 Gospel: Jn 16:12-15 "Until the End of the Age"

Today we acknowledge our belief in One God as Three Persons. Jesus of Nazareth is the lens through which we interpret this mystery. On the Ascension we celebrated Jesus' return to his Father's side. Pentecost fulfilled Jesus' promise that he would not leave us on our own to struggle in a contrary world of rejection, indifference and outright hostility. Now, we continue to celebrate the gift of the Spirit's faithful presence in our midst. As he promised, Jesus has not left us orphans.

God reaches out to us through Jesus, His Son and our brother, who is the full sign of God's love for all people. We may not be able to define this God of ours, or list all of His attributes, but this much we do know: our God is merciful, gracious and relentless in His love. If our life as the community of the people of God is as vital as Paul says it is, it will reflect the very real and active presence of the Trinity living among us and binding us together.

Today we have the opportunity to proclaim what we believe: our God is personal, involved in our lives and is calling us to come home together.

God is the perfect love that engenders hope and courage, and it is this Love that helps us to maintain a sense of purpose, peace and unity in our lives. It is this love that enables us to go out and preach to all nations, knowing that God is with us until the end of the age.
