Happy Easter full of hope and Eternal Life.

Some helpful tips for corresponding with candidates:

1. Vocations Placement prefers to reach out to discerners weekdays after 6 p.m. their time via email or text.
2. When phone calling, we prefer to call after 1 p.m. their time.
3. In case you are not aware Vocations Placement regularly reaches out to candidates tracking their progress and encouraging them to visit in person, discuss applying if interested to know if the vocations director agrees, and entering as soon as possible.
4. We encourage them to keep visiting different places if they have not found their vocation.
5. We do deactivate the information of those who apply, enter, or are no longer discerning.
6. Be aware, many candidates do not realize that food and rooms are free when visiting and that they can get a lift from someone to pick them up if they travel by plane, bus, etc.
7. Many are not aware how easy it is to arrange individual vocations retreats or group vocations event.

Just a reminder that Vocations Placement depends on donations from vocations directors. Use the address in the above letterhead or the link below. Please let your bookkeeper know.

So, I would like more monastery options if all possible. I've also sent a vocation inquiry to The Franciscans. Thank you for all the support you're doing for all of us discerning God's call. God bless you! I look forward to your response! James

God bless you! Peace! Best regards, Alex

Your program offered me a great opportunity to explore different communities and it helped me get closer to God in my own way and I have really learned a great deal about myself and my relationship with God. I appreciate you all and I will certainly recommend you to the young people I work with in and out of my church. You have been part of a life changing opportunity and I appreciate it. Thank you and have a blessed day. Brandon
