Call to Worship: Based on Psalm 85 (Liturgist – Congregation)

Lord, you were favorable to your land, you restored the fortunes of Jacob.

You forgave the iniquity of your people; you pardoned all their sin.

You withdrew all your wrath; you turned from your hot anger;

Restore us again, O God of our salvation, and put away your indignation toward us.

Let us worship God!

*Opening Hymn: #408, What a Friend We Have in Jesus

Opening Prayer & The Lord's Prayer

Ruler of nations, you have dominion over all the earth. We praise your name and bow down before you. You bring pride to the humble, and cause the boastful to be brought low. The afflicted find hope through your mercy; the comfortable you challenge and chasten. As your wisdom led our fathers and mothers throughout the ages, make us receptive to the testimony of your love, for we pray in the name of Christ Jesus, the Word made flesh. For we ask this in the name of our beloved Savior, Jesus Christ, who taught us to pray: "Our Father...(debts/debtors)

Prayer of Confession

Eternal God of mercy, hear us as we confess our sin. Daily we awaken to the new life you give us, yet we fail to be thankful for the rest we have received. Moments await our decision to serve you, yet time passes away as we think only of ourselves. Our routine affords us the chance to minister to others, yet we are absorbed with our own self-improvement. The day is soon passed; it has been much the same as the others. Forgive us for casting aside the precious time you give us each day. AMEN.

Words of Assurance

Hear these words of assurance: Even though Jesus was in the form of God, he "did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited." Rather, "he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death - even death on the cross." He died for us, so that we might have life and approach God's throne of judgment cleansed of our sin. In Christ, we are forgiven! AMEN.
