Foreign Exchange Student: Host Needed!

Have you ever thought about bringing another culture into your home? How about by hosting a foreign exchange student from Italy?! CIEE, a non-profit organization that brings International Exchange Students to the United States for an academic year, currently has a 17-year-old boy from Italy who is wanting to come and study here in August. His name is Edoardo and he loves soccer, hiking, playing video games, and skiing! He is Catholic and expressed a desire to attend church while he is living in the United States and he said he'd love to cook authentic Italian meals for his host family, which is a treat for everyone! Edoardo will arrive in August and stay through the school year. He speaks English very well and will arrive with his own health insurance, as well as spending money to cover any personal expenses (school fees, club fees, etc.). A host family simply welcomes him as one of their own and enjoys the experience of learning about Italy and sharing the beauty of Utah with Edoardo.

We received notice from Church Budget (the company we purchase donation envelopes from) due to the back order of materials and staff shortages production is behind. We will not be receiving any preprinted envelopes until the end of February. If making a cash donation in the meantime, please put your donation in a plain envelope and write your name or envelope number on the front when dropping them in the collection basket and we will be sure to give you credit for your donation.
