

James G. Kyser III MGySgt, USMC

MGySgt Kyser was the News NCOIC in 1969-1970.

Although the Master Gunny had enjoyed robust health his entire life, he began to suffer cardiac problems, and in the fall of 2013 he underwent major heart surgery. Unfortunately, the surgery was unsuccessful, and on 9 February 2014, Jim passed away. He was survived by his wife of 56 years, the former Virginia Detweiler, and by a son, a daughter, and three grandchildren. Both the Master Gunny's son and son-in-law retired from the Marine Corps with the rank of Colonel.

Burial: was in Section 22, Site 310 of Quantico National Cemetery
