PLAYING on Purpose

Ages 0-5 years

Running the 3RD
SATURDAY of every month
at 10:30am:
October 19th

Playing on Purpose is designed to help parents gain a better understanding of the importance of play and learn how to be active participants in this important work. Each session starts with a children's book and an introduction to various play stations. Parents are then encouraged to use the items shared to "play with purpose" with their children.

During each session, parents and/or caregivers are given relevant materials and articles on how to continue to support and build on these concepts at home.

The Push
by Ashley Audrain

What happens when a mother suspects her child is capable of terrible things?

Audrain's debut novel, The Push, tells the story of a new mother who wants to be the loving parent she didn't have herself, while also dealing with a child she resents and struggles to love. Is she making it all up, or does she have good reason to fear her child?

Join us on the last Tuesday of every month.

Newcomers are always welcome!

National Friends of the Library Week

Week of October 20th

We are so thankful for the Friends of the Lakeville Library!

Not only do they keep our Friends Book Nook well stocked and neat, their fundraising helps us purchase museum and beach passes for patrons to use, pay for many of the performers at our events, purchase art supplies and event refreshments, and sponsor annual events such as Mini Golf in the Library, and much more!

CLOSING EARLY

The Library will close at 4:00pm on Wednesday, October 23rd for a Staff Meeting. (Early voting will still be open until 4:30pm.)

In the Great Ponds Gallery

Oak Point Art Association: Mixed Media Exhibit September-October
