

PCI personnel maintain appropriate certifications to operate Aerial Boom Lifts and Scissor Lifts in order to meet the needs and requirements to provide appropriate testing and inspection services on projects.

The certification reflects a commitment to strict safety standards, precise elevated work, and dependable project support.

This certification strengthens PCI's overall capabilities and ensures tasks are completed with the highest level of professionalism and care.

