Our Grand Commander Speaks:

At this writing, I'm enjoying a beautiful, sunny, warm spring day. But I'm not fooled. It's April, the month T. S. Eliot called "the cruellest month". We could still get snow. According to the weather forecast, there is up to a 69% chance that we will. But at least we can breathe a sigh of relief; this is Old Man Winter's last hurrah (I hope).

Our caravan has been quiet, but there are plans brewing for our next event, our annual golf tournament on Saturday, July 10 at Sand Hills (alternate date of August 28 in case of Covid restrictions). By then a lot of us will have had our vaccinations and we should be in a better position province-wide. I'm sure by now you've read Jerry Bonger's email with the golf tourney details you need. Let's all do our part to sell tickets and get sponsors. Last year went extremely well, even with Covid, so I'm expecting this tourney to be a great success also. Thanks to Jerry and his committee for all their hard work.

In other caravan news, I was saddened to learn of the passing of Sien Smits, mother of SN John Smits and mother-in-law of Sultana Rita Smits, and wife of the late SN Tom Smits. May she rest in peace. Please keep Sien and her family in your thoughts and prayers.

In closing, I know we are all weary of the current lockdown situation and we can't do much but wait it out. I keep beating the same old drum when I say, this will pass. At least the weather will be nicer and we can get outdoors. It will be great when I can see all your smiling faces in person!

Until then, stay well, stay safe. I miss you all!

Al Salaam,
Lisa Finch
Grand Commander

Very special thank you's this month to Jerry Bongers, Frank Devet, Louis Hendrixx, Mike Charrette, Bill Vandenberg, and Pete Van Riel. You gentlemen continue to work miracles and are some of the backbone to make our organization the success it is. I'm certain that the 2021 golf tournament will be another success.

Also I would like to thank Deacon John for quietly leading us in our faith journey.

Chaplaincy News

As we go through these interesting times, there tend to be a lot of questions without clear answers. Some of the questions pertain to the merits of the response we have to the covid virus which is creating havoc for those that are struggling with mental health and also leaving us with an economy that may have trouble recovering. Alongside this covid-19 season is also the Easter Season, and I do believe God has a purpose in all this. Even the disciples had many questions for the resurrected Christ, so Jesus continued to Journey with them for the 40 days after his resurrection. We too have a risen Christ that wants to Journey with us through these challenging times, in which we are invited through prayer to embrace the peace, love, and wisdom of Christ.

President of Lambton Right to Life

I am not sure exactly what heaven will be like, but I know that when we die and it comes time for God to judge us, he will not ask, 'How many good things have you done in your life?' rather he will ask, 'How much love did you put into what you did?'

The Last Word

As I am sitting here putting together what is likely my 25th newsletter, I'm struggling with what to share. Probably as you are reading this you might be in a slump also.

We would never have guessed a year ago that we would still be under many restrictions. I, like everyone else, am getting tired. How do we continue being vigilant, why should we continue to be vigilant? I have said this over and over again, I do not want to be the cause of someone getting Covid 19 and taking up hospital space that is critical for others. I definitely have made mistakes over the last year, and it has been hard. I have been still seeing my children occaissionally, and my sisters, when most restrictions are lifted. But a lot of my extended family and friends, I have not seen many since last Christmas. We are all in this challenge together, but we must continue to to be vigilant, to protect everyone, even the people that we feel are our enemies.

We must continue to make the best of our days. I do this by face timing daily with my new grandson, but continue to pray for a time I can hug him freely. This week-end I am supposed to do a virtual 21k run with 6 other people. They are part of my tribe of positive support. This week-end, I will still run it, but I will run it solo, looking forward to the time they can be part of my running tribe again.

Also, I am very fortunate to be going back to work this week. We are opening up our classroom to six out of the twenty one students that fall under the governments criteria. This makes me incredibly sad knowing some of our families will struggle with their children, through this lockdown. So once again, us, being vigilant, will hopefully get the people we support back into some kind of "normal" routine as quick as possible.

We must all do our part, as difficult as it may be, finnding different ways to enjoy this time, so that when we come to the other side of this craziness, we can come out surrounded still, by all our, family, friends, and neighbours.

May God Bless us all.
Master Of Communications,
Bernice Cadman
