Massachusetts Latino Police Officers Association

Statewide Latino Law Enforcement group commemorates Hispanic Heritage Month by offering free membership

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Boston, Massachusetts – The Massachusetts Latino Police Officers Association (MLPO) is commemorating Hispanic Heritage Month by offering free regular membership (a $50.00 value) for one full year to law enforcement officers within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts until October 15, 2012.

This free membership is open to law enforcement officers who support the mission, goals, and objectives of the Massachusetts Latino Police Officers Association. Our organization is composed of officers within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, who are in state, city, campus, sheriff or corrections law enforcement fields and who are currently active.

The mission of the Massachusetts Latino Police Officers Association is to create a professional association that provides support, advocacy, personal and professional development to its members; improve and increase diversity in law enforcement and to bridge the gap between the community and law enforcement agencies.

“We are searching for outstanding Latino law enforcement officers and leaders who have made an exceptional contribution to their community” states Mr. Jacobo Negron, President and Founder of the Massachusetts Latino Police Officers Association. “We want to personally meet these unique individuals, highlight their law enforcement achievements and invite them to make innovative contributions to the Massachusetts Latino Police Officers Association”.

Those interested may go to the website www.masslatinopolice.org for membership registration. The Massachusetts Latino Police Officers Association is an affiliate organization member of the National Coalition of Latino Officers (NCLCO), the fastest growing Latino police organization in the United States.
