Why Join

Specialty Nursing groups like MGNA provide a community of likeminded nurses that help you grow and support you throughout your career.

We provide four education sessions a year that can be included in your continuing competency learning plan for the College. These meetings are also a great networking opportunity to connect with peers, mentors and leaders from across the province.

MGNA members are automatically members of the Canadian Gerontological Nursing Association and have access to webinars, scholarships and the National Journal Perspectives.

Be empowered, stay current, and help advance gerontological nursing while receiving the encouragement and tools you need for lifelong growth.
