OLD BUSINESS

Joyce reported that her husband Frank was nearing completion of the sign-in stand that will hold the gallery visitor's book. She asked if the members had an idea as to where the stand needs to be placed when completed. It was agreed to put it in the art storeroom until the next meeting.

Joyce discussed the poetry and short stories project. She is a penpal with a Hay's High School student who suggested this project. Joyce has checked with high school guidance counselor Janay Blome who said this could be done through junior and senior high English classes. The committee authorized Joyce to continue developing this project.

Jenelle said that Nancy had told her about the problems of becoming an administrator for the Walker Art Facebook page. Jenelle will work on this and contact Nancy.

GALLERY DISPLAYS

Committee members talked about Elizabeth Dyer's art that is on display in the West Wing Gallery. Everyone was very pleased with the display. Comments were made about Sonia Jones' art works that are on display in the Community Gallery. We are very lucky to have such talented people in our community who are willing to share their art with others.

It was suggested that donations given to the Garnett City Art Collection by Candy and Rick Hewes could possibly be displayed in the West Wing Gallery in November, 2022.

The next meeting will be February 17, 2022.

Wanda adjourned the meeting at 4:42 p.m.
