

Fee Schedule for Consulting and Investigation

An initial case review for suitability is not charged. If we are unable to perform the services needed we will suggest the disciplines that will best serve your interest.

Retainer for Service

When an agreement for service is reached a three-thousand-dollar ($3000.00) retainer fee shall be paid prior to the start of any service. Service will not exceed beyond the collected retainer fees unless an alternative payment agreement has been reached. Retainers are waived for some organizations and government agencies.

Examination and Consultation Services.

The regular professional fee is $250.00 per hour. Normally all services performed in the review, examination and analysis will be billed at this rate. This includes research, reconstruction, report writing and supporting documentation such as photography and videography.

Depositions and Courtroom Testimony.

The regular hourly rate for depositions and expert testimony is $300.00. This includes all time spent in preparation for testimony, pre-trial hearings, stand-by time and evidence exhibit preparation.

Change of Venue

Any travel beyond 100 miles of Fort Collins, Colorado is considered offsite. Offsite exams, testimony and services are billed at a minimum of $2500 per day if an overnight stay is required. Expenses accrued related to offsite travel are the responsibility of requesting party. All required off site travel reservations shall be made only after consulting with the examiner to arrange all travel details and avoid schedule conflicts.

Additional Materials and Resources

All materials, lab fees and additional resources which are procured for use in case reconstructions and exams will be billed at the cost for those services and materials without additional surcharges.
