

Damm, Milton

Milton M. Damm, 82, of Bay Port died Tuesday evening, July 31, 2001, at home. He was born Oct. 23, 1918, to the late Otto and Clara (Kreh) Damm, of Pigeon. Milton grew up in the Pigeon area where he farmed until he began driving a school bus for the Pigeon school system, which he did for about 18 years. He then took a position as custodian for the Elkton-Pigeon-Bay Port Schools. On March 1, 1941, he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Conger in Napoleon, Ohio. She survives him. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Pigeon. In addition to his wife, Elizabeth, he is survived by two sons, Robert Damm and his wife, Karen, of Pigeon, and James Damm and his wife, Susan, of Pigeon; two daughters, Carol Terrill and her husband, Arthur, of Livingston, Texas, and Beverly Damm of Elkton; 10 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; a sister-in-law, Edna Damm Yackle; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by three brothers, Edgar, Walter, and Earl; and four sisters, Mabel, Luella, Viola and Elizabeth. The funeral service will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Friday, Aug. 3, 2001, at the Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home in Pigeon with the Rev. Margaret A. Passenger, pastor of First United Methodist Church in Pigeon officiating. Burial will be in New Bay Port Cemetery. Visitation will be from 10:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. on Friday at Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home, A Golden Rule Funeral Home. Memorials may be made to Friends for Life Hospice, First United Methodist Church Parsonage Fund or the family.
