

Future Stars ~ Theater Games

Dates: June 11th—15th From 2:00—3:15

Ages: Entering kindergarten—2nd grades

This is an excellent class for young students to explore the world of theater through games and improvisation!

Students in this class will be introduced to all aspects of acting including, characterization, improvisation, movement and performance through theater games. In addition to learning about acting and improvisation, these activities will enhance self-confidence.

All students will be free to explore their own creativity in a safe environment where there are no wrong answers.

There will be a showcase performance on the final day of learned skills.

Instructor: Jessica Swanson

Tuition: $100 per child
