

EFPR Newark Office Becomes Independent in September, 2020 with a name change to Scott Healy, CPA, PLLC [Newark, New York,] — This week as a Nation, we celebrate and honor working people. It's appropriate that the local office of Scott Healy, LLC, PLLC become independently owned again! Many business and individual clients have turned to the trusted advisors in the Newark office of the EFPR Group for accounting, consulting and tax services. The office on Colton Avenue in Newark that is currently an office of the EFPR Group will now be Scott Healy, CPA, PLLC.

Scott L. Healy, CPA, CGMA and Douglas J. Forgue, CPA will continue to offer those same services from the office at 103 Colton Avenue in Newark.

Healy has worked in the Newark community for over 36 years serving local and regional clients. Healy is an active member of the community currently serving as Board Chair of the Newark-Wayne Community Hospital. He is also an active member of the Newark Rotary Club having served as club President in 2004-2005 and is currently serving as Treasurer for Rotary District 7120. It was in 2010 that EFPR and Healy's firm merged to provide a greater range of service options to clients. Healy says "The separation from EFPR Group is a mutual and respectful change. We believe that this change will allow both organizations to focus resources with the goal of developing and maintaining strong relationships with clients and prospects that will ultimately lead to long-term growth. We will continue to work with EFPR Group as appropriate, so there is no need to worry that the change will impact the resources and services available. We are proud to stand tall as a small business partnering with both individuals and business owners for their financial success."

Forgue has worked in the Newark community since November 2002 when he joined Healy's firm as a tax manager. He has worked in public accounting for over 31 years. Doug has been involved in the Newark community serving on the boards of the Greater Newark Chamber of Commerce, the Newark-Arcadia Historical Society, and the Newark Rotary Club.

Clients will continue to work with Scott and Doug as they have in the past from the same location in Newark. Our existing telephone phone number (315.331.1750) will continue to be operational.

The office name change will be noticed soon on all our mailings, packaging, invoices and signage at our location on Colton Avenue. The change is exciting for the team that continues to work at the Newark office. Keep your eyes out for the new sign!
