

OHIO HIGH SCHOOL BOWLING COACHES ASSOCIATION (OHSBCA)

Be a part of your coaching community. JOIN US!

The mission of the Ohio High School Bowling Coaches Association shall be:

- To unify all high school boys & girls bowling coaches in the State of Ohio.
- To create an official line of communication with the Ohio High School Athletic Association (OHSAA).
- To assist the OHSAA, as requested, in the operation of the state tournament.
- To foster higher standards of coaching proficiency and ethics.
- To work in harmony with members of the Bowling Centers Association of Ohio (BCAO) serving as "host" centers.
- To recognize superior performance by Ohio High School bowling athletes.
- To assist college bowling coaches to identify athletes for academic advancement and scholarships.
- To promote Ohio youth bowling grades 1-12.

Active Membership

Available to Head Coaches, Asst. Coaches, and volunteer coaches currently engaged as a high school bowling coach and approved by their local Bd. of Education. Also, available to BCAO proprietors and OHSAA Tournament Managers.

Active members allowed to give input on issues facing high school bowling, hold Association office, nominate applicants for Bowler of the Year scholarships, and to receive All-Ohio academic award certificates for eligible team members.

"Have a Voice!"

Affiliate Membership

For OHSAA-member school administrators, USBC-certified non-high school bowling coaches, high school "club" team coaches, NCAA or USBC collegiate coaches, Conference Managers, non-BCAO proprietors, and past/retired high school coaches.

Affiliate members will receive the same communications as active members about high school bowling and youth bowling in Ohio.
