

Muhme, Jetta

Jetta Louise Muhme, 81, died Sunday, Nov. 26, 2000, at her home in Pigeon while under hospice care. She was born on July 8, 1919, in Detroit at the home of her parents, the late Frederick and Jean (Swinck) Erdman. On Feb. 22, 1941, she was united in marriage to William M. Muhme at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Detroit. They moved from Drayton Plains to the Caseville area after retiring in 1983. William died on May 5, 1986. Mrs. Muhme retired from the Columbia Air Center, a retirement home for nuns and priests. She and her husband also owned the Acme Cleaners in Drayton Plains. Jetta was very active in her community. She was active in everything she was part of, including the Caseville United Methodist Church, the Caseville American Legion Auxiliary, the Caseville Library Club, the Caseville Eagle Auxiliary and the Caseville Historical Society. She was travel chairwoman for eight years for the Caseville Retirement Club. She is survived by two sons, Charles Muhme and his wife, Enid, of Milford and Gerald Muhme and his wife, Joan, of Dryden; three grandchildren, Kathy, Phillip and Jason; two great-grandchildren, Darrell and Michelle; her very special friend, Richard Decker, of Pigeon. She was preceded in death by her granddaughter, Jamie. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 29, 2000, at the Caseville United Methodist Church. The Rev. Michael Quayle, pastor, will officiate with burial in the Caseville Township Cemetery. An Eagle Auxiliary service will be conducted at 6 p.m. on Tuesday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel in Caseville. Visitation is from 2 to 9 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home and after 10 a.m. Wednesday at the church. Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society or to the Caseville United Methodist Church.
