

ERIDU TOWER OF BABEL

The purpose of this illustration is hat based solely on these mathematical factors, Sacred Geometry, and astronomical associations that are direct, measurable and observable, it would lend a strong argument that perhaps Nimrod attempted to fashion the height of the Tower of Babel to that of the length of the idolized Rebel King that is depicted ass Ala-Lu, the Face of Mars. Was it the case that Nimrod knew about the Martian Motif that from that point on, all the major centers of power would replicated on Earth? Did Nimrod want to venerated and immortalize the Face of Ala-Lu from here he, perhaps followed the spirit of his rebellion to the point that the Tower of Babel is in fact a measure of the very mausoleum or Face of Mars? Consider the amazing mathematical correspondence in terms of their respective measurements. As established, the Burg is 1.54 miles high when converting the 2717 feet and factoring it 3 times for a total of 8,151 feet. Then, if the Tower of Babel is 8,150 feet. In conversion to miles, the Face of Mars is 1.66 miles in length using Google Mars calculations. The difference in height if one where to place the Tower of Babel along with the corresponding 3x Burj Khalifa height to the Face of Mars next to each other, the difference would be approximately 666 feet.

FACE OF MARS COMPARISON TO HEIGHT OF THE TOWER OF BABEL

1.54 Miles - 1.66 Miles = .127 Miles
 .127miles = 666 feet difference
