RELEASE IMRAN KHAN NOW

Noreen Niazi, one of the three sisters of jailed and former Pakistani Prime Minister Imran Khan, expressed anguish over the uncertainty looming about her brother's condition in jail, saying that the authorities haven't allowed her and others to meet him for over four weeks. Speaking to ANI, Niazi highlighted the oppression faced by the cricketer-turned-politician, claiming that the authorities were deliberately holding information about his condition in jail, withholding access to reach him.

"We don't know anything. They are not telling us anything, nor are they letting anybody meet him. His party's people went there because they had a meeting scheduled, but they were not allowed inside. We have not been allowed to meet him for the last four weeks. We got to know that news was circulating in India that he had been killed," she said.

Niazi lambasted the Pakistani establishment, claiming that police have been given free hand to deal with those standing with Imran Khan. Criticising the incidents related to police brutality, she said that police have been allowed to "beat up" people, including children, women, and the elderly, without the fear of facing any consequences.

"The police have been ordered to stop us and, I believe, also permitted to do to us whatever they want. This has never happened in Pakistan before. No one has ever disrespected women like this, nor has anyone been oppressed this way. This is the first time in Pakistan that these people have been allowed to beat up people like there won't be any consequences, without considering if it's a child, an elderly person, or a woman in front of them. The world is aware of what's happening in Pakistan," she asserted. Earlier, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Chief Minister Sohail Afridi on Thursday reached Rawalpindi's Adiala Jail, where Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) founder Imran Khan and his wife, Bushra Bibi, were held in connection with a web of corruption charges.

US To Review "Every" Green Card Of Some Nationalities after DC shooting

President Donald Trump previously classified 19 countries as "of Identified Concern," including Afghanistan, the home country of the detained suspect in shooting.

The Trump administration announced Thursday that it would review the immigration status of every permanent resident or "Green Card" holder from Afghanistan and 18 other countries following the attack on National Guard troops in Washington.

US officials have identified the detained suspect in Wednesday's shooting as an Afghan national who previously worked with American forces in Afghanistan.

The 29-year-old suspect was granted asylum -- not permanent residency -- in April this year, according to AfghanEvac, a group that helped resettle Afghans in the United States after the 2021 Taliban takeover.

"I have directed a full scale, rigorous reexamination of every Green Card for every alien from every country of concern," said Joseph Edlow, director of the US Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS), on X.

When asked to specify to which countries Edlow was referring, a USCIS spokesperson pointed AFP to President Donald Trump's June executive order classifying 19 countries as "of Identified Concern."

BREAKING NEWS

179 ADAMS LOYALISTS OUT, AS NEW MAYOR SIGNALS "THIS WILL NOT BE BUSINESS AS USUAL"

In one sweeping decision, Mayor-elect Zohran Mamdani has done what critics say should have happened years ago: he told the political class that City Hall is not a retirement home for friends of the last mayor. By asking 179 Adams-aligned appointees to resign while keeping nonpolitical civil servants in place, Mamdani is drawing a bright line between those who serve a person and those who serve a city. The stakes are enormous — for the staffers packing up, for the 70,000 hopefuls knocking on the door, and for a public that's about to find out whether a "clean slate" can finally deliver a government that feels like it works for them.

And for some, it's the dawn of cleaner government. For others, it's the salvo that their time — and the old mayor's time — is officially over.

Hyderabadi Community in North Texas Marks Annual Gala With Tradition, Tribute and Music

-Mirza Pervaiz Baig

PLANO, Texas — While more than two dozen Hyderabadi associations operate across the United States, few match the scale or fervor of the annual gala hosted by the Hyderabad Society of North Texas (HSNT). The group once again drew a sold-out crowd on Nov. 15 at the Crystal Banquet Hall, where attendees arrived dressed in vibrant saris, sherwanis, and formal suits, filling the room with color and anticipation.

Board members greeted guests at the entrance, among them Azeem Quadeer, the Editor in Chief of Asia Times, who stood out in an elegant sherwani.

The evening began promptly as emcees Zeeshan Farooqui and Rahat Arifuddin took the stage and invited Hafiz Sajjad Gul to recite verses from the Quran. His mellifluous delivery, familiar to many through his recordings on YouTube, brought a reflective calm to the room. You can listen to his beautiful recitation on YouTube, by just typing “Qari Sajjad Gul.”

The hosts then shifted the tone with a brief Urdu comedy sketch, peppered with Hyderabadi idioms that drew warm laughter from the audience. A lively quiz on Hyderabad’s history and culture followed, with winners receiving gift cards amid spirited participation.

HSNT President Mohammed Hameed delivered the formal welcome, acknowledging the board’s efforts and highlighting the organization’s community initiatives. The annual HSNT Community Service Awards were presented next, with Dr. Abdul Rahiman announcing this year’s honorees.

Janab Manzoor Ghouri received recognition for his decades-long commitment to improving Muslim community institutions in the United States and Hyderabad in India. In his remarks, he urged the audience to play an active role in uplifting underserved communities. Another award went to Faizan Zaki, the young prodigy who captured national attention after winning the Scripps National Spelling Bee earlier this year. He offered encouraging words to students aspiring to follow in his footsteps.

A posthumous tribute was given to the late Mr. Hadi Ali, accepted by his wife Aasia Ali and their son, drawing an emotional response from attendees.

Dinner featured a spread of Hyderabadi classics — aromatic biryani, bagara baingan, pathar ka gosht, naan, salads, and gajar ka halwa — served alongside tea, coffee, and soft drinks.

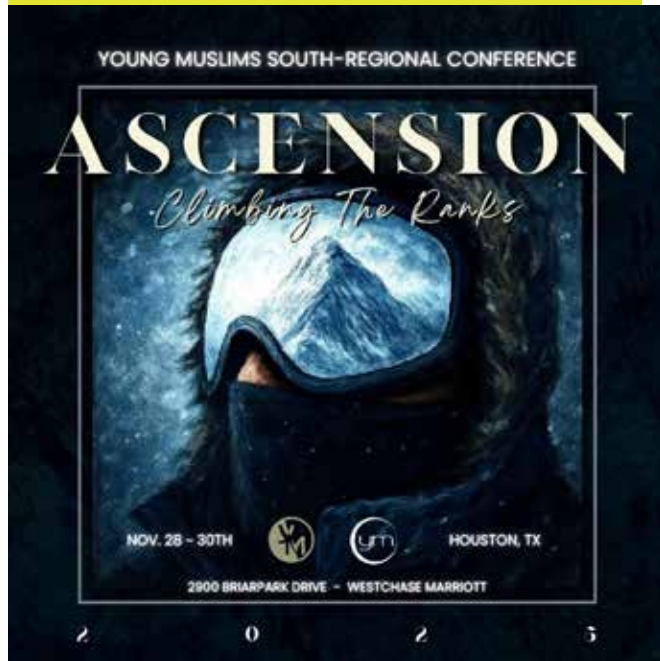

The headline performance of the night came from renowned qawwals Ghulam Fareed Ayaz — born in Hyderabad Deccan — and his brother Abu Muhammad belong to the celebrated “Delhi Gharana” who are masters of Sufi-style music. Their renditions of Sufi favorites such as Tajdar-e-Haram, Mera Piya Ghar Aaya, Dama Dam Mast Qalandar, Aaj Rang Hai, and Kangna held the audience spellbound. Applause lingered long after the final notes, with many reluctant to see the performance conclude. As the banquet halls are booked for a limited time, no matter how much you are enjoying the performance, it has to end sometime.

With a packed hall, enthusiastic crowd, and a blend of culture, cuisine, and music, the event was widely regarded as one of HSNT’s most successful evenings yet. Alongside President Hameed, board members, including Azeem Quadeer, Zeeshan Farooqui, Rahat Arifuddin, Munawar Rahman, Dr. Abdul Rahiman, Mohammed Shawkat, Mohammed Arifuddin, Mohamed Abdur Rahman, Sattar Khan, Imran Khan, Aasia Ali, Dr. Anjum Rahiman, Mohammed Mansoor Ahmed, and Raazia Munawar were credited for orchestrating the memorable gathering.

Inna lillahi wa inna elayhe rajعون

It's with a heavy heart we announce that Sheikh Yasir Qadhi's dad, Dr. Mazhar Kazi, passed away yesterday.

Dr. Mazhar was a legend and a source of inspiration mashallah tabarakAllah!

He was a pioneer in establishing the Muslim Student Association (MSA) at University of Houston where my husband and I first met.

He helped establish the Islamic Society of Greater Houston and set up the first Eid prayers consisting of 5 people. 20 years later over 20,000 people prayed Eid prayers.

For decades he taught new Muslims with so much love and acceptance.

He had a deep passion for education and had several degrees, several masters and a PhD mashallah tabarakAllah and authored many books.

I remember visiting their home in Houston over 30 years ago where Sheikh Yasir would teach classes before he became a famous sheikh.

Their family is dedicated to dawa, being a source of knowledge and supporting the community at large.

When he moved to Dallas my husband and I enjoyed visiting Dr. Mazhar and his lovely wife. I enjoyed learning from their wisdom, gaining life lessons and gaining inspiration for how they instilled the love of Allah and the deen in their children mashallah.

I aspired to raise children who have the same commitment and love for the deen.

He was truly a hero for my family and I! I loved how enthusiastic he was about giving dawa. Each time I visited he would gift me one of his books, he shared stories and even recited Persian poetry.

I was in tears knowing that we lost such an exemplary human being who loved Islam and demonstrated Islam through his beautiful character, wisdom and acceptance.

He taught me that if you want to do dawa you need to meet people where they are, accept them, make them feel loved and most importantly feed them

I have always had deep respect for Dr. Mazhar Kazi and I'm certain he is going to be amongst the saliheen inshaAllah.

May Allah raise his status, grant him the highest level of Jannah and comfort the hearts of all those he left behind especially his dear wife, his sons Dr. Yasir Qadhi, Br. Obaid, his daughter in-laws Sr. Romana and Sr. Uzma and his grandchildren. He will be missed!

The North Texas Islamic Council's Post (NTIC) stands in unwavering solidarity with Council on American-Islamic Relations, formally known as CAIR in defending our Constitutional rights. The recent actions taken against CAIR are not only unjustified ; they signal a dangerous intrusion on First Amendment protections that guarantee freedom of speech, religion, and association for every American. At today's press conference ; joined by state representatives, faith leaders, advocacy organizations, and our united interfaith coalition partners ; we confronted a deeply troubling trend in our state: the rise of Islamophobia, bigotry, and the reckless spread of false narratives by irresponsible political figures. NTIC remains steadfast in our commitment to truth, dignity, and the safety of every community in Texas. Hate has no place here. We will continue to champion constitutional freedoms, foster understanding, and strengthen unity across our diverse Texas family.

Dallas principal removed after calling meeting with only Black students about their grades: 'You guys are the reason we are not an A school'

The principal at Woodrow Wilson High School in Dallas has been removed after she held a meeting exclusively with Black students to blame them for the school's academic reputation.

Principal Chandra Hooper-Barnett called the meeting only with Black students discuss the school's recent "B" academic rating, sparking outrage among parents.

"He said that Principal Barnett stated that those students, the Black students, were the reason why the school had a B rating," Jennifer Bush, the parents of a sophomore at the school, told the Dallas Morning News.

Bush told the paper that she was "livid," noting that her son has a 3.5 GPA and is in advanced placement and college classes. "She's Black as well. You have a historical position ... and this is what you do. That's insane," Bush told the paper.

According to Fox 4 News, the school previously had a "C" rating, so its academic performance has actually improved over the last year. But parents still felt that Black students were being blamed for the school's rating not being high.

"The principal stated how [the Black students] are the reason for the B rating. And it was not like 'oh you guys helped raise it to a B,' it was 'you guys are the reason we are not an A school,'" Jennifer, a Woodrow Wilson parent, told the broadcaster.

The mother said that Barnett needed to be removed, as the trust between the school and the families had been "broken" by her alleged targeting of Black students.

Woodrow Wilson has a student population of 2,000, about 6 percent of whom are Black. Following the meeting and the blowback, Barnett issued a letter to parents taking responsibility for the incident.

"The decision to hold that meeting and subsequent discussion that transpired was not appropriate," she wrote. "I take full ownership and responsibility for what occurred, and I want to assure you that it was never my intent to single out or cause harm to any group of students."

On Monday, the Dallas Independent School District sent a letter to parents informing them that Barnett would no longer serve as the principal, and that Danielle Peters would take over as interim.

The statement, sent by Dallas ISD Superintendent Stephanie Elizalde, confirmed that the meeting Barnett called was not sanctioned by the district. The letter did not include details of what actually happened during the meeting.

Indian American Medical Association's Illinois chapter 45th Gala Celebrates Community, Leadership, and Legacy

In the crisp embrace of a fall evening, the Indian American Medical Association (IAMA) Illinois chapter transformed a chilly night into a warm tapestry of camaraderie, culture, and celebration at its 45th Annual Gala and Business Meeting. Held at Ashyana Banquets, Downers Grove, IL, the event wasn't just a gathering - it was a vibrant testament to the unbreakable bonds that Indian American physicians forge between medicine, community, and heritage. With laughter echoing through the halls, melodies dancing in the air, and stories of selfless service shared over sumptuous feasts, the gala honored the healers who light up lives far beyond the clinic walls.

The evening kicked off with infectious energy, hosted by the dynamic husband and wife duo of Ashok and Megha Doshi. "Relax and enjoy a fun-filled evening in the warm company of your friends," Ashok urged the assembled guests, setting a tone of joy and connection. Megha, with her self-proclaimed "gift of gab," playfully defended the art of conversation, citing medical research that links socialization to lower risks of dementia and delayed Alzheimer's. "Talking is an art, do you agree?" she quipped, drawing chuckles and nods from the crowd. Their banter was a perfect prelude to the patriotic harmonies that followed.

Sixteen-year-old Ashi Sarai, a junior at Hinsdale Central High School, competitive tennis player, and choral enthusiast, captivated the audience with a soul-stirring rendition of "The Star-Spangled Banner." Her clear, youthful voice soared through the verses, evoking pride in the land of the free. Joining her was the multifaceted Dr. Rohit Vasa, a marathon runner, photographer, traveler, and leader in numerous organizations, including IAMA and its charitable foundation. Dr. Vasa's heartfelt performance of the Indian national anthem, "Jana Gana Mana," bridged continents, reminding everyone of the dual heritage that fuels this community's spirit.

Alhamdulillah, this Thanksgiving weekend we were able to distribute hundreds of turkeys to families in need across our community, and none of this would have been possible without each and every one of you — our incredible volunteers.

Eternal Grace Ignites Naperville: Madhuri Dixit's Golden Diva Night Weaves Bollywood Magic into Chicago's Heartbeat

Eternal Ek Do Teen: Madhuri's Fan-Fueled Fiesta Ignites Chicago's Soul

Chicago, IL: In the crisp November chill of Naperville, Illinois, autumn leaves whispering secrets to the wind, a storm of sequins and nostalgia swept The Matrix Club on Saturday, November 8, 2025. It was a resurrection of dreams, Bollywood's golden era unfurling under disco lights and thunderous applause. Rajshri Events, Mauj Entertainment, and Kashif Khan Events orchestrated "Golden Diva of Bollywood Madhuri Dixit." Doors opened at 8:00 pm; the air hummed with timeless promise. Families in shimmering sarees, wide-eyed millennials clutching phones, and elders dancing to 90s cassettes gathered as pilgrims to grace.

The Matrix Club transformed into a glittering mandap. Crystal chandeliers dangled like monsoon dewdrops, casting rainbows over chaat platters and thandai shots. Backstage anticipation built like a Lata Mangeshkar crescendo. Host Shalin Bhanot, Bigg Boss charmer, bounded onstage like mischievous Krishna, mic in fist. "What's up, Chicago?" he bellowed, voice blending desi swagger and American twang, bridging divides. The crowd erupted—whistles, claps, desi "waah!"—joy circuits flipped.

This was Madhuri Dixit-Nene's love letter, the dhak-dhak girl melting Chicago winters. Shalin teased a fan competition, turning the floor into dance-off. "Biggest Madhuri fan?" he challenged. Rita Shah, emerald-clad, nailed "Choli Ke Peeche Kya Hai," hips swaying Kathak-precision. Judges—Shalin and grinning volunteers—awarded applause after tiebreaker stitches. "Contestant number one!" Cheers rivaled World Cup. Chaotic, cathartic: fandom as full-body rebellion.

Then, smoke and spotlight. Shalin hushed: "The incomparable, eternal Madhuri Dixit!" Timeless tracks pulsed; she emerged ethereal in crimson lehenga flowing like molten lava, eyes sparkling with "Dil To Pagal Hai" mischief. Audience rose in adoration wave. Awards crescendo: Madhuri presented Nagi Nishad Neighbor Health Clinic, Suzy Thumbs & Fusion, Ajit Singh, Sunil Shah. Handshakes stardom goodwill; "Keep shining" benediction.

Confetti rained near midnight; Madhuri adieu "Tumse Juda Hokar," voice emotion-cracked: "Pal bhar ki judaai, phir laut aana hai." Crowd spent-soaring chanted "We love you!" multilingual. Shalin: "Epic. Unforgettable." Lights dimmed; Naperville cradled legend, Bollywood pulse eternal Chicago veins.

Filtering Facts from Ideologies

-Gulam Samdani

In examining the foundations of divisions within the Muslim community, the issues of Fadak and Zakat repeatedly surface. Yet the political weight of these events is often concealed beneath theological narratives crafted through sectarian lenses. What are presented as "historical facts" are, ideologized truths, accounts filtered through competing doctrines. My intent here is to strip away these layers and analyze the transition after the Prophet Muhammad's (PBUH) death through a purely political administrative lens.

The first decisive fracture occurred immediately after the Prophet's passing, when the community rushed to fill the sudden vacuum of leadership. In this moment of crisis, tribal urgency and human calculation overtook previously delivered prophetic guidance, most notably the explicit declaration at Ghadir Khumm, appointing Ali (AS) as the Mawla, the one to be consulted as leader and guide. This guidance was overshadowed by the rapid, momentarily contentious selection of Abu Bakr (RA) at Saqifah, marking the point where political expediency overtook spiritual instruction.

Abu Bakr's own profile is crucial to understanding the decisions that followed. Unlike companions known for asceticism alone, Abu Bakr besides being pious was also a seasoned international merchant, fully aware of regional power dynamics, inter-tribal politics, and the mechanics of authority. As the newly established Caliph, his foremost task was the creation of a centralized political order, a nascent state requiring both political legitimacy and religious justification. He approached the post-Prophetic landscape with the mindset of a pragmatic statesman focused on consolidation.

In this quest, Abu Bakr stepped on two massive political landmines: land (Fadak) and revenue (Zakat).

Fadak was only one of many properties annexed under state control, yet it was uniquely sensitive because the claimant was the Prophet's daughter, Fatima (AS), representing herself and the wives of the Prophet (PBUH), with Qur'anic evidence supporting their claim. For Abu Bakr, relinquishing Fadak would have meant encouragement for others toward destabilizing the central governance he envisioned.

By invoking the hadith that "prophets leave no inheritance," Abu Bakr effectively nullified the claim and established a precedent that strategic assets can be annexed by the state, not to the Prophet's family or to anyone who currently possessed them. This was a decisive political victory. Once this religious justification conquered the Fadak claim, absorbing other lands became significantly easier.

The second, more violent but equally foundational issue was Zakat. Abu Bakr understood that a state lives or dies by its ability to collect mandatory revenue. Tribal autonomy in distributing Zakat posed a direct threat to the central authority he envisioned. Despite initial resistance from Umar (RA) & other companions, who objected to fighting Muslims, Abu Bakr insisted that Zakat must be delivered exclusively to the central government, as per the tradition established by the Prophet (PBUH) himself.

To enforce this, he deployed tactical military campaigns with many led by Khalid ibn al-Walid, whose battlefield decisiveness often crossed ethical boundaries, actions that Umar (RA) strongly condemned. Yet Abu Bakr (RA) tolerated these excesses because the priority was towards establishing uncontested fiscal control. Through this uncompromising approach, the new state solidified its political and financial foundation.

Together, these two decisions, seizing land and centralizing revenue became the pillars of the emerging empire. Abu Bakr (RA) laid the first hard political floor of the state after the Prophet (PBUH) had laid its spiritual foundation.

But these measures also changed the character of the community. By forcibly integrating tribes driven more by material interests than by sincere conviction, the early Caliphate opened the door to a new sociopolitical reality, one that required Umar's later discipline and strict administrative order to contain, and which after him rapidly deteriorated into periods of anarchy.

This change was massive for the future of Muslims. When the Prophet (PBUH) was alive, everything the community did even fighting wars was about a spiritually guided mission. It was about following God's commands and strict ethics.

After he passed away, the community had to become a political government (a 'state'). Its main jobs became ruling people, keeping the land safe, and handling all the different Arab tribes.

Because the new government brought in tribes who cared more about money and stability than pure religion, the nature of the struggle changed. Fighting wars still used religious words, but the real reasons became practical politics and the needs of the state. This move helped build a strong, lasting government, but it also changed the religious spirit of the community.

Polar night has officially begun in Alaska.

Could you survive 66 days of utter darkness?

For 66 consecutive days, the residents of Utqiagvik, Alaska—the northernmost town in the United States—will not see the sun.

Known as "polar night," this natural phenomenon began on November 18 and will continue until January 23. Caused by the tilt of Earth's axis, polar night occurs in regions within the Arctic Circle where the sun remains below the horizon for extended periods during winter.

While complete darkness doesn't take over—the town still experiences a daily dose of civil twilight—it's a long, sunless stretch that can challenge both mood and health, particularly due to the lack of vitamin D.

Despite the darkness, there's balance in the cosmos: Utqiagvik also enjoys 24-hour sunlight from mid-May to mid-August during the phenomenon known as the "midnight sun." In fact, all places on Earth average roughly the same amount of annual sunlight, though how that light is distributed through the seasons can vary dramatically. While it may seem unbearable to endure weeks without sunrise, for many in Utqiagvik, it's just another part of life above the Arctic Circle—where the sky may go dark, but community life and natural beauty continue to shine.

The meeting between US President Donald Trump and Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman last week saw clear tension because Trump pressed Riyadh to join the Abraham Accords, according to informed sources. The Saudi Crown Prince pushed "in the opposite direction", stressing that Saudi Arabia "cannot take such a step now", given public hostility in the Kingdom towards Israel after the war in Gaza, and that Saudi society "is not ready" for a normalisation agreement at this stage.

The 'Mamdani of Minneapolis' is banking on a grassroots campaign to unseat the Democratic mayor

On a rainy October day, dozens of volunteers showed up at a Minneapolis park to grab campaign literature they would leave at voters' doors, hoping to buoy up a Democratic socialist into the mayor's office.

A handful of door-knockers ran into an apartment building to escape the rain, joining Omar Fateh, the mayoral hopeful sometimes dubbed the "Mamdani of Minneapolis".

"We're running on a campaign to make the city more livable, affordable and to protect all of our residents," he told one voter, who said they hadn't been following the race closely.

Two others who answered knew Fateh's name and lent their support. "I think I'm planning on voting for you," one man told Fateh.

Related: From scapegoats to city hall: how New York Muslims built power and shaped Zohran Mamdani
Minneapolis voters will decide their next mayor on Tuesday 4 November.

Fateh, a 35-year-old who became state senator by ousting an incumbent, has gained attention for comparisons to Zohran Mamdani, the Democratic socialist on track to win New York City's mayoral contest. They're both young, both part of the insurgent left, both Muslim, both state lawmakers. Their platforms, with a focus on affordability, align. Their campaigns tap into grassroots organizers with the Democratic Socialists of America (DSA). Their races use ranked-choice voting, allowing for alliances against the incumbent.

Instead of a primary, Minneapolis holds caucuses and a city convention. Fateh earned the endorsement of the Minneapolis Democratic-Farmer-Labor party, but it was then revoked by the state party after the electronic voting system failed to capture all votes in the contest, the Minneapolis DFL acknowledged, leaving the race without an endorsed candidate.

"One of the biggest benefits of the DFL endorsement is name recognition," Fateh told the Guardian. "But that name recognition became far greater than what we ever could have gotten with the endorsement after they revoked it."

The Minneapolis mayor's race doesn't feature the shamelessness of the New York City race – namely, the participation of the disgraced former governor Andrew Cuomo and the ethically suspect incumbent mayor, Eric Adams. Few have the charisma of Mamdani, nor the organizing and social media prowess of his campaign, one that left-leaning candidates around the country will try to emulate. Minneapolis's incumbent mayor, Jacob Frey, running for his third term, has his critics – for his handling of the protests that followed the murder of George Floyd in the city in 2020, persistent policing problems, a homelessness crisis and contentions with the more progressive city council. Frey, 44, often serves as a moderate check on the council, which includes several Democratic socialists. There are 15 candidates running in the race, four of whom – all Democrats – are considered viable. The three top challengers, including Fateh, have created an alliance, appearing at each other's events, though only Fateh is explicitly telling voters not to rank Frey on their ballots. Public polling of the race is minimal, complicated by the ranked-choice voting method, though Frey typically shows as the top vote-getter, albeit not cresting the necessary 50% to win in a first ballot.

"The fact that Fateh and other candidates are drawing as much support as they appear to be, I think, owes to the fact that the Democratic party has lost credibility among progressive voters," said Larry Jacobs, director of the Center for the Study of Politics and Governance at the University of Minnesota. "This is not a cross-section of America. This is an urban area in one of the most progressive kind of electorates in the country."

The rise of Omar Fateh

Fateh, like Mamdani, is running a campaign full of progressive promises, including raising the minimum wage to $20 an hour, a plan for rent stabilization, a public safety system that funds alternatives to police for calls like mental health crises and standing up to Trump. Six of the 13 council members have backed him, as have unions and state lawmakers.

He casts Frey's two terms as "broken promises and vetoes", noting a 2017 campaign promise to end homelessness within five years and goals for public safety reform after Floyd's murder.

"We have a progressive city council that's ready to do the work, that has been doing the work," Fateh told the Guardian. "We just don't have a mayor as a partner." Fateh, born in Washington DC, moved to Minneapolis about a decade ago. In 2020, the Democratic socialist launched a challenge to an incumbent Democrat for the state senate, earning the party's endorsement and eventually becoming the first Somali American and first Muslim in the chamber. As a senator, he pushed through a bill creating labor standards for ride-share drivers and championed a tuition-free college plan.

His time in the legislature and reputation as a progressive fighter gave him a base of support in the mayoral contest, elevating him to top contender against Frey, Jacobs said. An increased national profile has brought along an increase in threats, racism and Islamophobia, Fateh told Sahan Journal, a local publication, this week. Earlier this month, he got a message that said: "Two bullets to the head, done." He has had to take additional safety precautions and pay for security, he told the outlet. "Most campaigns don't have to think about this," his campaign manager told Sahan Journal.

Fateh believes the revoked endorsement is in part because of the donor class and how it would look to support a progressive candidate with a populist message, especially in suburban and rural areas where the DFL has lost ground. "The DFL and the Democratic party as a whole like to always say we're a big tent, we are a wide spectrum, we welcome everybody," he said. "But a lot of times it seems like when it's the more progressive wing that they can shut out."

After knocking on doors, Fateh returned to the park, where families set up bubble machines and boxes of fruit snacks and goldfish for a "play date with Omar Fateh", himself the tired first-time father of a newborn. He is quick to show off pictures of his baby. Frey also has a newborn, his second child – the two politicians' babies were born within 10 days of each other.

An organizer at the play date asked the crowd of a few dozen adults and kids if anyone knows who Fateh is. "I've seen him on the phone!" one kid yelled.

Sarah Quinn, a Minneapolis voter who spoke to the crowd at the event, said she had heard from people who were ready to vote against Frey, but weren't sure how they would rank the other candidates. People seemed excited to hear about Fateh's vision, she said, and she was sick of hearing about vetoes of council bills and "low-grade insults back and forth" among the mayor and council. "I feel like Minneapolis has this reputation of being a really progressive city, and I'm not actually feeling that as a resident," Quinn said. "And so just hearing his agenda has really resonated with me, and I think that he's somebody that can actually get the shit done with the city council." The rise of the DSA has served as a boogeyman of sorts for the Democratic establishment: before the Minneapolis convention, one proposal, which was later pulled back, sought to make it so a candidate couldn't be endorsed by both the DSA and the DFL.

Fateh's campaign has been boosted by the Twin Cities DSA. Brooke Bartholomew, the group's co-chair, said they had seen new members sign up after Mamdani's win in the primary.

"We have the people power," Bartholomew said. "That's part of what DSA brings to the table for Omar Fateh's campaign is people power – going on those doors, talking to neighbors and helping to build this really diverse coalition."

Is Frey vulnerable?

Frey, endorsed by Minnesota's governor, Tim Walz, has the money advantage over Fateh and the other two top contenders, Jazz Hampton and DeWayne Davis. That "organizational muscle" that comes from allied groups and the business community could help get out the vote for Frey, said Jacobs, of the University of Minnesota.

The Guardian repeatedly sought an interview with Frey and asked to attend a campaign event. The campaign did not make the mayor available, instead sending a statement from a campaign spokesperson.

"Over the last five years, Minneapolis was tested like never before," the statement said. "Under Mayor Frey's leadership, the city has been making a comeback. Violent crime is trending down, the city is creating eight times more deeply affordable housing than before Mayor Frey took office, and Minneapolis is taking the Trump administration to court to defend our neighbors. The mayor is running for one final term to improve public safety by hiring more police officers and implementing police reform, expanding affordable housing, and focusing on delivering excellent core city services. We're optimistic that Minneapolis voters will support that vision next week."

Since Trump returned to the White House, Frey has vocally defended Minneapolis, which could become a target of Trump's increased deportation raids or military occupations. The homeland security secretary, Kristi Noem, came to town in late October, stoking speculation that the city could be next on Trump's list. Frey, flanked by city leaders, put out a video on the day of her visit saying he had been preparing for months for a potential federal influx.

"In Minneapolis, we have your back," Frey said to the city's immigrant communities. "You will be protected and respected by our city employees regardless of your immigration status."

Opposing Trump is an increasing part of the mayor's purview, and one that all the contenders say is critical. Fateh wants the city to strengthen the separation ordinance that prevents city employees from aiding immigration activities.

While the race is often cast as a two-person contest, Hampton and Davis see lanes for themselves to win, given ranked-choice voting, and not just to help Fateh.

"I would not be running to prop up someone else's campaign," Hampton said. "I'm running to win, and I believe that we can and will. However, if that means door-knocking with other candidates to let everyone see us, that's what we should be doing."

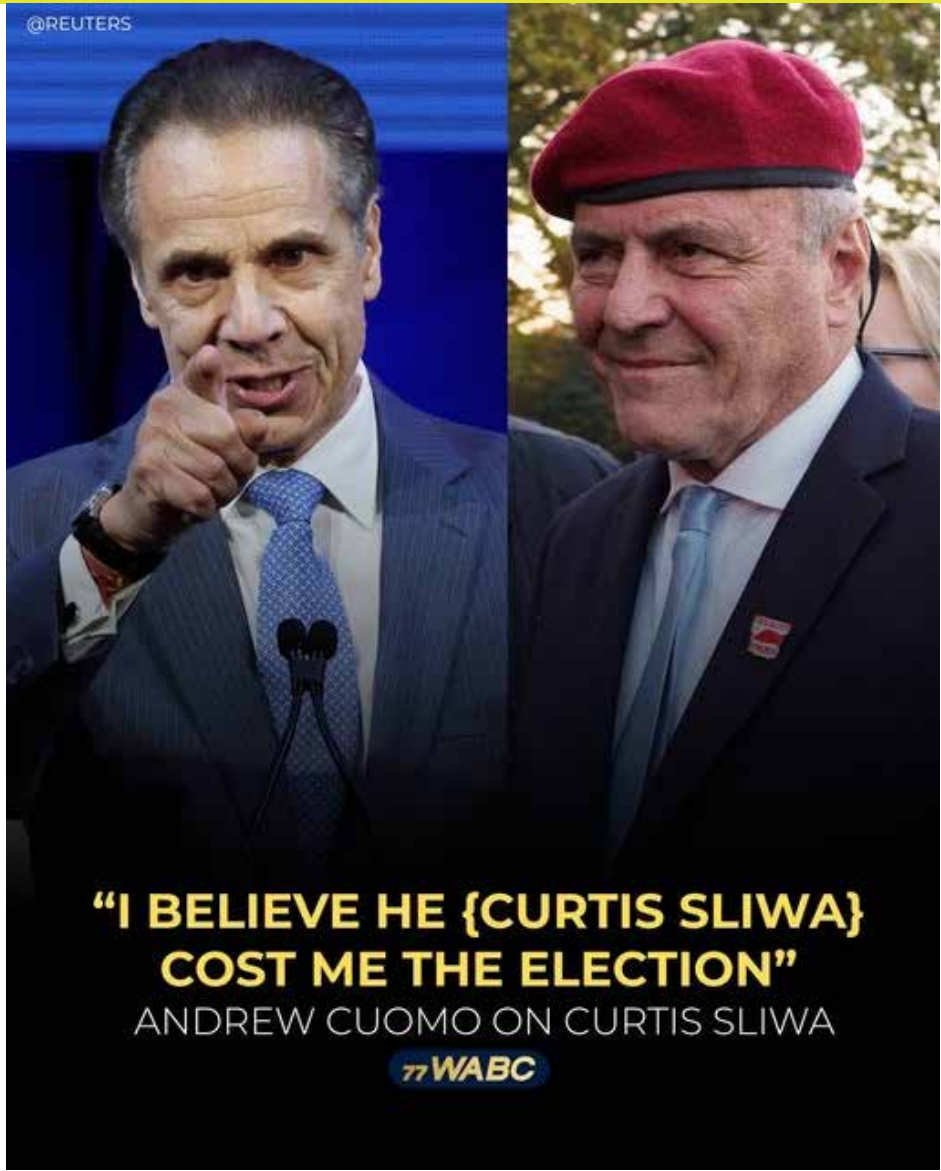

Davis, a minister and former congressional staffer, said voters were ready to move beyond "leadership by press conference and ribbon-cutting", and the success of the three insurgent campaigns shows that.

The Mamdani comparisons don't track as much with the Minneapolis race, Davis said. Looking past the weak opposition from Cuomo in New York, Minneapolis has a "very active establishment" of business-oriented Democrats.

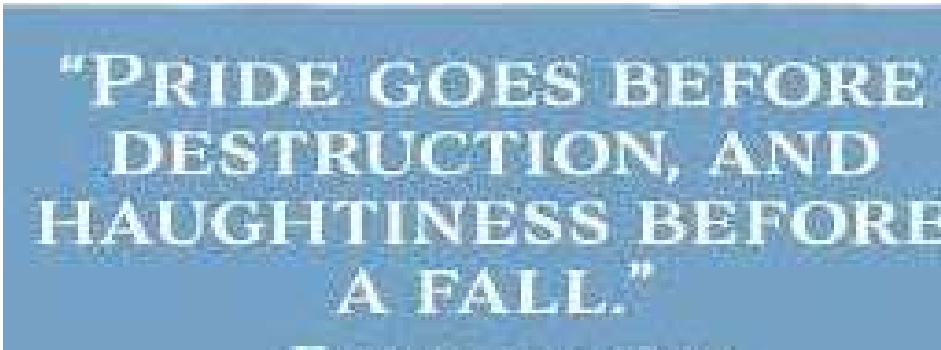

"I think we are far more divided here," Davis said of Minneapolis voters. "And so given the ranked choice with us, that division, it's any guess about how that iteration of choices through ranked choice will end up happening."

Bill Clinton may think the next president will be California Governor Gavin Newsom, but anyone who's witnessed the disaster Newsom has made of California knows better. From skyrocketing taxes to the complete breakdown of public safety, Newsom's policies have turned the Golden State into a cautionary tale of left-wing governance. His extreme agenda has destroyed jobs, raised crime rates, and left ordinary citizens struggling to survive. If Clinton truly believes Newsom has what it takes to lead America, then the left is even more out of touch than we thought. Republicans need to make sure that Newsom's failed policies never make it to the national stage!

Volcano erupts for first time in 12,000 years: "Like a sudden bomb"

A volcano in Ethiopia's northeastern region erupted for the first time in nearly 12,000 years, sending thick plumes of smoke up to nine miles into the sky, the Toulouse Volcanic Ash Advisory Centre (VAAC) said.

The Hayli Gubbi volcano, located in Ethiopia's Afar region about 500 miles northeast of Addis Ababa near the Eritrean border, erupted on Sunday for several hours.

The volcano, which rises about 1,500 feet yards in altitude, sits within the Rift Valley, a zone of intense geological activity where two tectonic plates meet.

Ash clouds from the volcano drifted over Yemen, Oman, India, and northern Pakistan, said the VAAC, which posted a map of the path of the ash cloud.

Air India said it had canceled at least 11 flights due to the ash plumes, and Akasa Air said it canceled flights to some Middle East destinations, the Reuters news agency reported.

Simon Carn, a volcanologist and professor at the Michigan Technological University, confirmed on Bluesky that the ash cloud was "spreading rapidly east in the subtropical jet stream, over the Arabian Sea towards NW India and Pakistan."

In videos shared on social media, which AFP could not immediately verify, a thick column of white smoke can be seen rising.

The Smithsonian Institution's Global Volcanism Program said Hayli Gubbi has had no known eruptions during the Holocene, which began around 12,000 years ago at the end of the last Ice Age. Carn confirmed on Bluesky that Hayli Gubbi "has no record of Holocene eruptions."

A local administrator, Mohammed Seid, said there were no casualties, but the eruption could have economic implications for the local community of livestock herders.

Seid told The Associated Press that there was no previous record of an eruption by the Hayli Gubbi volcano, and that he fears for the livelihoods of residents.

"While no human lives and livestock have been lost so far, many villages have been covered in ash and as a result their animals have little to eat," he said.

The Afar region is prone to earthquakes and a resident, Ahmed Abdela, told the AP he heard a loud sound and what he described as a shock wave.

"It felt like a sudden bomb had been thrown with smoke and ash," he said.

Far-right Australian senator draws ire by donning a burqa in parliament

Sydney — A far-right Australian politician sparked outrage after donning a burqa at the country's parliament, in a display that other lawmakers condemned as racist, unsafe and disrespectful.

Pauline Hanson of the anti-immigration One Nation party was seeking to introduce a bill in the Senate that would ban full face coverings in Australia — a policy she has campaigned on for decades.

Just minutes after other lawmakers blocked her from introducing that bill, she returned wearing a black burqa and sat down.

Her display was met by outrage from her fellow senators.

Australian Greens leader in the Senate Larissa Waters said the move was "the middle finger to people of faith."

"It is extremely racist and unsafe," Waters added.

Foreign Minister Penny Wong, who also serves as leader of the government in the Senate, condemned it as "disrespectful."

"All of us in this place have a great privilege in coming into this chamber," Wong said. "We represent in our states, people of every faith, of every faith, of all backgrounds. And we should do so decently."

Hanson refused to remove the burqa and the Senate was suspended.

It is the second time she has donned the Muslim clothing in parliament.

In 2017, she wore a full burqa in the Senate to highlight what she said were the security issues the garment posed, linking it to terror.

In a statement posted later on a Facebook account that she endorses, Hanson called her actions a protest against the Senate rejecting her proposed bill.

"So if the Parliament won't ban it, I will display this oppressive, radical, non-religious head garb that risk our national security and the ill-treatment of women on the floor of our parliament so that every Australian knows what's at stake," Hanson wrote. "If they don't want me wearing it — ban the burqa."

Hanson has previously described Islam as "a culture and ideology that is incompatible with our own," and she claimed in a 2016 speech that Australia was being "swamped by Muslims."

Her party has seen its support among the public increase as the country's main conservative opposition remain beset by infighting. A poll this month reported by The Australian Financial Review showed the One Nation party with a still modest, but record 18% support.

That comes as a government envoy said in September that Australia had failed to tackle persistent and intensifying Islamophobia.

HP is betting $1 billion on AI — even if it means cutting thousands of jobs, says CEO

HP Inc. (HPQ) is doubling down on artificial intelligence — and betting it will replace thousands of jobs in the process.

“There are many things that today we have to do using people ... that in the future AI will do better and will do faster,” CEO Enrique Lores told Yahoo Finance (video above).

It’s not just an HP issue, he added, but an “industrywide” shift companies must embrace to stay competitive.

That transformation is reshaping HP. The company on Tuesday unveiled a sweeping AI initiative tied to new restructuring efforts. HP expects to eliminate 4,000 to 6,000 jobs globally and generate $1 billion in annualized savings by fiscal 2028.

“We’re moving from pilots to specific initiatives across multiple areas,” Lores said, noting AI is accelerating product development, improving customer satisfaction, and boosting internal productivity.

Lores emphasized that HP’s AI approach goes far beyond chatbots, with efforts that include AI agents that automate processes, AI-assisted software development, and systems that accelerate operations.

The through line: Tasks once handled manually are increasingly being handed over to AI systems.

HP expects to spend roughly $650 million on restructuring, including about $250 million in fiscal 2026.

But the ambitious AI plan did not distract from what was ultimately a mixed quarter.

Fourth quarter revenue rose 4.2% to $14.6 billion, slightly below the $14.8 billion analysts expected, according to Bloomberg data. Adjusted EPS fell 3% to $0.93, in line with estimates.

The stock was up more than 2% in Tuesday trading before falling as much as 5% in pre-market trading on Wednesday. Shares remain down roughly 17% over the past 12 months, compared with a 15% gain for the S&P 500 (^GSPC).

Personal Systems — HP’s PC business — was a bright spot, with revenue up 8% to $10.4 billion, helped by Windows 10’s end-of-life upgrade cycle. Units rose 7%.

The printing segment continued to slide. Revenue fell 4% to $4.3 billion; supplies dropped 4% and hardware units fell 12%.

JPMorgan’s Samik Chatterjee downgraded the stock to Neutral, arguing HP is leaving the “favorable” part of the PC cycle and entering a “relatively tougher environment.”

He expects PC shipments to rise 6.6% in 2025 but fall 2.2% in 2026 as the Windows 10 replacement boom fades.

Rising DRAM and NAND costs could deepen the hit. Bank of America’s Wamsi Mohan estimates HP faces a 120-basis-point gross margin hit, a 103-basis-point operating margin hit, and $0.46 EPS drag next year from memory inflation alone.

That means HP’s AI savings may not arrive quickly enough to offset a rough 2026.

HP expects $2.8 billion to $3 billion in free cash flow in 2026 and says its AI productivity plan will strengthen the business long term. But most of the $1 billion in savings won’t materialize until late in the decade.

Regardless, Lores is bullish on the makeover. “It’s important to be in the leading front, embrace these new technologies, transform how we work so we can stay competitive in the future,” he said.

Examining Bangladesh’s Request To Extradite Hasina: India

New Delhi: India on Wednesday said it is examining a request by Bangladesh to extradite former prime minister Sheikh Hasina and that it is committed to ensure the best interests of the people of that country. Hasina, 78, was last week sentenced to death in absentia by a special tribunal in Dhaka for “crimes against humanity” over her government’s brutal crackdown on student-led protests last year. The Awami League leader has been living in India since she fled Bangladesh on August 5 last year in the face of the massive protests. “The request is being examined as part of ongoing judicial and internal legal processes,” External Affairs Ministry spokesperson Randhir Jaiswal said. “We remain committed to the best interests of the people of Bangladesh, including peace, democracy, inclusion and stability in that country and will continue to engage constructively in this regard with all stakeholders,” he said.

What is a recall?

When a manufacturer or the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) determines that a vehicle creates an unreasonable risk to safety or fails to meet minimum safety standards, the manufacturer is required to fix that vehicle at no cost to the owner. That can be done by repairing it, replacing it, offering a refund (for equipment) or, in rare

SAFE DRIVING IN INCLEMENT WEATHER CONDITIONS

Inclement weather can pose many hazards and dangerous road conditions for operators. Workers should be aware of impacting weather events and its effects on safely driving and operating vehicles and equipment.

BE PREPARED

CHECK LOCAL FORECAST

Stay caught up on the latest weather conditions for your area. In the event of severe weather, operations may need to be altered to accommodate the changes.

CONDUCT PLAY OF THE DAY

Based on current and future weather conditions, detailed communication in regards to each worker's assigned task, safe routes to take, and specific operations should be discussed in-depth.

PERFORM THOROUGH PM

Check tires, windshield wipers, fluids, lights, and other essential equipment functions that will ensure the vehicle is ready to operate safely and efficiently.

SLOW DOWN

BE DEFENSIVE & OFFENSIVE

Practice safe driving techniques related to defensive driving and Smith System 5 Keys. By using these tools, drivers can remain vigilant in their efforts to arrive safely.

USE SAFE DRIVING TOOLS

Drive with lights on and use warning devices to effectively communicate with other drivers. When pavement is wet, you should decrease speed, turn off cruise control, and increase following distance.

SEEK COVER

With a threat of excessive wind gusts, hail, or even tornadoes, limit driving to an as needed basis. Secure loads, protect vehicles and equipment, and seek shelter when severe weather is near.

STAY FOCUSED

MAINTAIN AWARENESS

Situational awareness will be essential during inclement weather. Pay careful attention to weather, roadway, and traffic conditions as they may change abruptly.

BE PROACTIVE

Remember to Stop. Speak. Act! It is important to stay engaged with the environment around you and make good decisions to ensure the safety of yourself and your teammates.

COMMUNICATE

Keep constant communication with team members about conditions. Radios will be an essential resource in the event that cell towers or electricity are impacted by storms.

HIGH WATER ON THE ROAD & AVOIDING HAZARDS

BE PREPARED

VERIFY CONDITIONS

In high water operations, it is important to remain aware of locations that may become impacted by flooding. All employees should be briefed and updated regularly regarding this information.

ENSURE ESSENTIAL SUPPLIES

Equip vehicles with necessary supplies to respond to flooded roadways. This includes PPE, signage, tools, and water/snacks, especially if employees will be stationed for long hours at these locations.

PLAN FOR MORE

Flooding creates hazardous conditions for workers. Verify that first aid kits are stocked, and fire extinguishers are charged before response.

SLOW DOWN

TURN AROUND

When roadways are covered in water, turn around and never attempt to drive through. It may be worse than what it initially appears. Vehicles are not equipped to handle high water, which may cause the engine to flood or be carried away.

BE CAUTIOUS

In the event of rain or wet pavement, drive carefully to the current conditions to avoid loss of traction on the roadway. Operators should turn off cruise control, slow down, and increase following distance.

HAVE A WAY TO ESCAPE

Avoid areas that would require backing. If backing becomes necessary, use a spotter, when available. Perform 360 walkaround to confirm surroundings are free of hazards.

STAY FOCUSED

OBSERVE SURROUNDINGS

Identify unsafe travel paths and avoid driving through these areas. Debris, fixed objects, downed powerlines, or other items may be hidden. If you don't know, don't go!

CALL A TIME-OUT

When faced with situations that may become unsafe, workers should utilize stop work authority and communicate hazards with others. When conditions improve, a new plan of action may be taken.

REMAIN ALERT

Long hours in this type of emergency response may affect workers ability to remain vigilant. It is essential to communicate with supervision about this to ensure operational readiness.

RECIPES

Best Roast Beef

Ingredients

3 pounds beef eye of round roast, at room temperature

½ teaspoon kosher salt, or more to taste

½ teaspoon garlic powder, or more to taste

¼ teaspoon freshly ground black pepper, or more to taste

Best Roast Beef

Directions

Gather all ingredients. Preheat oven to 375 degrees F (190 degrees C).

Make sure roast is at room temperature. Tie roast at 3-inch intervals with cotton twine; this helps it from drying out and allows it to cook more evenly. Place roast on a rack in a baking pan.

Mix together salt, garlic powder, and pepper in a small bowl. Rub seasoning mixture into the meat.

Place in the preheated oven and roast for 60 minutes, or 20 minutes per pound if your roast is larger or smaller. An instant-read thermometer inserted into the center should read 120 to 125 degrees F (49 to 52 degrees C).

Remove from the oven and transfer to a cutting board. Cover loosely with foil, and let rest so juices can redistribute, 15 to 20 minutes.

Slice and serve.

Recipe Tips

Make sure your eye of round is at room temperature before cooking. Let beef sit at room temperature for at least 45 minutes to 1 hour before beginning this recipe. If your roast is not at room temperature, the cook time will be longer. Regardless of the size of your roast, aim to cook at 375 degrees F (190 degrees C) for 20 minutes per pound.

After resting for 15 to 20 minutes, your roast should reach its final internal temperature, which could be 5 to 15 degrees higher than when removed from the oven. The final temperatures (after resting) should be 120 to 125 degrees F (49 to 52 degrees C) for rare, 130 to 140 degrees F (54 to 60 degrees C) for medium-rare, and 140 to 150 degrees F (60 to 65 degrees C) for medium.

Campbell's Green Bean Casserole

This Campbell's green bean casserole is made with cut green beans, cream of mushroom soup, and French's fried onions for a classic holiday side dish.

This quick-prep casserole uses cream of mushroom soup for an irresistibly creamy texture. Home cooks love the easy-to-find ingredients that make this a reliable weeknight dinner. Allrecipes member Konstantina Douvris says, "Always turns out fantastic."

Ingredients

2 2/3 cups French's® French Fried Onions

8 cups cooked cut green beans

2 (10.5 ounce) cans Campbell's® Condensed Cream of Mushroom Soup

1 cup milk

2 teaspoons soy sauce

¼ teaspoon ground black pepper

Directions

Gather all ingredients.

Bake in the preheated oven until hot, about 25 minutes.

Stir casserole, then top with remaining onions. Bake 5 minutes more.

Recipe Variations

For a festive touch, stir in 1/2 cup of chopped red peppers with the soup.

For a cheesier version, omit the soy sauce and stir in 1/2 cup of shredded Cheddar cheese with the soup. Sprinkle additional cheese on top before the last bake.

How to Protect Yourself from Winter Weather

IF YOU ARE UNDER A WINTER STORM WARNING, FIND SHELTER RIGHT AWAY
Winter Storm Warning
 Issued when hazardous winter weather in the form of heavy snow, heavy freezing rain, or heavy sleet is imminent or occurring. Winter Storm Warnings are usually issued 12 to 24 hours before the event is expected to begin.

Winter Storm Watch
 Alerts the public to the possibility of a blizzard, heavy snow, heavy freezing rain, or heavy sleet. Winter Storm Watches are usually issued 12 to 48 hours before the beginning of a Winter Storm.

Winter Weather Advisory
 Issued for accumulations of snow, freezing rain, freezing drizzle, and sleet which will cause significant inconveniences and, if caution is not exercised, could lead to life-threatening situations.

Know Your Risk for Winter Storms
 Pay attention to weather reports and warnings of freezing weather and winter storms. Listen for emergency information and alerts. Sign up for your community's warning system. The Emergency Alert System (EAS) and National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) Weather Radio also provide emergency alerts. Preparing for Winter Weather
 Prepare your home to keep out the cold with insulation, caulking and weather stripping. Learn how to keep pipes from freezing. Install and test smoke alarms and carbon monoxide detectors with battery backups. Gather supplies in case you need to stay home for several days without power. Keep in mind each person's specific needs, including medication. Remember the needs of your pets. Have extra batteries for radios and flashlights. If you are unable to afford your heating costs, weatherization or energy-related home repairs, contact the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) for help.

In Case of Emergency

Be prepared for winter weather at home, at work and in your car. Create an emergency supply kit for your car. Include jumper cables, sand, a flashlight, warm clothes, blankets, bottled water and non-perishable snacks. Keep a full tank of gas. Stay Safe During Winter Weather
Alert - warning
 Avoid carbon monoxide poisoning. Only use generators and grills outdoors and away from windows and never heat your home with a gas stovetop or oven. Using an oven or stovetop can also increase the risk of fires, burns and could damage the appliance. Stay off roads if at all possible. If trapped in your car, then stay inside. Limit your time outside. If you need to go outside, then wear layers of warm clothing. Watch for signs of frostbite and hypothermia. Reduce the risk of a heart attack by avoiding overexertion when shoveling snow and walking in the snow. Learn the signs of, and basic treatments for, frostbite and hypothermia. Frostbite causes loss of feeling and color around the face, fingers and toes. Signs: Numbness, white or grayish-yellow skin, firm or waxy skin. Actions: Go to a warm room. Soak in warm water. Use body heat to warm. Do not massage or use a heating pad. Hypothermia is an unusually low body temperature. A temperature below 95 degrees is an emergency. Signs: Shivering, exhaustion, confusion, fumbling hands, memory loss, slurred speech or drowsiness.

Actions: Go to a warm room. Warm the center of the body first—chest, neck, head and groin. Keep dry and wrapped up in warm blankets, including the head and neck. Generator Safety feature mini imgGenerators can be helpful when the power goes out. It is important to know how use them safely to prevent carbon monoxide (CO) poisoning and other hazards. Generators and fuel should always be used outdoors and at least 20 feet away from windows, doors and attached garages.

Install working carbon monoxide detectors on every level of your home. Carbon monoxide is a colorless, odorless gas that can kill you, your family and pets.

Keep the generator dry and protected from rain or flooding. Touching a wet generator or devices connected to one can cause electrical shock.

Always connect the generator to appliances with heavy-duty extension cords.

Let the generator cool before refueling. Fuel spilled on hot engine parts can ignite.

Follow manufacturer's instructions carefully.

Drive in Snow Safely

Driving in the snow is a lot like chugging a cold smoothie: it's all fun and games until it isn't. But a brain freeze is small change compared to losing control of your vehicle in snowy conditions, an action that can lead to big damage, potential fines, and a long wait for a tow truck to come to your rescue.

Years of driving and testing cars (and winter tires) in wintry conditions have taught us that following these simple winter-driving rules will greatly improve your chances of arriving at your destination calm, collected, comfortable, and—most important—safe.

Jump to:

1. Drive Smoothly
2. Look Far Ahead
3. Heed Flashing Dashboard Lights
4. Look in the Direction You Want to Go
5. Deal with the Skids
6. If You Have ABS, Plant Your Foot on the Brake Pedal
7. Constantly Assess Your Traction

8. Don't Expect AWD or 4WD to Save You

9. Get Winter Tires

10. Read the Road

11. Plan Ahead

12. Carry the Right Supplies

The key to safe driving in snow is being smooth with the steering wheel, accelerator, and brakes. Why? Jerky movements with the controls easily unstuck tires that have a tenuous grip on the slippery road, so every turn of the wheel, push of the brakes, and movement of the accelerator must be deliberate, gentle, and gradual. Pretend there's a cup of scalding coffee in your lap and drive so as not to spill it.

Sajida Sultan Ali Khan Pataudi: The Last Nawab Begum of Bhopal Whose Regal Lineage Bridges the Palaces of Madhya Pradesh and the Glamour of Bollywood's First Family — Sharmila Tagore And Saif Ali Khan

Sajida Sultan Ali Khan Pataudi, the last Nawab Begum of Bhopal, was born into India's only matriarchal royal dynasty and later became part of the illustrious Pataudi family through marriage. Her remarkable legacy unites two distinct realms — the progressive Begums of Bhopal and the glittering lineage of Bollywood royalty, carried forward by her son Mansoor Ali Khan Pataudi, daughter-in-law Sharmila Tagore, and grandchildren Saif Ali Khan and Kareena Kapoor Khan.

There are few women in Indian history whose lives could effortlessly bridge the grandeur of princely India with the glamour of modern Bollywood. Nawab Begum Sajida Sultan Ali Khan Pataudi was a Maharani born into the royal house of Bhopal and married into the illustrious Pataudi lineage. Her life was not a story of privilege or palace corridors but a tale that merged reform, royalty, and remarkable lineage, eventually linking one of India's most progressive dynasties with the country's most famous film family.

She was born on 4 August 1915 in the magnificent Qasr-e-Sultani Palace, Bhopal, into a world of regal influence and reformist women. Her grandmother, Sultan Jahan Begum, and great-grandmother, Shah Jahan Begum, were both remarkable rulers who championed education and modernization for women at a time when purdah was the norm. Bhopal, under these Begums, wasn't just a princely state; it was a model of female governance and progressive thought, a rare matriarchal beacon in a deeply patriarchal society.

The Royal Lineage of the Begums of Bhopal
For over a century—from 1819 to 1926—the princely state of Bhopal was ruled by women. The four Begums of Bhopal—Qudsia Begum, Sikandar Begum, Shah Jahan Begum, and Sultan Jahan Begum—never followed convention and led their state with poise and intellect. They introduced railways, hospitals, schools, and municipal reforms, often corresponding directly with British officials who were, quite frankly, startled by the idea of women in power. She was succeeded by her father, Nawab Hamidullah Khan, and thus the direct line of female rule came to an end, although the spirit of reform was preserved. Her mother, Begum Maimouna Sultan, was a quiet, dignified lady who supported education wholeheartedly. Sajida grew up with her two sisters, Abida Sultan—the fiery heir apparent who later migrated to Pakistan—and Rabia Sultan. The sisters were educated, articulate, and fiercely independent.

A Royal Match: The Pataudi Connection
In 1939, Sajida married Nawab Iftikhar Ali Khan Pataudi, the 8th Nawab of Pataudi, a princely state near Delhi, now in Haryana. Her husband wasn't just royalty; he was a sportsman of international repute, having captained both the Indian and English cricket teams—a rare distinction even today. Their union brought together two noble houses: the legacy of reform from Bhopal and the aristocratic charm from Pataudi. They had three daughters, Saleha, Sabiha, and Qudsia, and a son who would also become a cricketing legend in his own right: Mansoor Ali Khan Pataudi, affectionately called “Tiger Pataudi.”

Becoming the 12th Nawab Begum of Bhopal
The year 1960 saw life change for Sajida Sultan with the death of her father. The next in line of succession, her elder sister Abida, had by then settled in Pakistan and declined to return to India. Thus, Sajida was declared the 12th Nawab Begum of Bhopal, formally recognised in 1962. She upheld the dignity of her ancestors as titular ruler, successfully maintaining many of the state's charitable trusts, including the Auqaf-e-Shahi of Bhopal, a religious and social endowment her family had managed for generations. Fun fact: Sajida was one of the last Indian royals to be officially recognized by the Government of India before the abolition of royal titles in 1971. Nevertheless, the Bhopal family continued to enjoy respect for their patronage of culture, sports, and philanthropy.

The Glamorous Legacy: From Palaces to Film Sets

If there was ever proof that royal bloodlines could adapt gracefully with the times, it's found in the descendants of Sajida Sultan. Her son, Mansoor Ali Khan Pataudi, married Sharmila Tagore, one of the most beautiful and talented actresses in Hindi cinema. Their marriage in 1969 united the worlds of regal heritage and silver-screen glamour.

Their children—Saif Ali Khan, Saba Ali Khan, and Soha Ali Khan—carried forward this blend of aristocracy and artistry. Saif, an actor of great renown today, still uses the ‘Nawab of Pataudi’ title symbolically, while Soha followed in her mother's cinematic footsteps too.

And then there came Bollywood royalty of another kind: Kareena Kapoor Khan. When Kareena married Saif in 2012, she wore an antique Bhopali joda originally belonging to Sajida Sultan herself. In fact, the outfit was first worn by Sharmila Tagore on her wedding day back in 1969 and was painstakingly restored by designer Ritu Kumar.

As Ritu Kumar told Vogue India, “The joda had to be revived and restyled in a way that fitted in with today's aesthetics without losing its intrinsic quality. It took six months to conceive and recreate the odhni and the outfit. The tail was made shorter so Kareena could walk with ease.” Silk, zardozi, and memories stitched together through three generations—it was, well, a living heirloom.

End of an Era

After the death of Nawab Iftikhar Ali Khan in 1952, Sajida became a central figure in her family, the custodian of the Pataudi and Bhopal legacies. Sajida died on 5 September 1995, at the age of 80 years. Her son, Mansoor Ali Khan, succeeded as the mutawalli of Bhopal's royal endowments, a position now passed on to her granddaughter Saba Ali Khan.

Even today, Sajida Sultan's story stands as a reminder of how India's royal women were more than symbols of splendor—they were torchbearers of progress, education, and grace.

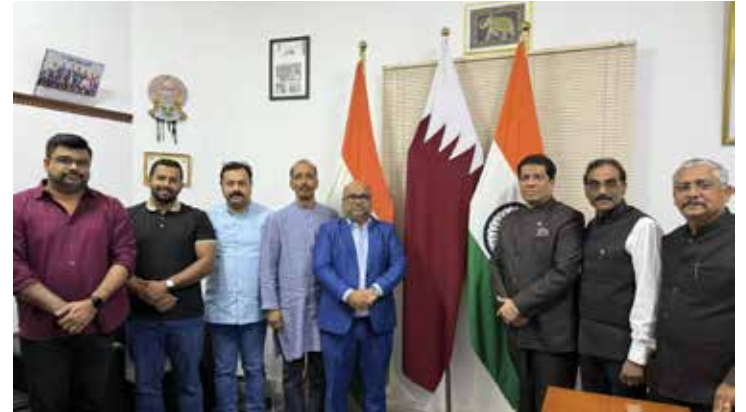

Fun Fact: A Royal Bloodline That Runs Through Bollywood
From the Begums who ruled with intellect to the stars who rule the screen, the Bhopal-Pataudi lineage is one of the most fascinating dynasties in India. Indeed, few families can boast a history that links the grandeur of princely India so well with the glamour of modern cinema.

Sajida Sultan may have lived within the courtyards of Bhopal and Pataudi, but her essence gets reflected on the red carpet, cricket fields, and in every story of royal women who changed the course of Indian history—gracefully, and on their own terms.

Naveen Yadav Sworn in as Jubilee Hills MLA

Hyderabad: Newly-elected Congress MLA from the Jubilee Hills Assembly constituency V. Naveen Yadav took oath in the presence of Legislative Asse Hyderabad: Newly-elected Congress MLA from the Jubilee Hills Assembly constituency V. Naveen Yadav took oath in the presence of Legislative Assembly Speaker Gad-dam Prasad Kumar, ministers, Congress MLAs, MLCs and senior party leaders. With his swear-ing-in, the Congress strength in the 119-mem-ber Assembly rose to 66, while the BRS tally dropped to 37. The Congress, which secured 64 seats in the 2023 Assembly elections, enhanced its number to 66 by winning the Secunderabad Cantonment bypoll in May 2024 and the Jubilee Hills bypoll in November 2025. Both constitu-encies went to bypolls following the untimely demise of sitting BRS MLAs Lasya Nanditha and Maganti Gopinath. The BRS, which held 39 seats after the 2023 elections, lost both these segments and now stands at 37. Speaking to the media, Naveen said taking oath on Constitution Day was a privilege. He assured that he would uphold the trust placed in him by the people of Jubilee Hills and work diligently for the constituency's development. He said that all promises made during the election campaign would be fulfilled and noted that several local issues had already been brought to his notice after his victory. Naveen criticised the personal attacks targeting him and his family on social media during the election campaign. He said the Jubilee Hills result reflected increased public confidence in the Congress government led by Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy. He stated that the bypoll would have taken place regardless, asserting that the legal case involving Maganti Gopinath was ongoing at the time of his demise. He added that the case filed against Gopinath had since been withdrawn. The MLA expressed gratitude to the AIMIM for extending support during the bypoll, saying the cooperation con-tributed to the Congress victory in Jubilee Hills. Deccan Chronical

Bollywood actor Dharmendra passas away

Legendary actor Dharmendra's demise at 89 (November 24) has left the nation grieving, and tributes continue to pour in for the legendary star who defined charm, masculinity and effortless screen presence for generations. The He-Man of Bollywood built a legacy not just through his films, but through the warmth and sincerity that everyone associated with him. Even Jaya Bachchan once admitted that she, too, wasn't immune to his charm.

Jaya Bachchan once called Dharmendra 'the most handsome man in Bollywood' Yes, you read it right. Back in 2007, during an episode of Koffee With Karan, Jaya Bachchan recalled the first time she saw Dharmendra and described it as a moment she could never forget. She shared that she was so overwhelmed by his presence that she instinctively hid behind a sofa out of nervousness.

According to her, Dharmendra looked "breath-takingly handsome," dressed in crisp white trousers and a matching white shirt, giving him the aura of a Greek God. She even joked in the conversation that she wished she had played Basanti in Sholay because she adored Dharmendra so much.

Years later, Dharmendra was asked about Jaya's remarks while promoting Rocky Aur Rani Kii Prem Kahaani (2023). The actor responded with grace and humility, saying that her words were a reflection of affection and respect. He added that he had known both Jaya and Amitabh for a very long time and fondly remembered the laughter and good times the cast shared while shooting Sholay.

How Amitabh Bachchan reacted to Jaya's remarks?

What makes the anecdote even sweeter is that the admiration wasn't one-sided. Amitabh Bachchan himself once opened up about it during Kaun Banega Crorepati. Aamir Khan had asked him if there was ever an actor who made him feel uneasy when Jaya worked with them. With a hint of humour, Amitabh recalled that Jaya had declared quite early in their relationship that Dharmendra was her favourite actor. According to Big B, she had said that there was "no man more handsome than Dharmendra in the industry," and he remembered it with a smile, not jealousy, but amusement and acknowledgment of the superstar's universal appeal.

After Dharmendra's passing, Amitabh Bachchan shared an emotional tribute on social media. Describing the actor as a "valiant giant," Amitabh wrote that he was not only admired for his physical presence but more importantly for the vastness of his heart and the simplicity that defined him. He expressed that the silence Dharmendra left behind now echoes with unbearable pain and remembered him as someone who remained humble and grounded despite the constant changes in cinema.

Successful representation of Azharuddin and team in Madina Bus accident

A bus carrying Indian Umrah pilgrims crashed into a diesel tanker near Medina, Saudi Arabia, resulting in 45 fatalities and one injury. The pilgrims were traveling from Mecca to Medina when the collision occurred, and most of the victims were from the state of Telangana. Funeral prayers were held on Saturday at the Prophet's Mosque in Medina for more than 40 Indian Umrah pilgrims who died earlier last week in one of the deadliest transport accidents involving foreign worshippers in the Kingdom.

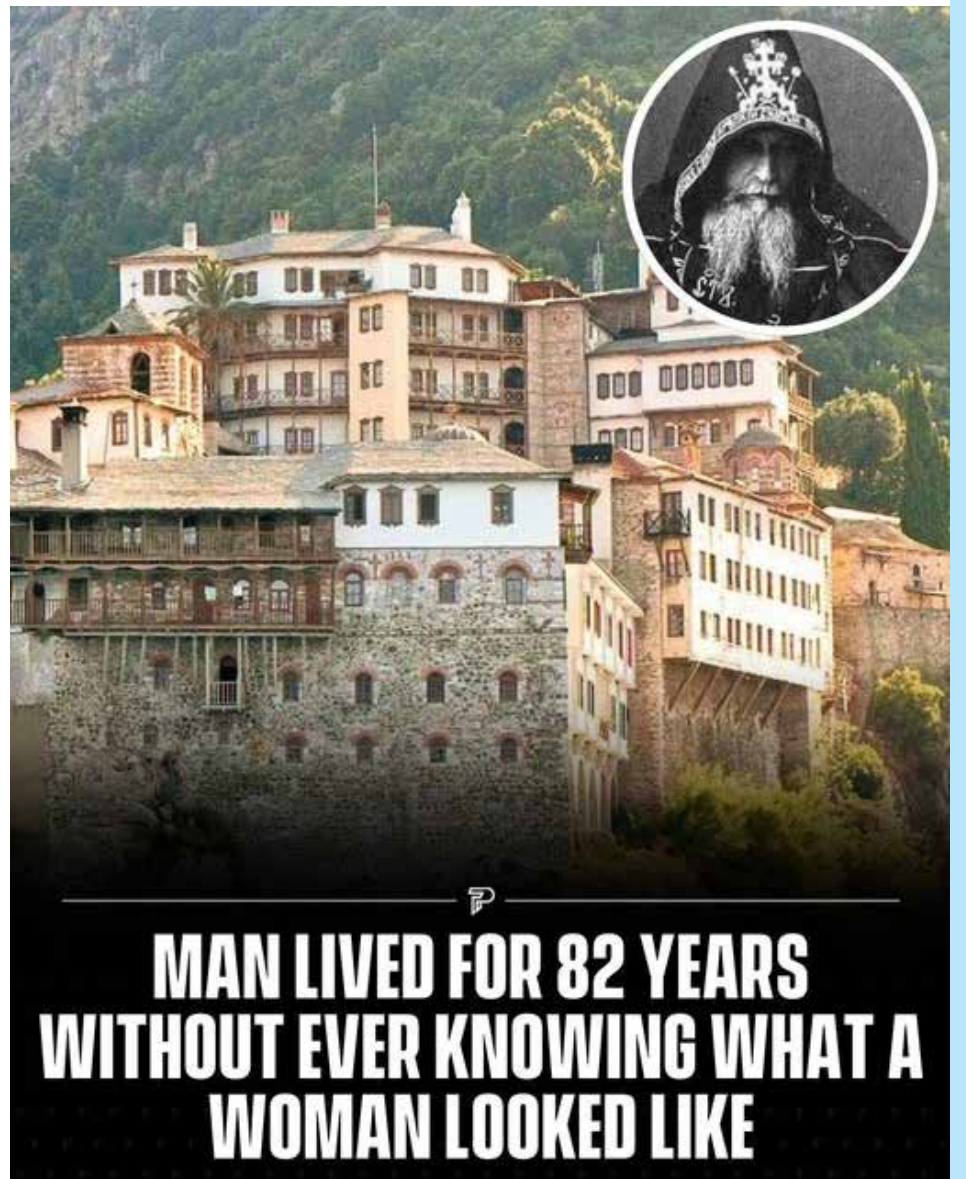

Sheikh Abdul Bari Thubaity led the prayers after Dhuhr, as rows of mourners gathered to bid farewell to the victims, most of whom were from Hyderabad, before their burial in Jannat Al Baqi, the historic cemetery adjacent to the mosque. Indian diplomats in Riyadh and Jeddah said they remain in close coordination with Saudi authorities and have opened a 24-hour helpline for affected families. "All possible assistance" is being provided, Modi said. 24-year-old Mohammad Abdul Shoaib survived the horrific bus accident that killed at least 45 Indian pilgrims near Medina. Of the 46 passengers on board, 45 died at the scene after the bus was completely destroyed in the fire. The lone survivor, Md Abdul Shoaib, has been admitted to the ICU of a Saudi hospital and remains in critical condition. A resident of Hyderabad, Abdul was reportedly sitting near the driver seat when the bus going from Mecca to Medina collided with a diesel tanker, NDTV reported citing sources. Abdul moved to the seat next to the driver and was in a conversation with the driver to pass his time.

I DONT NEED HIS MONEY !

In an old interview, hema Malini said - 'I knew there would be a little prOblem but I don't expect anything else from him. Just love. He's always there for me so what else do I need. I don't need property or money or anything else from him. I just need some love. That's it.'

MAN LIVED FOR 82 YEARS WITHOUT EVER KNOWING WHAT A WOMAN LOOKED LIKE

Mihailo Tolotos was a Greek Orthodox monk who reportedly lived his entire 82-year life without ever seeing a woman. Born around 1856, his mother died just four hours after his birth, and with no known family to care for him, he was left at a monastery on Mount Athos, a monastic community in Greece. The monks there adopted him, and he remained within the confines of the monastery for his entire life. Mount Athos has enforced a strict ban on women and female animals since 1060, a rule intended to support the monks' commitment to celibacy and spiritual focus. As a result, Tolotos grew up and lived in complete isolation from women. He also never saw modern inventions like cars or airplanes. When he died in 1938, his fellow monks held a special funeral, believing he was the only man to have lived and died without ever seeing a woman. While some aspects of his story are difficult to verify, Tolotos's life remains a remarkable example of extreme seclusion and religious devotion.

حضرت شیخ سعدی شیرازی رحمۃ اللہ علیہ

67 حریص انسان کو سکون نہیں

اُردو حکایت: حضرت سعدیؒ فرماتے ہیں کہ میری ملاقات اک مالدار سے ہوئی جس کے پاس خدمت گزاروں اور بار بردار اونٹوں کی کثرت تھی وہ سوداگری کے پیشہ سے وابستہ تھا اور کاروباری باتوں میں ایسی بڑائی ہانکتا تھا کہ اس پر یقین کرنا مشکل تھا۔ کبھی کہتا کہ میں فلاں چیز فلاں مقام پر خرید کر دوسرے ملک میں بیچوں گا۔ پھر دوسرا مال خرید کر دوسرے ملک میں لیجاؤں گا اور پھر وہاں سے سفر ترک کر کے کسی دکان پر بیٹھ جاؤں گا۔ الغرض وہ ایسی مضحکہ خیز باتیں کرتا رہا کہ بک بک کی طاقت نہ رہی۔ پھر مجھ سے مخاطب ہو کر کہنے لگا سعدی! تم بھی کچھ کہو آخر تم نے بھی دنیا میں بہت کچھ دیکھا اور سنا ہے۔ میں نے کہا۔

آں شیند سستی کہ در اقصای غور
بار سالاری بیفتاد از ستور
گفت چشم تنگ دنیا دار را
یا قناعت پُر کند یا خاک غور

فارسی اشعار:

تم نے سنا ہوگا کہ ایک دفعہ غور کے صحرا میں اک مالدار خنجر پر سے گر پڑا۔ اُس نے بے کسی کے عالم میں کہا کہ دنیا دار کی حریص آنکھ کو قناعت بھر سکتی ہے یا قبر کی مٹی۔

منظوم ترجمہ:

غور کے صحرا میں سن لو ایک دن
گر کے خنجر سے کہا یہ مالدار
یا قناعت سے بھرے گی یا کہ پھر
قبر کی مٹی سے چشم دنیا دار

دانائے مشرق، بلبل شیراز، حضرت شیخ سعدی شیرازیؒ فارسی زبان کے عالمی شہرت یافتہ ادیب، شاعر، سیاح و دانشور گزرے ہیں۔ آپ کی پیدائش تقریباً آٹھ سو سال قبل سادات کے اک معزز گھرانے میں ہوئی جو برسوں پہلے مکہ سے ہجرت کر کے شیراز میں آسا تھا۔ خاندان میں دینداری کا بول بالا تھا اس لئے ابتدائی تعلیم گھر پر ہوئی اور چھوٹی سی عمر میں تمام ضروری دینی مسائل یاد ہو گئے جس کے ساتھ عبادت، شب بیداری اور تلاوت کلام پاک کا شوق پیدا ہو گیا۔ گیارہ سال کی عمر میں کلام مجید حفظ کر لیا۔ تفسیر، فقہ، حدیث اور صرف و نحو کی ابتدائی کتابیں پڑھیں اور سن بلوغ کو پہنچنے سے پہلے ہی نہایت اعلیٰ و ارفع اخلاق و کردار کے مالک بن گئے۔ ان کی سلیقہ مندی، زہد و تقویٰ، ذہانت و دانشمندی کا ہر طرف چرچا ہو جائے گا۔ نوعمری میں والدین کے ساتھ پہلا حج کیا اور اپنی زندگی میں چودہ حج پاپیادہ کئے۔ بغداد کے مدرسہ نظامیہ میں تقریباً تیس سال تک مشہور زمانہ علمائے کرام سے تحصیل علم و فیض صحت حاصل کر کے قرآن، حدیث، تفسیر، منطق، فلسفہ، ریاضی اور دیگر علوم پر عبور حاصل کیا۔ ساتھ ہی کئی اجنبی زبانوں میں بھی مہارت حاصل کر لی۔ تحصیل علم سے فارغ ہو کر حضرت سعدی شیرازیؒ نے سیاحت پر کمر باندھ لی اور عمر کا بیشتر حصہ ایشیاء، آفریقہ اور دنیا کے دیگر ممالک کی سیرو سیاحت میں بسر کیا۔ کہا جاتا ہے کہ مشرقی سیاحوں میں ابن بطوطہ کے سوا شیخ سعدیؒ سے بڑھ کر کوئی اور سیاح نہیں۔ انہوں نے سیاحت کے دوران بڑی صعوبتیں اٹھائیں اور بڑے تجربے حاصل کئے۔ ایک اندازے کے مطابق شیخ سعدیؒ کی تصانیف تیس سے متجاوز اور ایک سے بڑھ کر ایک ہیں لیکن ان کی دو

کتابوں گلستاں اور بوستاں نے لازوال عالمی شہرت حاصل کی اور حضرت سعدیؒ کے مقام کو بلند و بالا کر کے اوج کمال پر پہنچا دیا۔ گلستاں اور بوستاں کی بنیاد قرآن، حدیث، تربیت، اخلاقیات، تجربات، دور رس اور دانشوری پر رکھی ہوئی ہے۔ ان دو کتابوں کی حکایات میں کچھ ایسا سبق پوشیدہ ہے کہ جس کو پڑھنے کے بعد آدمی اپنے علم و عمل سے انسانیت کے اعلیٰ مقام پر پہنچ سکتا ہے اس لئے ان کا مطالعہ بنی نوع انسان کے لئے نہایت فائدہ مند ہے۔

اُردو ادب کے ممتاز ادیب و شاعر ڈاکٹر توفیق انصاری احمد نے حضرت شیخ سعدی شیرازیؒ کی سدا بہار فارسی تصانیف گلستاں و بوستاں کی افادیت کو پیش نظر رکھتے ہوئے ان دونوں کتابوں کی منتخب حکایات کے نثری و منظوم ترجمہ کا کام کئی برس پہلے شروع کیا تھا جس کی اشاعت و رسم اجرائی کا اہتمام زیر ترتیب ہے۔ ویسے تو گلستاں و بوستاں کے تراجم دنیا کی تقریباً تمام بڑی زبانوں میں ہو چکے ہیں لیکن صرف انگریزی و عربی میں نثر کا ترجمہ نثر اور نظم کا ترجمہ نظم میں کیا گیا ہے۔ اُردو زبان میں موثر اور مفید ترجمہ کی ایسی کوئی مثال نہیں ملتی۔ ”گل بو“ (گلستاں سے گل اور بوستاں سے بو) گلستاں اور بوستاں کی منتخب مثالی حکایتوں کا اور ڈاکٹر توفیق انصاری احمد کا زیر ترتیب اُردو زبان کا وہ سب سے پہلا شاہکار مشترکہ و منفرد گلدستہ ہے جس میں فارسی نثر کا ترجمہ اُردو نثر میں اور فارسی نظم کا ترجمہ اُردو نظم میں کیا گیا ہے۔ ”گل بوکی حکایت“ کے عنوان سے ہم گلستاں و بوستاں کی حکایات کو عوامی استفادہ کی خاطر ”ایشیا نامہ کی الیکٹرانک اشاعتوں میں ثواب جاریہ کی نیت سے سلسلہ وار شائع کر رہے ہیں۔ (ادارہ)

ممتاز ہندی فلم اداکار دھرمیندر نہیں رہے

ہندی سینما کے معروف اداکار دھرمیندر انتقال کر گئے۔ انہوں نے 89 سال کی عمر میں وہ مقام دلایا جس کا خواب ہر فنکار دیکھتا ہے۔

آخری سانس لی۔ دھرمیندر جو کافی عرصے سے بیمار تھے، سانس لینے میں دشواری کا سامنا کر رہے تھے اور ان کی صحت بگڑ رہی تھی۔ انہیں معمول کے چیک اپ اور علاج کے لیے بریج کینڈی اسپتال میں داخل کرایا گیا تھا۔ اس خبر نے نہ صرف بالی ووڈ کی دنیا کو سوگوار کیا بلکہ برصغیر کے کروڑوں دلوں میں ایک خلا پیدا کر دیا، ایسا خلا جو شاید کبھی پُر نہ ہو سکے۔ دھرمیندر کو ان کی دل کش شخصیت، مردانہ وجاہت، بے ساختہ اداکاری اور انسان دوستی نے عوام کے دل میں ایک خاص مقام عطا کیا تھا۔ ان کی یہ دل کش شخصیت ہی تھی کہ لاکھوں لڑکیاں اپنی کتابوں میں ان کی تصویر رکھتی تھیں۔ پنجاب کے ایک چھوٹے سے قصبہ نسرانی سے نکل کر ممبئی کی چمکتی دنیا تک کا سفر آسان نہ تھا، مگر

کرن جو ہر کا اپنی نسوانی چال ڈھال اور اس میں تبدیلی کیلئے کی گئی جدوجہد سے متعلق حیران کن انکشاف

بالی ووڈ ہدایتکار اور فلم ساز کرن جوہر نے اپنی نسوانی چال ڈھال اور اس میں تبدیلی کیلئے کی گئی جدوجہد سے متعلق حیران کن انکشاف کیا ہے۔ کرن جوہر حال ہی میں ایک انٹرویو میں شریک ہوئے جس دوران انہوں نے میزبان ثانیہ مرزا کے ساتھ سنگل پیرنگ سمیت اپنے زندگی کے مختلف اتار چڑھا پر بات کی۔ دوران شو کرن جوہر نے انکشاف کیا کہ 1989 میں میری عمر 15 سال تھی، اس عمر میں جب لڑکے سپورٹس کھیلتے ہیں اس کے برعکس نئی چیزیں سیکھنے کا شوقین تھا، اسی وجہ سے مختلف کورسز کرتا رہتا تھا، میں نے ان دنوں فرانسیسی زبان سیکھنے کے ساتھ ساتھ کوئنگ، فلاور اینڈ فروٹ اور بنجمنٹ سمیت امپورٹ ایکسپورٹ کے کورسز کیے۔ کرن جوہر کے مطابق مجھے اپنی سکول لائف میں تقاریر اور ٹیبلو کا شوق تھا جس کیلئے میں پبلک اسپیکنگ سیکھ رہا تھا، اسی دوران میرے کوچ میرے پاس آئے اور انہوں نے بتایا کہ میں ایک بہترین سٹوڈنٹ ہوں،

محبت زندگی کے تمام مسائل کا حل ہے یہ بالکل غلط ہے، ماورا حسین

ان دنوں ڈرامہ 'نیم' میں نظر آنے والی اداکارہ ماورا حسین کے مداح کافی عرصے سے ٹوپیش کریں گے۔ اس حوالے سے ڈرامے میں مرکزی کردار ادا کرنے والے وہاب علی

یہ جاننے کے خواہشمند ہیں کہ وہ کب شادی کریں گی تاہم اداکارہ ہمیشہ شادی کے سوال کو ٹال دیتی ہیں۔ حال ہی میں ماورا حسین نے ایک پوڈ کاسٹ میں شرکت کی جہاں انہوں نے اپنی شادی کے حوالے سے بھی گفتگو کی۔ ان کا کہنا تھا کہ میں محبت میں گرفتار ہونے کے خلاف نہیں ہوں لیکن یہ سوچنا کہ محبت آپ کی زندگی کے تمام مسائل کو ختم کر دے گی، بالکل غلط ہے، رشتے میں خواہش اور محبت سر پر سوار نہیں کرنی چاہیے۔ تاہم گزشتہ دنوں اداکارہ عمران اشرف کی سابقہ اہلیہ اور ماڈل و اداکارہ کرن اشفاق نے اپنی سوشل میڈیا پوسٹ میں اس بات کے افسوس کا اظہار کیا کہ انہوں نے کسی مرد کی خاطر اپنے آپ کو بدلا تھا۔ کرن اشفاق نے اپنی انسٹاگرام میں لکھا کہ کیا کہ اب وہ کسی بھی دوسرے مرد کی محبت کی خاطر اس کی پسند کے مطابق زندگی نہیں گزاریں گی اور نہ ہی اپنا لائف سٹائل تبدیل کریں گی جبکہ کسی مرد کو اپنی محبت کی خاطر تبدیل ہونے کا کہیں گی۔ کرن نے 2018 میں اداکار عمران اشرف کے ساتھ شادی کی تھی اور دونوں نے اکتوبر 2022 میں طلاق کی تصدیق کر دی تھی۔ گزشتہ چھ ماہ سے ٹی وی سکرین پر مقبولیت کے جھنڈے گاڑنے والے ڈرامے 'نیم' بن کی آخری قسط گزشتہ روز نشر کی گئی تھی جس کا مداحوں کو بے صبری سے انتظار تھا۔ ڈرامے کی آخری قسط بھی خوب وائرل ہوئی۔ ڈرامہ 'نیم' بن بنانے والے عبداللہ کادوانی نے ڈرامے کی آخری قسط کے بعد سوشل میڈیا پر اعلان کیا کہ وہ مقبول ڈرامہ سیریل کا سیزن

نے ایک انسٹاگرام پوسٹ میں لکھا کہ یمنی زیدی نے مجھے متاثر کیا مجھے چیلنج دیا اور مجھے ایک اداکار کے طور پر آگے بڑھنے پر زور دیا۔ ان کا مزید کہنا تھا کہ آپ کو شاذ و نادر ہی ایسے اداکار اور کردار ملتے ہیں جو آپ کی بہترین صلاحیت کو سامنے لاتے ہیں۔ وہ اداکار جو آپ کو بہتر، زیادہ پختہ اداکار بننے پر مجبور کرتے ہیں۔ وہاب کی بات واقعی درست ہے کیونکہ دنیا بھر کے متعدد اداکار کئی بار اس طرح کے انکشافات کر چکے ہیں کہ ماضی میں ان کے ٹھکرائے ہوئے کرداروں نے کسی دوسرے اداکار کو شہرت کی بلندیوں پر پہنچا دیا ہے، ان اداکاروں میں بالی ووڈ کے کنگ شاہ رخ خان اور سلمان خان جیسے بڑے نام بھی شامل ہیں۔ حال ہی میں پاکستان کی مشہور ٹک ٹاکر جنت مرزا نے ایک ٹی وی شو میں انکشاف کیا کہ انھیں ڈرامہ سیریل 'ہم کہاں کے سچے تھے' میں کبریٰ خان اور پری زاؤ میں اشنا شاہ کا کردار کرنے کی آفر ہوئی تھی لیکن اس وقت بیرون ملک ہونے کی وجہ سے معذرت کر لی تھی۔ جنت مرزا نے بتایا کہ مجھے کہا گیا کہ آپ کو آڈیشن کے لیے پاکستان آنا پڑے گا، لیکن میں نہیں آئی جس کا اب مجھے افسوس ہے کہ کاش میں اس وقت پاکستان میں ہوتی۔ آن لائن سٹریمنگ پلیٹ فارم نیٹ فلکس نے پوری دنیا کے فلمی شائقین کا مزاج ہی تبدیل کر دیا ہے روایتی طرز سے ہٹ کر جدید انداز میں فلمی کہانی کو پیش کر کے نیٹ فلکس نے اپنا مقام حاصل کر لیا ہے۔

والدین کے حقوق ادا کرنے کی دُعا

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِیْنَ - رَبِّ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَرَبِّ الْاَرْضِ رَبُّ الْعٰلَمِیْنَ وَلَهُ الْکِبْرِیَّآءُ فِی السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ

وَالْاَرْضِ وَهُوَ الْعَزِیْزُ الْحَکِیْمُ (بخاری شریف)

تو اس نے گویا والدین کا حق ادا کر دیا۔

سفر میں حفاظت کی دُعا

حَنِیْفًا مُّسْلِمًا وَمَا کَانَ مِنَ الْمُشْرِکِیْنَ (احمد بن حنبل - ۴۰۶/۳)

فضیلت: یہ دُعا روزانہ صبح اور شام پڑھیں، اگر شام کو پڑھیں تو اَصْبَحْنَا کی جگہ اَمْسَيْنَا پڑھیں۔

فجر کی نماز کے بعد دُعا

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَسْئَلُکَ عِلْمًا نَافِعًا وَرِزْقًا طَیْبًا وَعَمَلًا مُّتَقَبَّلًا (ابن ماجہ: ۱/۱۵۲)

فضیلت: یہ دُعا بعد نماز فجر روزانہ پڑھتے رہنا چاہئے۔ اے اللہ میں تجھ سے نفع دینے والے علم اور پاکیزہ رزق اور قبول
کئے گئے عمل کا سوال کرتا ہوں۔

❖ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَسْئَلُکَ الْعَفْوَ وَالْعَافِیَةَ فِی الدُّنْیَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ

فضیلت: اے اللہ بیشک میں تجھ سے سوال کرتا ہوں دُنیا و آخرت میں سلامتی اور عافیت کا۔

سعودی عرب میں خوفناک سڑک حادثہ، مکہ مکرمہ سے مدینہ منورہ جا رہے 42 بھارتی عمرہ زائرین کی موت اہل بیت نبویؐ ایجنسی اپنا کی رپورٹ کے مطابق، مکہ سے مدینہ جا رہی بس ڈیزل ٹینکر سے ٹکرا کر آگ کے گولے

میں تبدیل ہو گئی جس کی وجہ سے 42 مسافر ہلاک ہو گئے۔ اس حادثے میں صرف ایک زائر زندہ بچ سکا ہے۔ زائرین کی بڑی تعداد کا تعلق تلنگانہ سے تھا۔ حکومت تلنگانہ نے کنٹرول روم قائم کر دیا اور اہل خانہ کے لیے ہیلپ لائن نمبر بھی جاری کیا ہے۔

سعودی عرب میں ایک دل خراش سڑک حادثے میں تلنگانہ سے تعلق رکھنے والے کم از کم 42 بھارتی عمرہ زائرین ہلاک ہو گئے ہیں۔ پیر کی علی الصبح مکہ سے مدینہ جانے والی ایک بس ڈیزل ٹینکر سے ٹکرا گئی، جس کے بعد بس میں خوفناک آگ بھڑک اٹھی۔ ابتدائی اطلاعات کے مطابق حادثہ صبح 30:1 بجے (IST) مفریحات کے قریب پیش آیا۔ اطلاعات میں بتایا گیا ہے کہ بس میں 43 مسافر سوار تھے جن میں صرف ایک زندہ بچنے کی تصدیق ہوئی ہے۔ قافلہ مبینہ طور پر حیدرآباد سے روانہ ہوا تھا اور ان میں 20 خواتین اور 11 بچے شامل تھے۔ تمام زائرین مکہ میں عمرہ کی ادائیگی مکمل کر کے مدینہ کی سمت روانہ ہوئے تھے۔

متعدد خاندان اپنے پیاروں کی خیریت جاننے کے لیے بے چین ہیں۔ اسی کے پیش نظر حکومت تلنگانہ نے سکریٹریٹ میں کنٹرول روم قائم کر دیا ہے۔ اہل خانہ ان نمبروں پر رابطہ کر سکتے ہیں:

سفارت خانے کی جانب سے بھی متاثرہ خاندانوں کی مدد کے لیے کنٹرول روم نمبرز جاری کیے گئے ہیں حیدرآباد کے رکن پارلیمنٹ اسد الدین اویسی نے کہا کہ حادثے کے

تلنگانہ کے وزیر اعلیٰ اے ریونت ریڈی نے حادثے پر گہرے دکھ کا اظہار کرتے ہوئے چیف سکریٹری کے رام کرشنا راؤ اور ڈی جی پی شیودھر ریڈی کو ہدایت دی کہ حادثے میں متاثرہ حیدرآباد اور دیگر اضلاع کے لوگوں کی مکمل تفصیلات جمع کی جائیں۔

مقامی سعودی میڈیا کے مطابق حادثے کے وقت کئی مسافر سو رہے تھے، جس کی وجہ سے آگ بھڑکنے کے بعد ان کے بچنے کے امکانات نہایت کم ہو گئے۔ گلف نیوز کی رپورٹ کے مطابق ہلاک ہونے والوں میں 11 خواتین اور 10 بچے شامل ہو سکتے ہیں، تاہم حتمی اعداد و شمار کی تصدیق جاری ہے۔

تلنگانہ حکومت نے کہا ہے کہ وہ ریاض میں بھارتی سفارت خانے کے مسلسل رابطے میں ہے، جبکہ دہلی میں مقیم حکام کو بھی معاملے پر قریبی ہم آہنگی کی ہدایت جاری کر دی گئی ہے۔ ریڈیڈنٹ کمشنر کو بھی ہدایت دی گئی ہے کہ وہ حادثے میں مرنے والوں کی شناخت اور تعداد سے متعلق مکمل معلومات اکٹھی کریں۔

وقت بس میں 42 عمرہ زائرین موجود تھے جب اس میں آگ بھڑک اٹھی۔ انہوں نے بتایا کہ وہ ریاض میں بھارتی سفارت خانے کے ڈپٹی چیف آف مشن ابو ماتھن جارج سے مسلسل رابطے میں ہیں، جنہوں نے حادثے کی تفصیلات اکٹھی کرنے کی یقین دہانی کرائی ہے۔ رپورٹس کے مطابق حیدرآباد کی عمرہ ایجنسیوں کے تقریباً 16 زائرین بھی اس افسوسناک حادثے میں ہلاک ہونے والوں میں شامل ہیں۔ اویسی نے مرکزی حکومت سے اپیل کی ہے کہ جاں بحق افراد کی میتوں کو وطن واپس لانے کا بندوبست کیا جائے۔

سعودی عرب کے مدینہ منورہ میں ایک ہولناک سڑک حادثے میں ہلاک ہونے والوں میں حیدرآباد کے ایک ہی خاندان کے اٹھارہ افراد شامل ہیں۔ نصیر الدین (65) جو دیا نگر کے نالہ کنڈ سے ایک ریٹائرڈ ریلوے ملازم ہیں، اپنے خاندان کے 18 افراد کے ساتھ عمرہ کے لیے گئے تھے۔ مرنے والوں میں ناصر الدین، ان کی اہلیہ، ان کی تین بیٹیاں، بیٹا، بہو اور ان کے بچے شامل ہیں۔ مرنے والے 18 میں

سے دس بچے شامل ہیں۔ دریں اثنا، المناک حادثے کی اطلاع ملتے ہی، تلنگانہ کانگریس کے سربراہ مہیش کمار گوڈ نے ودیا نگر میں نصیر الدین کے گھر جا کر ان کے اہل خانہ سے تعزیت کی۔ انہوں نے ایک ہی خاندان کے 18 افراد کے نقصان پر گہرے دکھ کا اظہار کیا۔ اے آئی ایم آئی ایم ایل سی رحمت بیگ نے بھی متوفی کے اہل خانہ سے ملاقات کی۔

حکومتی وفد مدینہ منورہ:

ریاستی کابینہ نے پیر کے روز اقلیتی امور کے وزیر محمد اظہر الدین، ایم آئی ایم کے ایم ایل اے اور محکمہ اقلیتی امور کے ایک عہدیدار پر مشتمل ایک سرکاری وفد سعودی عرب بھیجنے کا فیصلہ کیا۔ لاشوں کو وہیں سپرد خاک کرنے کا بھی فیصلہ کیا گیا ہے۔ کابینہ نے مسلم مذہبی روایات کے مطابق وہاں آخری رسومات ادا کرنے اور اس مقصد کے لیے ہر متاثرہ خاندان سے دو دو افراد بھیجنے کا فیصلہ کیا ہے۔

حادثہ ہندوستانی وقت کے مطابق پیر کی صبح 30:1 بجے پیش آیا۔ مکہ سے مدینہ جاتے ہوئے مفرحت کے علاقے میں حاجیوں کی بس ڈیزل ٹینکر سے ٹکرا گئی۔ جس کی وجہ سے بڑے پیمانے پر آگ لگ گئی۔ حادثہ کے وقت زیادہ تر لوگ سو رہے تھے۔ اطلاع ملتے ہی سعودی حکام اور امدادی ٹیمیں جائے وقوعہ پر پہنچ گئیں اور امدادی کارروائیاں شروع کر دیں۔ سرکاری ذرائع نے بتایا کہ بعض زخمیوں کی حالت نازک ہے اور انہیں قریبی اسپتالوں میں داخل کرایا گیا ہے۔ سعودی ذرائع نے بتایا کہ حکام مرنے والوں کی تعداد کی تصدیق میں مصروف ہیں۔ تاہم خیال کیا جا رہا ہے کہ ایک شخص حادثے میں بچ گیا ہے۔

قرآن مجید میں اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام ارشاد فرماتا ہے: وَإِذْ كُنَّا فِي نَفْسِكَ نَتَنَصَّرُ عَاوَجِينَ وَخُفِّفَةً وَكُفُونًا لِّمَا فِي الْقَوْلِ بِالْغُدُوِّ وَالْآصَالِ وَلَا تَكُنْ مِنَ الْغَافِلِينَ

قرآن مجید میں اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام ارشاد فرماتا ہے:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تُلْهِكُمْ أَمْوَالُكُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُكُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ ۚ وَمَنْ يَفْعَلْ ذَٰلِكَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ

ترجمہ: اے ایمان والوں تمہارا مال یعنی پیسہ دولت جائیداد وغیرہ اور تمہاری اولاد تمہیں اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کی یاد سے ذکر کرنے سے عبادت کرنے سے غافل نہ کر دے اور جو لوگ ایسا کریں گے یعنی پیسہ کمانے میں یا پیسہ سنبھالنے میں بیوی بچوں میں اتنا مصروف ہو جائیں کہ اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کے ذکر نہ کریں اور اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کی عبادت نہ کریں تو ایسے لوگ بڑے گھائے کا سودا کرنے والے ہوں گے یعنی بہت ہی زیادہ نقصان اٹھانے والے ہوں گے۔

حضرات محترم! یاد رکھیں کہ اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کے ذکر کو چھوڑ کر اس کی عبادت کو چھوڑ کر اس کی یاد کو چھوڑ کر اس کی پیدا کی ہوئی مخلوق (انسان وغیرہ) کے خیال میں مصروف رہنے والا انسان دنیا اور آخرت میں نقصان اٹھاتا ہے اور بے سکون رہتا ہے۔

کیونکہ قرآن مجید میں اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام ارشاد فرماتا ہے:

الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَلَمْ يَلْبِسُوا إِيمَانَهُمْ بِشَاكٍ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ

ترجمہ: آگاہ رہو اے لوگو بے شک اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کے ذکر سے اس کی یاد سے ہی اس کی عبادت سے ہی دلوں کو سکون و چین اور اطمینان حاصل ہوتا ہے۔

حضرات محترم! یہ دنیا قرار کی جگہ نہیں یہاں سکون چین بس اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کے ذکر میں ہے یا اس شے میں جسے اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام تسکین بنا دے۔

قرآن مجید میں اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام فرماتا ہے:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا كُنَّا فِي نَفْسِكَ نَتَنَصَّرُ عَاوَجِينَ وَخُفِّفَةً وَكُفُونًا لِّمَا فِي الْقَوْلِ بِالْغُدُوِّ وَالْآصَالِ وَلَا تَكُنْ مِنَ الْغَافِلِينَ

ترجمہ: اگر تم لوگ کامیاب ہونا چاہتے ہو تو زیادہ سے زیادہ اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کا ذکر کرو اس کی عبادت کرو اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کو یاد کرو۔

قرآن مجید میں اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام ارشاد فرماتا ہے:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا كُنَّا فِي نَفْسِكَ نَتَنَصَّرُ عَاوَجِينَ وَخُفِّفَةً وَكُفُونًا لِّمَا فِي الْقَوْلِ بِالْغُدُوِّ وَالْآصَالِ وَلَا تَكُنْ مِنَ الْغَافِلِينَ

ہر تعریف صرف اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کے لئے ہے جو سب سے بلند اور سب سے بڑا ہے اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام ہمیشہ سے زندہ اور قائم ہے اور ہمیشہ زندہ اور قائم رہنے والا ہے۔ اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام دور اور نزدیک کی اور ظاہری اور ڈھکی چھپی تمام باتوں کا سننے والا اور تمام مخلوقات کو دیکھنے والا اور ہر کام اور ہر مخلوق پر مکمل اختیار و قدرت رکھتا ہے۔

میں اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کا حمد کثیر اور شکر جمیل بجالاتا ہوں اور میں اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام سے اپنے تمام گناہوں کی معافی مانگتا ہوں اور اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کی بارگاہ میں توبہ کرتا ہوں کیونکہ اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام بہت مہربان باریک بین اور تمام مخلوقات کی خبر رکھنے والا ہے۔

میں گواہی دیتا ہوں کہ اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کے سوا کوئی عبادت کے لائق نہیں اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام ایک ہے کوئی اس کا ساتھی و شریک نہیں اور میں یہ بھی گواہی دیتا ہوں کہ حضرت سیدنا و مولانا محمد مصطفیٰ ﷺ، اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کے بندے اور اس کے آخری رسول ہیں جو مومنوں کو جنت کی بشارت و خوشخبری سنانے والے اور کفار و مشرکین اور اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کے نافرمانوں کو دوزخ کے عذاب سے ڈرانے والے ہیں۔

تاقیام قیامت رسول مکرّم ﷺ پر اور رسول مکرّم ﷺ کی آل و اولاد صحابہ و اہل بیت پر اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کے درود و سلام نازل ہوں۔

اما بعد: میرے بزرگو، بھائیو اور بہنو، زیادہ سے زیادہ اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کا ذکر کرتے رہو اور ان لوگوں میں سے ہرگز بھی نہیں ہونا جو لوگ اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کے ذکر سے غافل ہے اور جو لوگ صرف دنیاوی کاموں اور کاروبار اور فضول کاموں اور بے فائدہ باتوں میں وقت برباد کر رہے ہیں وہ کیونکہ لوگ آخرت میں افسوس کریں گے۔

کیونکہ اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام نے ہم کو چند سالوں کے لئے اس عارضی دنیا میں صرف اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام کی عبادت کرنے کے لئے بھیجا ہے جیسا کہ قرآن مجید میں اللہ ذوالجلال والا کرام نے ارشاد فرمایا:

امراض قلب اور طب نبوی کے کمالات

چھاتی میں محسوس ہونے والا یہ جان لیوا درد عام طور پر ناگہانی طور پر شروع ہوتا ہے اور پھر بڑھتا جاتا ہے، بنیادی طور پر یہ دل کو خون مہیا کرنے والی شریانوں کی بندش ہے کبھی تو یہ آہستہ آہستہ پیدا ہوتی ہے اور کبھی فوراً ہی محسوس ہونے لگتی ہے۔ ماہرین کا خیال ہے کہ حیوانی ذرائع سے حاصل ہونے والی چکنائیاں دل کی نالیوں کو بند کر دیتی ہیں۔ سگریٹ پینے والوں کو دل کے دورے کا اندیشہ دوسروں سے زیادہ ہوتا ہے آرام طلبی، تفکرات اور بسیار خوری کو دل کی بیماریوں کا باعث قرار دیا جاتا ہے۔ دل کے دورے کی سب سے بڑی علامت درد ہے یہ درد کبھی اتنا شدید ہوتا ہے کہ مریض تڑپنے لگتا ہے ایک امریکن اخبار نویس نے اپنی کیفیت کو بیان کرتے ہوئے بتایا ”ایسا معلوم ہوتا تھا کہ چھاتی کے اندر لوہے کا جلتا ہوا کوئلہ رکھ دیا گیا ہے“ درد کا آغاز عام طور پر چھاتی کے وسط میں سامنے کی طرف سے ہوتا ہے پھر یہ دائیں اور بائیں بازو میں بھی محسوس ہونے لگتا ہے ایسا لگتا ہے کہ ہاتھ بھاری ہو گئے ہیں اور انگلیوں میں سونیوں کی جھین محسوس ہوتی ہے یہاں سے درد گردن کے پیچھے کندھوں کے درمیان بھی چلا جاتا ہے چلنے پھرنے سے درد میں اضافہ ہوتا ہے۔ مریض کو ٹھیک سے سانس نہیں آتا، سانس لینے میں دشواری ہوتی ہے کبھی کبھی اصل تکلیف صرف سانس میں تنگی کی صورت میں ظاہر ہوتی ہے۔ اکثر مریضوں کو شدید متلی ہوتی ہے کئی مریضوں میں صرف یہی علامت ظاہر ہوتی ہے۔ دل کو خون کی بہر سانی کی بندش صدمہ کی شدید کیفیت پیدا کر دیتی ہے، ٹھنڈے پسینے آنے لگتے، بے قراری، گھبراہٹ، کمزوری، پریشانی اپنی انتہا تک چلے جاتے ہیں، بلڈ پریشر میں دورے کے دوران اضافہ ہو سکتا ہے لیکن عام طور پر بعد میں کم ہو جاتا ہے۔ دل کے دورے کو نبی اکرم ﷺ نے بڑی اہمیت عطا فرمائی ہے فرمایا: ”تمہارے جسم میں گوشت کا ایک لوتھڑا ہے جب وہ

تندرست ہو تو سارا جسم تندرست رہتا ہے اور جب وہ بیمار ہوتا ہے تو سارا جسم بیمار ہو جاتا ہے اور یہ لوتھڑا دل ہے۔“ (بخاری) آپ ﷺ نے دل کی بیماریوں سے بچنے اور ان کے علاج کے متعدد

مریض کو جو کے دلیہ میں شہد ڈال کر کھانا پسند فرماتے تھے۔ جدید تحقیق سے ثابت ہوا ہے کہ خون سے کولیسٹرول کو نکالنے کی سب سے اہم اور مجرب دوا جو کا دلیہ ہے۔ اس میں مفید عناصر کی ایک معقول

مقدار پائی جاتی ہے۔ بہتر یہ ہے کہ چکی کا بنا ہوا جو کا دلیہ استعمال کیا جائے۔ جو کا دلیہ ہر جگہ آسانی سے دستیاب ہے۔ جو بطور روٹی، دلیہ، ستو اور اس کا پانی بنا کر بھی استعمال کیا جاسکتا ہے۔

شہد: کمزوری دور کرنے کیلئے شہد قدرت کا انمول تحفہ ہے، خون کی نالیوں کو کھولتا ہے، اعصاب کو طاقت دیتا اور دل کے عضلات پر سے بیماری کے اثرات کو اتارتا ہے، دل کی بیماریوں کے علاج کیلئے 4-6 بڑے چمچ ایسے وقت میں لینے مفید ہوں گے جب پیٹ خالی ہو۔ بند نالیوں کو کھولنے کیلئے نبی اکرم ﷺ نے شہد کو ابلے پانی میں دینا پسند فرمایا ہے۔

بہی: نبی اکرم ﷺ کے دست مبارک میں ایک روز بہی کا پھل تھا اس واقعہ کو حضرت طلحہ رضی اللہ عنہ یوں بیان فرماتے ہیں: ”انہوں نے پھل مجھے دیتے ہوئے فرمایا کہ یہ دل کی تکلیف (دورہ) کو دور کر دیتا ہے۔“ (ابن ماجہ) دل کے دورہ اور اس کی گھٹن کے بارے میں حضور اکرم ﷺ نے کئی مرتبہ خوشخبری سنائی ”سفر جل (بہی) کھاؤ کہ یہ دل کی تکلیف کو دور کرتا ہے اور سینہ کی گھٹن کو دور کرتا ہے۔“ (ابو نعیم ابن النبی) ابن قیم رحمۃ اللہ علیہ نے بہی کی بہترین قسم اس کا مربہ قرار دیا ہے بہی کو نہار منہ کھانا چاہیے شہد کے شربت کے ساتھ ایک سے دو قاشیں

ناشتے سے پہلے کھالی جائیں۔
کھجور: حضرت سعد بن ابی وقاص رضی اللہ عنہ، ایک روز بیمار ہو گئے وہ اپنی روئیداد یوں سناتے ہیں۔ ”میں بیمار ہوا میری عیادت کو رسول پاک ﷺ تشریف لائے۔ انہوں نے اپنا ہاتھ میرے کندھوں کے درمیان رکھا تو اس ہاتھ کی ٹھنڈک میری پوری چھاتی میں پھیل گئی، پھر فرمایا کہ اسے دل کا دورہ پڑا ہے اسے حارث بن کلدہ کے پاس لے جاؤ جو ثقیف میں مطب کرتا ہے حلیم کو چاہیے کہ وہ مدینہ کی سات عجوہ کھجوریں گھیلیں سمیت کوٹ کر اسے کھلائے۔“ (داؤد احمد نعیم) دل کے دورہ میں کھجور کو گھٹلی سمیت کوٹ کر دینا جان بچانے کا باعث ہوتا ہے۔ احادیث میں اس غرض کیلئے عجوہ کھجوریں تجویز کی گئیں ہیں تجربات سے معلوم ہوا ہے کہ اس غرض کیلئے دوسری کھجوریں بھی استعمال کی جاسکتی ہیں مگر ان کا عرصہ استعمال طویل ہونا چاہیے۔

زیتون کا تیل: ”زیتون کا تیل کھاؤ اور لگاؤ کیونکہ اس میں ستر بیماریوں سے شفاء ہے جن میں سے ایک جذام بھی ہے۔“ (ابو نعیم) قلب کی حفاظت کیلئے وٹامن ای کا استعمال ضروری ہے کیلیفورنیا یونیورسٹی کی ایک تحقیق کے مطابق زیتون کے تیل کو اس اعتبار سے سورج مکھی، مکئی اور نہ جھنے والے تیلوں پر فوقیت حاصل ہے وٹامن ای چربی میں شامل ہو کر مغز قلب کولیسٹرول ایل ڈی ایل کو بے اثر کر دیتا ہے۔ جو خوراک قلب دوست روغن زیتون سے بھرپور ہوتی ہے وہ خون میں زیادہ کثافت والی روغنیات ایل ڈی ایل کو بڑھانے میں بہت مفید ہیں جو کہ خون کی نالیوں میں روغن کو جمند کرنے اور دل کی شریانوں کی بیماری میں حفاظتی عنصر ہے۔ اس کا استعمال بلڈ پریشر کو کنٹرول میں رکھتا ہے، قوت مدافعت میں اضافہ کرتا ہے، زیتون کا تیل ایک ایسی چکنائی ہے جو دوسری چکنائیوں کو بھی ہضم کرتی ہے۔

سزا

عاشق کو محبت کی سزا کیوں نہیں دیتے
جلدی سے اس کا بیاہ رچا کیوں نہیں دیتے
گروہ عقل سے ہے پیدل اور لکھنا پڑھنا نہیں آتا
آپ اسے قوم کا لیڈر بنا کیوں نہیں دیتے

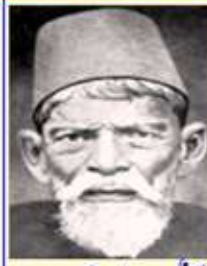

خود غرض ہو گئے ہیں کسی کی فکر نہیں
مذہب کو بھول بیٹھے خدا کا ڈر نہیں
زمین پہ جنت بنانے والوں سے کہہ دو وائی
”سامان سو برس کا ہے پل کی خبر نہیں“

غزل

نہ ہارا ہے عشق اور نہ دنیا تھکی ہے
دیا جل رہا ہے ہوا چل رہی ہے
سکوں ہی سکوں ہے خوشی ہی خوشی ہے
ترا غم سلامت مجھے کیا کمی ہے
وہ موجود ہیں اور ان کی کمی ہے
محبت بھی تنہائی یہ دائمی ہے
کھٹک گلدگی کا مزا دے رہی ہے
جسے عشق کہتے ہیں شاید یہی ہے
چراغوں کے بدلے مکاں جل رہے ہیں
نیا ہے زمانہ نئی روشنی ہے
جفاؤں پہ گھٹ گھٹ کے چپ رہنے والو
خوشی جفاؤں کی تائید بھی ہے
مرے راہبر مجھ کو گمراہ نہ کر دے
سنا ہے کہ منزل قریب آ گئی ہے

نظم

بیٹے کو لوگ کہتے ہیں آنکھوں کا نور ہے
ہے زندگی کا لطف تو دل کا سرور ہے
گھر میں اسی کے دم سے ہے ہر سمت روشنی
نازاں ہے اس پہ باپ تو ماں کو غرور ہے
خوش قسمتی کی اس کو نشانی سمجھتے ہیں
کہتے ہیں یہ خدا کے کرم کا ظہور ہے
اکبر بھی اس خیال سے کرتا ہے اتفاق
اسی کا بھی ہے یہ قول کہ ایسا ضرور ہے
البتہ شرط یہ ہے کہ بیٹا ہو ہونہار
مسائل ہے نیکیوں پہ برائی سے دور ہے
سنتا ہو دل لگا کے بزرگوں کی پند کو
وقت کلام سب پہ خیاب و حضور ہے
برتاؤ اس کا صدق و محبت سے ہے بھرا
اس میں نہ ہے فریب نہ ہی مکر و زور ہے
راضی ہے اس پہ باپ کی جو کچھ ہو مصلحت
صابر ہے باادب ہے عقیل و غیور ہے
رکھتا ہے خاندان کی عزت کا وہ خیال
نیکیوں کا دوست صحت بد سے نفور ہے

غزل

یہ نہ تھی ہماری قسمت کہ وصال یار ہوتا
اگر اور جیتے رہتے یہی انتظار ہوتا
کوئی میرے دل سے پوچھے ترے تیرنیم کش کو
یہ خلش کہاں سے ہوتی جو جگر کے پار ہوتا
یہ کہاں کی دوستی ہے کہ بنے ہیں دوست ناصح
کوئی چارہ ساز ہوتا کوئی غمگسار ہوتا
رگ سنگ سے ٹپکتا وہ لبو کہ پھر نہ تھمتا
جسے غم سمجھ رہے ہو یہ اگر شرار ہوتا
غم اگر چہ جاں گسل ہے یہ کہاں بچیں کہ دل ہے
غم عشق گر نہ ہوتا غم روزگار ہوتا
کہوں کس سے میں کہ کیا ہے شب غم بری بلا ہے
مجھے کیا برا تھا مرنا اگر ایک بار ہوتا
ہوئے مر کے ہم جو رسوا ہوئے کیوں نہ غرق دریا
نہ کبھی جنازہ اٹھتا نہ کہیں مزار ہوتا
اسے کون دیکھ سکتا کہ یگانہ ہے وہ یکتا
جو دوئی کی بو بھی ہوتی تو کہیں دو چار ہوتا
یہ مسائل تصوف یہ ترا بیان غالب
تجھے ہم دلی سمجھتے جو نہ بادہ خوار ہوتا

غزل (مزاحیہ)

محبت آزمانے کو بس اک میں ہی ملا تھا کیا
تمہارے ناز اٹھانے کو بس اک میں ہی ملا تھا کیا
مرے سب بھائیوں کی شادیاں بچپن میں کر ڈالے
بڑی ڈگری پڑھانے کو بس اک میں ہی ملا تھا کیا
بہت باجے بجے تھے آپ کی شادی میں مولانا
شریعت پہ چلانے کو بس اک میں ہی ملا تھا کیا
مسلسل ایک گھنٹے تک مرا بھیجے پکا ڈالے
کلام اپنا سنانے کو بس اک میں ہی ملا تھا کیا
منافع خور تاجر تھے تو رشوت خور افسر بھی
تجھے جوتے چرانے کو بس اک میں ہی ملا تھا کیا
مجھے شوہر سمجھ کے ڈانٹتی ہو آدھے گھنٹے سے
غلط نمبر لگانے کو بس اک میں ہی ملا تھا کیا
ابھی پرواز سے تم کر رہی تھیں بات ہنس ہنس کے
اچانک روٹھ جانے کو بس اک میں ہی ملا تھا کیا

غزل (مزاحیہ)

ہے اگر سچی محبت جل کو مرجانا کتے
ان ہے موم بتی کتے اور میں ہوں پروانا کتے
اک غزل غالب کی لاکوڑس کو کونے میں پڑیں
خود میں سمجھوں لکھوں ان کو سمجھانا کتے
اس بہانے سے انوں آکے اٹھالیں گے مجھے
موز کا چھلکا سمجھ کو میں پھسل جانا کتے
فون پر بولیں مجھے اب کیا بھروسہ چاند کا
عید کرنا ہے کتے میں چھت پو آ جانا کتے
اک بڑا دریا بتا کو بولیں یہ ہے عاشقی
وہ کنارے پوچھ کھڑنگے میں اتر جانا کتے
گورنمنٹ بولی دو کے بعد کچھ نہیں فل اسٹاپ
ان کی ضد ہے دو کو اک زیر و بھی لگوانا کتے
مرکو بھی آنکھوں کی ٹھنڈک کی وصیت کر گئے
گرلز کالج کے کسی کونے میں دفنانا کتے

غزل (مزاحیہ)

عشق میں چت ہوئے سب یہاں
سورماں پہلوں شیر خاں
نو کے نو گھر میں پیدا ہوئے
پٹیاں پٹیاں پٹیاں
پی کے گرنے کے ہیں یہ مقام
گنڈیاں موریوں نالیاں
لیڈری کا یہ انعام ہے
گاڑیاں کوٹھیاں کرسیاں
مغلسی ڈھونڈتی رہ گئی
روٹیاں ڈھونڈتی گریسیاں
اُن کا معصوم فرمائشیں
چوڑیاں دستیاں بالیاں
ویری سپیل ہے مرشد کا فوڈ
مچھلیاں مرغیاں بکریاں
وصل کی شب وہ دینے لگے
جھڑکیاں دھمکیاں گالیاں
پھر سے بیگم لگی چائے
چٹنیاں کیریاں املیاں
کچھ بھی انجم سلامت نہیں
بڈیاں بوٹیاں پسلیاں

غزل (مزاحیہ)

کالج کا مرتبان ہوں بیگم
میں ذرا ناتوان ہوں بیگم
تم دھنک کی طرح سہانی ہو
میں تو جھک کر کمان ہوں بیگم
جس میں شیطان آنے ڈرتے ہیں
وہ سہانا مکان ہوں بیگم
سرخرو سارے لوگ ہوتے ہیں
ایسا میں پاندان ہوں بیگم
ہر ضرورت کی چیز ملتی ہے
میں کرانہ دوکان ہوں بیگم
مجھ کو کھا کے چبا کے مت تھو کو
میں مسالے کا پان ہوں بیگم
جس کو کوئی مٹا نہیں سکتا
ایسا سچا نشان ہوں بیگم
