

Collis, Mrs. William L

(July 25, 1983)

OBITUARY

Caseville, Aug. 4—Mrs. William L. Collis, died at the home of her daughter Mrs. R. C. Lockwood in Flint on July 25th.

Deceased was born near Hamilton, Ont., seventy-two years ago. In 1876 she was united in marriage to William L. Collis. In 1886 they moved to Uxly and two years later came to this village where they resided until about one year ago.

The remains were brought to this village where the funeral service was held on July 27.

Deceased is survived by a husband and six children, John of Detroit, Carl and Percy, of Caseville; Mrs. J. R. McIntosh, of Clio; Mrs. D. E. Rogers, of Royal Oak and Mrs. R. C. Lockwood, of Flint; also four brothers and three sisters.