1. The Nicene Creed's short history: First adopted at the Council of Nicea (325 AD) and later modified at the Council of Constantinople (381 AD), to address numerous heresies (false teachings) in the church; chief amongst them would be the Gnostic and Arian heresies.

2. This compilation lists specific verses that directly refer to the word or phrase associated. It is by no means exhaustive, and many of the words/phrases/themes of the creed can also be identified throughout Holy Scripture in lengthy passages and the overarching themes presented in Scripture itself.
