November 18, 2017

Alora Johns called the meeting of the Central Texas Pastel Society to order at 9:30 am in the Georgetown Public Library, Georgetown, Texas. All were welcomed. Alora filled in as president for President Jan Frazier and President Elect Holly Reed as they were both out of town.

Reports:

- A. Treasurer - Alora Johns reported that we presently have a balance of approximately $4700. New memberships have helped bring the treasury balance up, although, it is still a little lower than usual.
- B. Exhibition Chair – Sue Kernan announced that the St. David’s Hospital Show will be April 6 – June 1. They would like 35 paintings and preferably from 35 different artists. The theme should be positive. The Library Show will be held December 2 – 29th in 2018. Thirty paintings are needed for the library show. It has been decided that in the future a separate person will be in charge of each exhibition rather than having the Exhibition Chair do all the work. The Exhibition Chair will oversee the shows. Volunteers are wanted.
- C. Workshop – The annual workshop will be led by Rita Kirkman December 2 – 3 in Round Rock at the South Star Bank, 3025 FM 1431. The workshop is full.
- D. Programs Chair – Jane Frederick announced that the April program will be given by Philip Wade. The May program is still being planned and the topic will be on framing art work. Jane is checking on interest in a show at the Austin Corridor of Art. A notice will be sent to the full membership.
