

Colonel Brian Wortinger served over 25 years in the Army and culminated his career as the commander of the U.S. Army Garrison at Fort Carson, Colorado. He previously commanded the 8th Squadron, 1st U.S. Cavalry Regiment and served in a variety of cavalry, armor, and infantry units as a cavalry scout, including deployments to Kuwait, Iraq, and Afghanistan.

Colonel Wortinger is currently serving as a Corporate Fellow at Colorado Springs Utilities.

Brian is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point and the Darden Graduate School of Business at the University of Virginia and completed a post-graduate fellowship in Urban Planning at the McConnell Center, University of Louisville while completing the U.S. Army War College. He is also a graduate of the the Joint Forces Staff College and the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College.

Brian is a U.S. Army Ranger and a Kentucky Colonel. He is also serves as the Secretary of the Board of Directors for the Old Colorado City Partnership (OCC-P), as a board member for the Veteran Sheepdogs of America, as a committee member for Pike's Peak United Way's Public Policy Committee and Quality of Life Indicators Committee, and is a member of the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce.