

Faith, is far from just being some “subject.” It is the key factor in your relationship with God. Your faith in Him is either active or inactive. If you don't have faith and trust in God, where will it lead you?

The thoughts you choose to think are the tools used to shape the direction you take with your relationship in God. Every day you meet challenges that can potentially divert you or even temporarily defeat God's purpose in life.

Failures, poor choices, or fear may derail you for a time. However, if you turn to God and ask for His help, these obstacles can never permanently defeat His plan for you. God’s plan for your life isn’t a map you see all at once. Its like a scroll that is unrolled a little at a time, and faith keeps you moving.

You may not always understand how or where God is at work, but you can be confident that His. Your past never disqualifies you from God's service. To Him, where you came from doesn't have to dictate where you go or how you are used by Him.

Living by faith is not an irresponsible way of living or ignoring things. Living by faith requires trust in God’s timing and is focused on God. When you are living by faith, you are focused on God’s vision for your future and not caught up in the fear of tomorrow regardless of the circumstances or world events saying.

No matter what you’re dealing with right now, no matter what you're faced with, God gets it. He knows all of it, and He knows how to get you through it, and He wants you to trust in Him as He does.

This week will bring challenges your way, and faith is how you will overcome them. The average person regularly thinks about things that contradict the Word of God. Your mind has an active imaginations and often flows with doubts that try to work against His purposes for you! If you doubt or question God's ability or even HIS willingness to respond to you then your faith in HIM is not active.

Genuine faith casts down those thoughts. Genuine faith, endures to the end. Genuine faith goes deep down to your core, and doesn't waver based on what's happening around you. Genuine faith can withstand the fires of affliction.

So what ever you are facing, cast those thoughts down and Faith in HIM will arise! And remember- faith doesn't make things easy- faith makes things possible.

Heavenly Father,
I cannot walk by faith without Your help. Your Word promises that You will be my sure foundation. Forgive me for the times I am quick to take matters into my own hands and do what is right in my own eyes. I need You to guard my mind today against worldly philosophies. Keep me from error, and I ask for Your wisdom especially in regards to... (pray through your schedule and concerns) May my walk of faith be evident as I engage those in my life with whom I have relationship. I declare my dependence upon You alone. Strengthen me today, remind me I pray to live-out what Your Word says -, I might not be moved. In the Name of Jesus.
