

Chambers, Orville F.

Orville F. Chambers, 89, of Bad Axe, passed away Thursday, April 2, 2009 at Huron Medical Center, Bad Axe.

He was born Nov. 3, 1919 in Caro, to the late Judson and Sadie (Kelley) Chambers.

Mr. Chambers was a member of the Bad Axe United Methodist Church. He was employed by the former Glass Fashion's Department Store in Bad Axe and at different grocery stores. He enjoyed fishing, especially for perch, all animals including cats and watching deer.

He is survived by three nephews, David Chambers of Waterford, Wayne (Damayanti) Chambers of Grosse Ile and Gene Chamblor of Ohio; three nieces, Nanette (Pete) Palmer of Berlington, Vt., Amy (Bob) Crommette of Davisburg, and Joanne Lueck of Wilmington, Del.; and one sister-in-law, Maudie (Duggan) Chambers of Waterford.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Sunday, April 5, 2009 at the MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe, with the Rev. Jean Love, pastor of the Bad Axe First United Methodist Church, officiating.

Visitation will be from 1 to 8 p.m. Saturday at the MacAlpine Funeral Home, and 11 a.m. until the time of service Sunday.

Memorials may be offered to the church or Family Discretionary Fund.
