HLAA WESTCHESTER CHAPTER MEETING

ADA in Medical Settings: Know Your Rights

Whether it is a hospital setting, rehabilitation facility, or your primary doctor, learn to speak up if you need communication assistance. Under the Americans with Disabilities Act, you have a right to effective communication from your medical provider.

Joe Zesski is the Program Manager of the Northeast ADA Center and has served as the New Jersey affiliate of the Northeast ADA through Resources for Independent Living since 2009. He has a Master of Divinity degree from Harvard University and a Bachelors in English Communications from Cabrini University. Mr. Zesski's focus has been on assistive technology, accessible web design, the transition of students with disabilities from high school, and accommodations in the postsecondary education environment. He is the Community Education Coordinator at Resources for Independent Living; the independent living center serving Burlington County New Jersey.

The mission of HLAA is to open the world of communication to people with hearing loss by providing information, education, support and advocacy
