All The Fake News In Between: Media Coverage Of This President. The question and answer period on the state of journalism today could have continued for the remainder of the afternoon. It was a stimulating and spellbinding experience. Professors McNamara and Farrelly reminded us why we support Brandeis University. They made us proud to contribute to a scholarship fund that assists an Arizona student in obtaining a high quality education.

Beth Bernstein, the National Executive Director of BNC, thanked us for our efforts, which are significant to the success of the University and its students and are greatly appreciated.

In January, Concerts and Conversations treated us to an outstanding musical experience. Hannah Goldstick, a sixteen year-old violinist, and Olga Gorelik, a renowned pianist and teacher, enchanted us and the Phoenix Community with a wonderful concert. We thank Joan Sitver and her generous, hardworking committee, for providing us with a marvelous opportunity to sit back, relax and enjoy. This was another wonderful beginning to 2018.

This month our Annual Open Meeting and continental breakfast is scheduled from 10:00 am- 12:00 pm at the McDowell Center at McDowell Mountain Ranch on February 21. There will be a short business meeting. The slate of new officers will be announced and voted on. Then Carlos Galindo-Elvira, Arizona Regional Director of the Arizona Anti-Defamation League, will be our speaker. He will inform us of the challenges the ADL faces in this state. Since space is limited, please reply by February 14th to Jo Ellen Susman, joellensus@gmail.com or call 480-236-2789.

The Valley-renowned 28th Annual Book & Author Events will be on March 11th and 12th. Many luncheon reservations have already been received and the tables have begun to fill up. Register now to assure that you do not miss this memorable day. The afternoon and evening before the luncheon, our "Bookmark" donors have an opportunity to attend a marvelous cocktail party in a beautiful home, and an intimate dinner under the stars with our famous authors. It is a chance to get to meet them on a one-to-one basis. The Book & Author Event is our chapter's largest fundraiser. The proceeds will be donated to Brandeis' Sustaining the Mind Fund, which supports scholarships and research in neurodegenerative diseases. In 2017, Brandeis professors Dr. Michael Rosbash and Dr. Jeffrey Hall won the Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine. Their laboratories were funded by these donations.

Please join us for a wonderful day. Meet bestselling authors, buy their books, have them signed, and shop at our multitude of exclusive boutiques. It is a great way to have fun and also support our philanthropic mission.

Best Wishes for a great year!
Nancy and Iris

Book & Author Transportation Options

We want to make it as easy as possible for you to get to the wonderful venue for our 2018 luncheon: the Sheraton Grand Hotel at 340 North 3rd Street in downtown Phoenix.

We've determined that the easiest way to get there is to drive, especially given that complimentary parking is included in the luncheon ticket price! Once you approach downtown from wherever you are coming from in the Valley, you will want to take 7th Street. Click HERE for specific directions.

We will be facilitating car pools. If you need a ride or if you can be a car pool driver, we will try to make a connection for you. Please contact Arline Salbe: arline.bncphx@gmail.com or Judy Krockey: 480-816-1221.

You might also want to consider taking Metro Light Rail from the Central and Camelback Park 'n' Ride transportation center which has 135 free parking spaces.

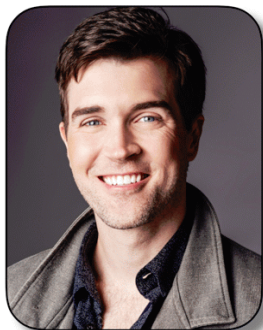

It takes about 15 minutes for the train to arrive at the Van Buren and 1st Avenue Station. From there, you can walk 3 blocks east to the hotel at 3rd and Van Buren.

Another possibility if you do not want to drive or carpool is to use phone app-based ride sharing services, such as Lyft or Uber. If you've not used them before, there are discounts for new customers! Go to <https://www.lyft.com/promo-coupon-code-free-rides> for Lyft or <https://www.uber.com/promo/> for Uber.

Whichever way you choose to get there, we look forward to seeing you at Book & Author on March 12th at the Sheraton Grand Phoenix!

Brandeis Celebrates Bernstein

This year, Brandeis celebrates the centennial birthday of acclaimed American composer and conductor Leonard Bernstein, a Brandeis faculty member and a supporter of the University from its earliest days.

From 1951-56, Bernstein taught courses at Brandeis on modern music, opera and composition. He founded the university's Festival of the Creative Arts, which today honors his legacy as an artist, an educator, an activist and a humanitarian. Centennial events will include special concerts, classes and other campus wide activities during the Leonard Bernstein Festival of the Creative Arts, April 15-22, 2018.

Featured events include selections from Bernstein's opera Trouble in Tahiti performed by the Boston Lyric Opera; Late Night with Leonard Bernstein, a cabaret-style concert narrated by his daughter, Jamie Bernstein; and a concert version of Bernstein's Mass, performed by the Brandeis University Chorus and guest artists.

Bernstein at 100

The 100th birthday of Leonard Bernstein is a worldwide celebration. Visit the official website to learn more about his life and works, centennial events around the world, or to share your memories of the maestro: <https://leonardbernstein.com/at100>.

'Memories of a Jet and a Shark'

Explore Leonard Bernstein's site on Google Arts & Culture, (www.google.com/culturalinstitute/beta/entity/m0bvzp) where the maestro comes alive through rich multimedia stories featuring interviews with former cast members and students.

Bernstein Piano Hits the Road

Leonard Bernstein's childhood piano, given to Brandeis in 2002, usually sits sedately in the Slosberg Music Center lobby. For the next couple of years, though, the dark-brown upright on which the promising young Bernstein had practiced his music lessons will have a new address: "on the town." The piano is on loan to "Leonard Bernstein at 100," organized by the Grammy Museum in Los Angeles to celebrate the centenary of the birth of the renowned composer, conductor and one-time member of the Brandeis music faculty.

Financial assistance plays a pivotal role in upholding Brandeis' founding principle of equal access to higher education, regardless of a student's financial circumstance. Scholarships ensure that the best and brightest students are able to pursue an education at this unique institution.

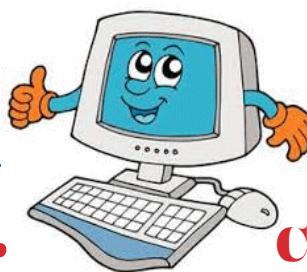

Brandeis is committed to ensuring that it meets the financial needs of its students. Endowed scholarship funds, which provide a consistent, dependable funding source, are required to accomplish this.
