OUR HISTORY

For over 25 years The Dublin Pub has had a rich history and has been recognized as a Dayton landmark. The largest St. Patricks Day in Ohio. The #1 seller of Jameson in the state. Sheryl Crow, The Violent Femmes, Blue Oyster Cult and Gaelic Storm have played our stage. Quentin Tarrantino had lunch here after seeing "How the West Was Won" at the Neon. We saved a 100 year old condemned historic church and rebuilt it. And we are pretty certain we are the only pub in Ohio that has a bar top made of 500 year old wood - white oak floorboards used to build houses in the late 1800's. Thousands of weddings, rehearsal dinners, first dates, last dates, and group celebrations have created life long memories. Now its time for you to create your lifelong memory at
