Gordon, Monte

Monte W. Gordon, 59, of West Palm Beach, Fla., died unexpectedly on Saturday, Dec. 2, 2000, at his home of an apparent heart attack. He was born Jan. 20, 1940, in Port Crescent, son of Cecilia and the late Jack R. Gordon. Monte served four years in the U.S. Marine Corps. He is survived by three children, Cindy Falck of Gainesville, Fla., Kimberly Trask and Kevin Gordon, both of Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.; his mother, Cecilia Gordon of Port Austin; four brothers, Peter Gordon and his wife, Nancy, of Tucson, Ariz., Jack Gordon and his wife, Gloria, of Troy, David Gordon and his wife, Kay, and Greg Gordon and his wife, Lana, both of Port Austin; four sisters, Janice Warren and her husband, Robert, of Heber Springs, Ark., Sharon Butterworth and her husband, Tom, of Haverhill, Mass., Debra Schumacher and her husband, James, of Port Austin, and Pamela Finan and her husband, Pat, of Vancouver, Wash.   He was preceded in death by an infant sister, Patricia Ann; and his father, Jack. A memorial service took place on Thursday, Dec. 7, 2000, at the Trinity United Methodist Church in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., followed by a dinner given by his friends at the Moose Lodge in Palm Beach Gardens, where Monte had been a member for several years. Interment will be in Port Austin where a memorial service will take place at a later date.