

Engaged Consulting announced as Finalist for Best Independent Consultancy Firm

We are delighted to announce that Engaged Consulting is a Finalist for a Tolley's Taxation Award 2016 in the category of Best Independent Consultancy Firm.

This is great news, and recognises the innovative and topical services we provide. Tax governance and transparency issues are on the agenda for all businesses.

It is an honour to make the final shortlist given how many other firms will have been considered by the judging panel. These awards hold a prestigious place within the world of tax.

The winners will be announced on Thursday 19th May 2016 at a dinner at the Hilton Park Lane, London. We look forward to a wonderful night, and send our congratulations to the other Finalists across all categories.

A full list of Finalists is available on the Taxation Awards website, here.
