

Amy is a Licensed Veterinary Technician who grew up in Paris KY. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in veterinary technology from Morehead State University. She started working for Central Kentucky Veterinary Center in 1991 as a technician and has now moved into the office manager position.

Outside of work Amy enjoys spending time with her husband, 2 dogs Jake and Josey and their 3 cats. She also enjoys, cooking, gardening and scrapbooking.