IT'S MIDNIGHT & I'm NOT FAMOUS YET

By: Heather Dinsdale

IT 's the 3rd annual IMAINFY party, perhaps the biggest Parrot Head blowout this side of the Mississippi. All your Parrot Head phriends AND live music by CLUB TRINI! That's right, this year's special guests include Coral Reefers Michael Utley and Robert Greenidge, and if you miss this, I guarantee you'll regret it!

The party runs from Friday, May 29, through Sunday the 31st. Pre-register before May 15th for only $25, and you'll hit the jackpot: you get a dinner buffet Saturday night, a commemorative t-shirt, drink coupons, a laminated pass, button, a Tommy Rocker's mug, Sunday breakfast buffet, and a canvas Corona bag with goodies from sponsors Suzy's Tropics, Corona and Parrot Bay Rum. Late registration costs ten bucks more and gives you a plastic Corona bag, dinner and drink coupons-so quit slacking and send in your money now! Check out the enclosed registration form or register on their web site at <http://members.aol.com/lvphip/page7.html> or by calling Tommy Rocker's direct at (702) 261-6688.

Tommy Rocker's will be our host for the nighttime events. Head over there Friday at 3 p.m. for the Dis-Orientation party and name tag game (winners get a free shot!). All your favorite Buffett bands play that night, including TropiCat, Jerry Gontang, Tommy Rocker and Conched Out.

Saturday is just as busy, with an 11 a.m. group photo at the Treasure Island pirate ship. From there, conga over to the Key Largo Quality Inn for the pool party (from noon till 3 p.m.). There'll be food, libations and live music by TropiCat. Impress your friends with your vast knowledge of Buffett trivia during the Parrot Pheud preliminaries, or visit Suzy's Tropics for just the right Parrotphenalia. Naked conga line optional, and we'll probably even throw someone in the pool!

Rest up for a couple hours afterwards, but don't miss the main event over at Tommy Rocker's. Starting at 5 p.m., there'll be a dinner buffet, music by Jerry Gontang, and Jackson Quigley hosting the Parrot pheud phinals. There will also be raffles and auctions aplenty, with all proceeds going to charities selected by attending PH clubs.

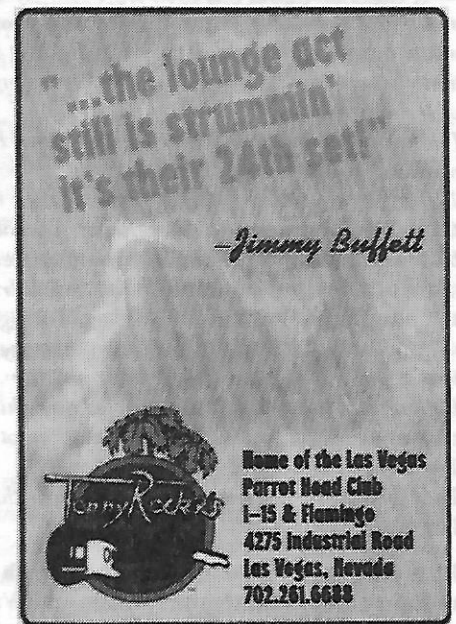

Remember, special guests this year will be:

Michael Utley
Robert Greenidge

Tina Gullickson

of Jimmy's Coral Reefer band. Mr. Utley and Robert together make up Club Trini and when you add Tina Gullickson, you get ... Magic. She's the beautiful blonde Reefereffe who sang Rag Top Day and Bob Robert's Society Band with Jimmy during last year's concert. I hear she may sing "Sheila Says" for us this year. You better show up - this will be one helluva show.

The party winds up Sunday morning with a hangover breakfast at Tommy Rocker's (free with a Saturday night wristband).

So now you're convinced, you wanna go, but you don't know where to stay? Try the Key Largo Quality Inn on Flamingo road, east of the Strip (it's where the pool party is happening). It's only $39 a night with a two night stay required. Call 800/ 634-6617 and ask for Parrot Head Club rates or contact Mike McLain at 805/526-1911 or by e-mail at TropoTrav@aol.com. See ya there!

Tim Glancey and Wally Nickel THE ULTIMATE PARROT HEAD JOB!

As most Parrot Heads are prone to do, especially after a few margaritas, I've often phantasized about the "Ultimate" Parrot Head Job. Would I be taking Peter Mayers place on lead guitar? Would I be the buyer for Margaritaville? Would it be me driving Jimmy around in his Porche instead of Mike Ramos?

The answer is "D", "None of the above." Now don't get me wrong, all of these would be mighty phine jobs. None of them would be the perfect occupation though. Sure, in all of them, I'd get to hang with Jimmy, but there would be something missing. The missing factor in all of the above jobs would be interaction with Parrot Heads. So it is, that my search ended, in all places, the parking lot of Irvine Meadows.

I think the "Ultimate" Parrot Head job would be the one Tim Glancey and Wally Nickel hold. Shooting T-Shirts into a crowd of 16,000 plus lunatic. With this in mind, I approached Tim Glancey (probably because it's harder to talk to Wally way up there on those stilts) on Jimmy's last night on tour in Irvine this past October, to find out how he got this great job. When I ask Tim if we could talk sometime, he immediately (well, just after he made another Balloon Hat for a Parakeet) scribbled down his phone number on the back of a Corona/Parrot Temporary Tattoo.

The phone interview a week later, went something like this:

First off Tim, let me tell you just how much all of us Parrot Heads out there enjoy you and Wally, and that all of us want your jobs. I bet most of them are like me, and don't know much about you, so why don't you start off by giving me a little background on both of you?

Well, I'm 39, single, from Philly and live in Orlando and Wally is, shall we say, a couple of years older, single, from New York, and he lives in Orlando too.

What was your gig before this great job?
I've always been a Magician, and Wally was a Bartender when we first met.

Where else do you perform other than at Jimmy Buffett Concerts?

One of our main gigs is performing for the Orlando Magic Basketball Team, and I run an outfit called "SPORTS MAGIC", which has over 100 people performing at other sports events all over the U.S..

How many days a year are you on the road?

About 300 days.

Boy, what do you do if there's a conflict in dates with a Jimmy Buffett Concert?

(After he gets done laughing) "Jimmy Wins", he always comes first. He's our favorite!

How did you end up getting hooked up with Jimmy?

It was at the 1990 NBA All Star Game in Orlando. Jimmy saw us performing, and sent someone down to let us know he wanted to talk to us. He asked us to join his "Traveling Show", and we jumped at it. He was looking for someone to "Keep the Lawn People Happy." We started the next year.

Who designs your equipment and outfits?

We all work on it, Jimmy, Wally and myself. Then we turn it over to Wally, he builds all the stuff we work with.

Do you have to do anything special to Psych yourselves up for a Buffett Concert?

Nope, we just suit up and head for the Parking Lot. The Parrot Heads psych us up!

I got to ask this. How many times have you been Flashed?

(After laughing) Never. (I don't believe this one, do you?)

What do you do during the concert itself?

We're involved with a lot of the special effects, and this year there was "El Stumpo".

Can you rate your top Venues (in no particular order)?

Irvine! That parking lot is the craziest. Merriweather, it's the Right Coast Irvine. Detroit, Pine Knob is turning into a great show, and Cincy, even though they've been cutting back there.

I'd sure like to thank Tim & Wally, not only for taking the time to talk with me, but for all the Phun they've given us Parrot Heads at the concerts. I agree with Tim wholeheartedly when he remarked, "we know more ways to fling a T-Shirt into a crowd than anyone."

KINJA RULES!

KNEES OF MY HEART CLUB MEMBERS TAKE A LEAP OF FAITH

Justin Silva & Wendee Walker ...

"I've got a question for you, please grant me an interview"

It was set to happen on a beautiful Saturday afternoon in Hanford, CA. The owners of the old Fox theater were in on it and agreed to put on the marquee, 'WENDEE, WILL YOU MARRY ME? LOVE, JS.'" Justin makes a believable excuse to go into town. He passes one side of the theater and the message is not there. Nervously, he crosses the street, hoping it will be on the front of the marquee, and it's not there. He keeps walking, looks to the last side of where he knows he will see it now, and all he reads is an announcement for a group of popular country bands appearing soon in concert.

With the ring hiding in his boot, he thinks, okay, I have to do it, even without the surprise of the big question in lights. He walks her to the historic town square directly across from the Fox, gets down on one knee and asks "will you marry me?" Wendee of course says yes, and the beautiful ring is placed on her finger. They continue to a restaurant where Justin's family is waiting to celebrate their father's birthday. With a surprise visit from Wendee's mom, Donna and her fiancé Joe Crabtree, the announcement is made to an excited large family.

The next morning as the gang is having breakfast, a call comes in to announce the message is now on the Fox Theater. We all caravan to the quaint town to see the marquee, and sure enough, it now reads 'WENDEE WILL YOU MARRY ME? LOVE JS.'" We embarrass them and make Justin reenact the whole proposal for all of us to see and take many pictures.

"I'm gonna show you what my love can do out on the ocean all alone with you, we'll find a desert island on an ancient chart - Take me from the knees of my heart."

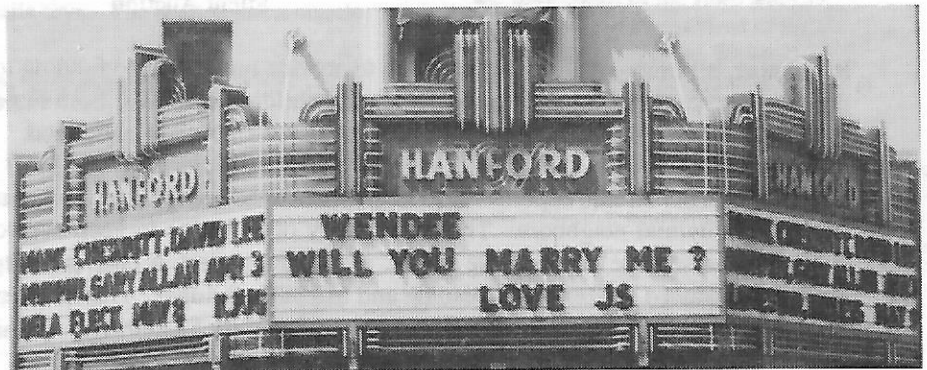

During the last month, two of our OCPHC members got on the knees of their hearts and took the first step to holy matrimony. Here are their stories:

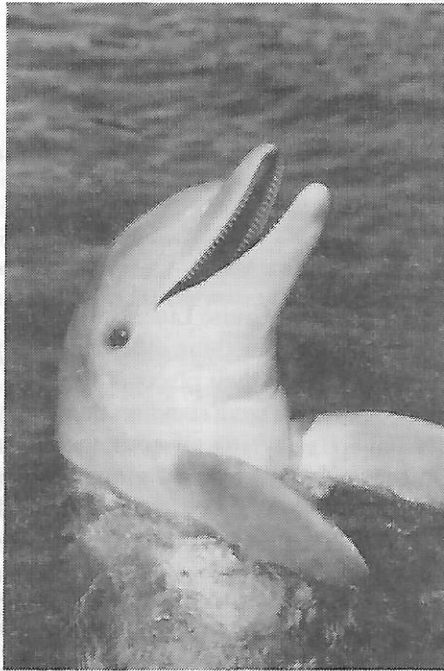

A.J. & Lorri

As members of the OCPHC boarded the Carnival Cruise Line, Holiday for a weekend trip to Ensenada, we all knew there was something different about this trip. Several people had their assignments and took their places at the appointed hour - 4:00 on the Veranda deck. As we were standing there waiting for our club photo to be taken, what is that up in sky - oh my gosh, look Lorri, it's for you!! An airplane pulling a huge banner flew over the group boasting the words "LORRI, WILL YOU MARRY ME? LOVE, A.J." Just then, A.J. dropped to his knees and asked the question of his beloved while Cory Jones recorded the entire event on video - will she say yes? We held our breaths and waited as Lorri screamed "Yes, I'll marry you." "Does my mother know you're doing this?" Members, Nellie Carlen and Nichole Fletcher had the job of breaking open the champagne and pouring it into the special glasses A.J. had specially made with their names engraved.

It was such a romantic occasion and everyone applauded the happy couple, but the weekend wasn't over yet.... A.J. had other things in store. When we reached Ensenada, we had a fantastic party at El Patio bar with Jerry Gontang of KokoLoco providing the Buffett tunes we all love, but suddenly A.J. appeared on stage and to the tune of "Come Monday," he sang to his lovely fiancé the following....

Headin' out to Ensenada/with my lover on a weekend cruise/I've got my flip flops on/ I guess I never was meant for those tuxedo shoes/and honey I didn't know/that you'd be lovin' me so and... Come Monday, it'll be all right/and one day I will make you my wife/I've spent all of my days in this romantic haze and I just want you right by my side. Yes, it's all happened so quickly/it's a love that no one can explain/and now I've officially asked you/with a banner bein' pulled by a plane/and darlin', I love you so/that's the reason that I won't let you go and Come Monday.... I can't help it, honey/you're so much a part of me now/remember that doo dah parade/when I pulled you right out of the crowd. I hope you're enjoying this party/I know that I sing out of tune/we can start planning on Tuesday/don't worry this song's over soon/we both know that I'll never be thin/but I'll love you again and again... Come Monday.. Ahhhh, romance, ain't it grand!!!

OCPHC Adopted Dolphin, Pax

PAX ... WHAT A YEAR IT HAS BEEN

By: Roxanne Jones

It seems when the OCPHC decided to lend our support to the Dolphin Research Center, we were following in Bubba's own footsteps. Jimmy Buffett has been a long time phriend to the fine pholks at DRC and still makes time to visit. We first got wind of this when we were told a letter had been sent to Jimmy, thanking him for this club's support. This month we received a great photo of Jimmy swimming with two of DRC's residents. It's nice to know our phriends at the center are keeping such good company.

Pax reached a milestone this month when he celebrated his first birthday. The mortality rate for a dolphin calf in the first year is fairly high, even in captivity. That makes this birthday great cause for celebration, not that we ever need an excuse to party.

As of November 21, Pax is no longer the youngest member of the pod. Merina gave birth to a little girl (unnamed at this time). The two of them are currently living in the same lagoon as Tursi and Pax. Pax must have learned some good parenting skills because even at his young age he is already baby-sitting the new calf. Must be quite a sight. If you happen to visit the Keys, be sure to stop in and visit Pax and all our phriends at the Dolphin Research Center.

PARROT HEAD ALERT!! THE ORANGE COUNTY PARROT HEAD CLUB 3RD ANNUAL CHILI COOK-OFF IS APPROACHING

Circle the date with a big red pen — JULY 19TH — the OCPHC annual fund raising event for the Casita de San Jose. Bring the family, plan the day. Held at the Baja Beach Club off Santiago Canyon Road, this year's event is shaping up to be the biggest yet! Under the guidance of member, Marilyn Parker, Parrot Heads are phlocking to join the many committees available. But we still need more of you to join in and help with this worthwhile event. Contact Marilyn at 786-6172 if you want to volunteer for any of these committees:

Admission Ticket Sales
Food and Drink Ticket Sales
Miscellaneous Sales
Raffle Ticket Sales
Set up/Decorating Committee
Silent Auction

Remember, all proceeds from this event go to provide much needed funding to the Casita. There are 5 group homes now providing love, nurturing and caring for abused children who have been removed from their abusive environment to get back the most important thing in their lives ... the return of their childhood.

So don't miss out on this opportunity to help produce the event of the year. And don't forget to invite all your co-workers, friends, family and neighbors. There are plenty of activities to keep everyone happy, including chili tasting, a silent auction, a horse shoe contest, live music, a domino contest, a chili pepper tasting contest and some special Parakeet activities produced by Heather Dinsdale and Michelle Bridges. Tickets are only 8.00 in advance and $10.00 at the door. Sign up now to help the club achieve its 1998 goal to raise $22,000.

CAGE LINER NOTES

★ Robert Greenidge Performs in New York... "The Pride of the Caribbean," a concert by steel pan greats, Boogie Sharpe, Earl Brooks, Robert Greenidge and Andy Narrell, played at Center for the Performing Arts at Brooklyn College on March 14th. All these performers are synonymous with the steel pan and its growth into an internationally known and respected instrument.

★ Iko-Iko Performs at Margaritaville ... On January 18th, Iko-Iko (Don't Stop the Carnival band) was performing to a packed house at Margaritaville in Key West. Jimmy heard Iko was in town and decided to sit in on about three songs. Well the 3 songs ended up being a 2-1/2 hour rockin' session that included songs from "Carnival" and a cover of Bob Marley's "No Woman, No Cry."

★ Jimmy spotted at Heat Games ... Miami Parrot Head, Liz, has seen Jimmy at the last two home Miami Heat basketball games, sitting in his usual seat almost under the basket in the Heat end zone, next to Sly Stallone and Bob Griese.

★ A New Star is Born.... Greg "Fingers" Taylor and his lovely wife, Amanda welcomed the newest harp player, Steven Jacob Taylor. Born April 20th at 5:51 a.m., Steven weighed in at 8 lbs., 12 oz. Congratulations to the Taylor family.

Peter Mayer Video Review
by Mike McLain

Last October I had the pleasure of being invited by Peter Mayer and Tina Gullickson to see and hear a wonderful show at Billboard Live featuring Peter and The PM Band. The Band includes Peter on guitar and vocals, "Dancin'" Jim Mayer on bass, Roger Guth on drums, Vince Varvel on keyboard and Jay Oliver on guitar.

True Parrot Heads are of course aware that this is a good portion of Jimmy Buffett's Coral Reefer Band. Tina, in case you don't know, is the gorgeous tall blonde with the wonderful voice who is half of Jimmy's Reefereettes.

While enjoying the show with a few friends, Tina mentioned that she and her husband, Lance Gullickson were at work producing and directing Peter's very first music video.

I kinda lost track of Tina and the video once the Havana Daydreamin' Tour resumed and made a mental note to contact her down the road. We spoke recently and not only was the video done, but she dropped what she was doing to bring me several copies to debut to the Parrot Head Clubs.

The video was done to Peter's song, "Shall We Dance" from his CD, Green Eyed Radio. I sat down, hit play and was enthralled at the quality of Peter's first stab at a music video. I found the video to be beautifully filmed, the love story between a ballerina and a studio janitor was both moving and sensuous. I loved the lighting and the mood and the way Peter sang the story. A great endeavor by all, especially, Peter, Tina and Lance.

Thanks to Peter and Tina's generosity, we will have copies of the video and CD available for the Parrot Head Club Phundraising programs. We are also planning to have them available for sale at the Chili Cook-Off. Peter wants all his phans to know how much he appreciates the positive response to "Green Eyed Radio," and hopes to see all of us when he swings through Southern California again.

I'll be there, how "about you?"

WHO MUGGED DON HO?

By: Cory Jones

It was statements like this that set the stage as 50 parrotheads descended on the Carnival ship Holiday April 24th for a "well-deserved overdue binge" cruise to Ensenada Mexico. Sponsored by Suzy's Tropics, the Orange County and L.A. PHC's, and expertly arranged by Mike McLain and Chris Morse of Tropo Travel.

The cruise had an auspicious beginning, as our own A.J. proposed to his now fiancé Lorri just before we set sail (see related article in this issue). But almost became a disaster for Jerry Gontang. He was standing at the rail as the ship sailed, only to see his equipment still sitting on the dock below! Luckily for all of us, the crew of the Holiday were able to have his equipment sent out to the ship on a launch, and we were underway!

We were all looking forward to a non-stop 3 day party, but one of the main reasons we were there was to help raise money for the Surfrider Foundation. Our first event was a listening party to preview Jimmy's new album "Don't Stop the Carnival". It was really kewl getting a chance to be one of the few to hear the album before it was released. While we were listening to the album, Mike McLain raffled off several items donated by Suzy's, and the OC & LA Clubs.

Nightlife on board was wild to say the least. As late evening came around, most of the hardy souls on board gathered in the disco for a few hours of dancing. That was where the ship's unofficial hound dog Dr.

"Happyshark" Bob was known to prowl until the wee hours. Sunday finally arrived, and with it our destination. All hands piled aboard the shuttle buses for the short trip into Ensenada for a day of shopping and partying. A group of us met up downtown on a quest for the best fish tacos in town. We found them, but I am afraid I can't name the place. The restaurant, run by a crusty expatriate, had only been open two weeks and he hadn't gotten around to putting up a sign. All I can say is, these were GREAT tacos! After our meal, it was time to head to the El Patio for a "jump ship" party arranged by Mike. Everyone who attended enjoyed a great party with entertainment provided by Jerry Gontang, who played an amazing 3+ hour marathon. During

IT'S TIME AGAIN TO BATTER UP...

It's that time of year again so bring out the bats, softballs and lots of body protection. The third annual OCPHC Softball Tournament is scheduled for Saturday, June 13th. Beginning at 10:00 a.m., the event will be held in Anaheim. Tournament organizer, Mel Bashor urges everyone to dust off those shoes and get back in shape for this phun event. Remember last year when the Latitude 38 club took away the really cool Corona trophy? Well gang — it's time to win it back!!

If you're interested in playing on the team, or if you just want to come out and have a picnic, contact Mel at (714) 996-7657. This is a family event - so be sure to bring the kids, lunch, drinks and a great attitude. We need to cheer on the team.

his show, several people were drawn in from the street, and we even managed to sign up two of them as new members! A splendid time was had by all. If the full day of partying in Ensenada wasn't enough, when we arrived back on board it was time for the Surfrider benefit party. While Jerry played and sang (this guy has incredible stamina!) we all enjoyed the free drinks provided by Carnival. During the evening we had another raffle, as well as an auction to benefit Surfrider. After all was said and done, we had raised nearly 1,300 for the foundation.

By then the harbor lights were coming into view, and it was time to say our farewells much too soon. We will all remember the great weekend that we had, and the new friends we all made. Many thanks to Tropo Travel Club, Suzy's Tropics, and the Orange County and L.A. club's for making the trip possible. It was a lovely cruise.

And you thought the SHOES looked funny...

By: Heather Dinsdale

It was Saturday night, the pins were flying, and Parrot Heads tossed back Coronas with one hand and bowling balls with the other. For a measly 12 bucks, they bowled their hearts out, got pizza and even a free drink. Who'd be crazy enough to host such an event? Howzabout the Tustin Lanes, home of the 2nd Annual OCPHC Bowling Tournament, which took place April 19th.

It was great fun, and some of the Parrot Heads could actually bowl. (OK, none on my team, but you should've seen Cory Jones in the lane next door!) There were 36 bowlers, grouped into teams of four. They had three games to strut their stuff. Prizes were awarded for highest score, lowest score, and some other categories as well, but being Parrot Heads, no one remembered to write them down. Oops! No worries, Julie Barker simply passed out the prizes donated by Suzy's Tropics.

After the tournament ended, the group commandeered the bar (surprise, surprise). We pushed all the tables into the center of the room, and stationed ourselves in a giant circle around them. This helped later when we convinced the DJ to play "Volcano" off his brand new, still-unopened "Songs You Know By Heart" CD (Greg Campana had the honors of ripping it open!). We heard the call to conga and responded appropriately, while all the other bowlers just stared at us, bemused. Didn't slow us down any, though. It was a great time and we can't wait to do it all over again.

INVITE TO CATALINA

Hello Fellow Club Leaders:

I hope you and your club members will be able to join the Los Angeles Parrot Head Club for a party in Catalina on August 22, 1998. The Catalina Express 1-800-805-9197 has frequent schedules so you can head over to Catalina at a time that's right for you. Mike McLain of Tropo Travel can assist you with room reservations. Mike can be reached at (805) 526-1911. Or just come and party for the day.

We're all meeting at 11:00 a.m. at the Catalina Cantina followed by cocktails at the Descanso Beach Club at 2:00 and then we can conga line down to the Blue Parrot to watch the sunset. There is a late boat back to the mainland or just stay for the night and start all over again the next day.

If you're interested, contact Nellie at (714) 744-2818 or myself at (818) 349-4319.
