Broken-down and Abandoned Cars

There are a number of regulations in the City of Austin pertaining to the storage of vehicles in a residential area. Vehicles in violation of these rules can be towed! You can report violations by calling 3-1-1.

There must not be more vehicles stored at a residence than there are licensed drivers. Additional vehicles must be in the garage.

All vehicles must be functional. One vehicle under repair for less than 60 days is allowed.

Antique or recreational vehicles, such as a boat or RV, must be kept behind a 6-foot wood or masonry fence.

Only one commercial vehicle (with a capacity less than one ton) may be stored at a residence.

If you have a broken down vehicle and don't know what to do with it, consider donating it to support education of local at-risk youth. The Texas Can Academy will fill out all the paperwork and take your car for you; the donation is tax deductible! Visit www.carsforkids.org for more information.

Neighborhood Email List

We are working to create a neighborhood email contact list. The City of Austin and its various departments frequently hold events such as info sessions, citizen-input forums, and other activities. We board members receive email notice for these, but the notice may come just a couple days before the event, making it impossible to notify everyone on time. We would very much like to be able to pass along this information to you all. If you would like to be added to the neighborhood email list, send an email to chcna.vp@gmail.com with the title "Neighborhood Email List"

Reminder: Trash Days are on Thursdays!

Our trash and yard refuse pick-up is on Thursdays, Recycle is every other week. And remember to bring your receptacles back to your property by night time.
