

Clyde W. Diller

1926 - 1996

Clyde W. Diller, age 70 of Caseville, passed away Sunday, December 15 at the Bay Special Care Center in Bay City following a long illness.

He was born in Bay Port on June 4, 1926, the son of the late Wilfred and Edith (Wolfe) Diller. On March 6, 1948 he was united in marriage to Barbara M. Heron at the Kilmanagh E.U.B. Church parsonage. She survives him.

Mr. Diller was a 1943 graduate of Sebewaing High School. He was a self-employed excavator and was sexton at Caseville Township Cemetery for many years. He was a member of the Caseville United Methodist Church.

He was an avid reader and enjoyed woodworking. Mr. Diller dearly loved his grandchildren, and especially liked teasing his friends.

His survivors include his wife, Barbara; a daughter and son-in-law, Deanne and Paul Prutchick, Pigeon; two sons, Bill Diller, Pigeon and Tim Diller, M.D., Fort Gratiot; three granddaughters, Brandie, Emily, and Nicole; a sister, Fern Branum, Tucson, Arizona; two brothers, Clayton (Aileen) Diller, Bay Port and Lyle (Donna) Diller, Onaway; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by a brother, Vern, in 1958.

Funeral Services will be conducted at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, December 18 from the Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon. Rev. Gregg Mayberry, pastor of Caseville United Methodist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Caseville Township Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, the American Heart Association, or the Caseville United Methodist Church.
