Our staff will plan, manage and control the day-to-day operations of the Club under the guidance of the Board of Directors and the General Manager. They will be empowered and supported to enforce our Operating Creed and Club Code of Conduct.

The Club's community reputation objective is to be a Club in which membership is highly valued by virtue of its affable, compatible active Members and excellent facilities.

All stakeholders are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that creates an environment and culture that is reflective of the personal integrity and decorum consistent with a family polo and country club.

Most rules infractions will be brought to the attention of the offending Member, spouse, dependent or guest by the professional staff in as courteous manner as possible. The Board of Directors shall be the sole judge of all discipline matters. Before any member may be disciplined, a signed written complaint must be delivered to the General Manager and President.
