SUBJECT: COUNTERFEIT MONEY

The Floyd County Sheriff's Dept. is conducting an investigation into counterfeit money that is being distributed in the county.

The Sheriff's Dept. has been notified that counterfeit money was recently dispensed to a Floyd county business in the Left Beaver Creek region. The bogus money is a fifty ($50) dollar bill and bears the following serial number: EB03123431. This is the second occurrence that counterfeit money has been reported in the county in recent weeks.

While the occurrences have been confined the Left Beaver Creek area, Sheriff Hunt would like to encourage all businesses throughout the county to use counterfeit detector pens to check the legitimacy of currency before accepting it. Additionally, other resources to assist with the detection of counterfeit money can be found at:
