

Stephanie Olson

Stephanie Olson is a speaker, an author, and the CEO/President of The Set Me Free Project. Stephanie Olson holds a BA degree in Psychology. Her experience includes 6 years of curriculum writing and development for women experiencing domestic violence, homelessness, and alcohol and drug addictions; 8 years of educating women in the areas of empowerment and intrinsic value; 4 years of educating youth ages 11-18 in healthy relationships, the dangers of human trafficking, and social media safety. Stephanie has had extensive training, research, and study of human trafficking prevention education and social media safety. Stephanie is also a sought after speaker on the subject of women, youth, human trafficking, and nonprofit business. Stephanie currently runs two nonprofit organizations, writes and develops the curriculum for The Set Me Free Project, and trains the current speakers to speak to youth with an interactive and engaging approach. Stephanie leads The Set Me Free Project to help prevent youth and young adults from ever seeing the “dark” of trafficking. She speaks to women, youth, and families all over the United States on life issues and the dangers of human trafficking.

Bobby Post

Bobby is owner of Community Monitoring Service in South Sioux City, NE. He has over 12 years of experience working with juveniles in the tri-state community. Bobby is currently a provider for Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services, Nebraska

Probation and State Drug Testing. He has worked with several families, individuals, businesses and law enforcement agencies educating them on the dangers of illicit drugs and trends in the community. Bobby’s presentation will introduce the participant to the current drug trends in our communities, the hidden dangers at home and will provide interactive hands-on activities.

Derek Clark

Derek Clark's life is one of resilience and redemption. As a child he suffered unthinkable child abuse, abandonment and emotional distress before being turned over to the psychiatric hospital at age five. His 13 years in the San Francisco bay area foster care system reflected an early life of humiliation, aggression, emotional distress, overwhelming anxiety and being wrongfully labeled. Eventually, with the help of foster parents, a fantastic social worker and mentors, he defied the artificial limitations imposed upon him. Derek knows firsthand how to cope with adversity and overcoming hardship. His past has never held him back from accomplishing what he set his heart and mind to.

Derek is an inspiring motivational speaker/trainer. His popular keynotes are "The Power of Resilience and Redemption: From Brutal Trauma to Triumph" and "You Cannot Think Negative About a Child and Expect a Positive Outcome". He is the author of seven books including Disable the Label: Never Limit the Potential of a Child, Never Limit Your Life and the I Will Never Give Up book series. Derek's true-life trials and personal triumphs have inspired organizations worldwide with his message of resilience, hope, courage, unwavering perseverance and redemption. He recently received the International Foster Care Award through SOS Children's Village where they are located in 134 countries helping and protecting children. Derek has also been a featured expert on CNN Headline News, The Steve Harvey TV Show, The Ricki Lake TV Show and other TV shows around the world. Recently, Derek has become a viral video sensation for his "Rapping Dad" videos which have had over 250 million social media views. You may keep up with his exciting journey by following him on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Motivational-Speaker-Derek-Clark-I-Will-Never-GiveUp/141735353526> or his viral video Rapping Dad page at www.Facebook.com/RappingDad
