

Zurbrick, Earl L.

Earl L. Zurbrick, 86, of Pinnebog, passed away Thursday, October 7, 2004, at Huron Medical Center in Bad Axe. He was born August 6, 1918 in Snover to the late George and Pearl (Fox) Zurbrick. Mr. Earl Zurbrick and Annabel (Maynard) Wolfe were united in marriage February 7, 1981 at the Pinnebog United Methodist Church. Earl was a member of the Pinnebog United Methodist Church. He enjoyed antique tractors, playing cards, Tip of the Thumb Dance Club, farming, and spending time with his family. Mr. Zurbrick was a life-long agricultural farmer in the Snover area. Surviving are his wife, Annabel, of Pinnebog; one sister, Helen Buttermore, of Canton; four step-children: Carol Hobkirk, of Bad Axe, David Wolfe and his wife, Marcia, of Elkton, Jim Wolfe and his wife, Gail, of Caseville, and Debbie Ruth and her husband, Ron, of Elkton; 13 step-grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren. Earl was preceded in death by five brothers, Adrian, Glen, Edgar, Russell, and Keith; and one sister: Mildred. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. on Monday, October 11, 2004, at MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe. The Rev. Dave Freeland will officiate. Burial will take place in Colfax Township Cemetery. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. on Sunday and from 10 to 11 a.m. on Monday at the funeral home. Memorial gifts may be offered to the Pinnebog United Methodist Church.