Delivery Method: Non-Instructor Led

CA C.I.M.C.E. #: 5574

CA CIMCE/CEU Hrs.: Three (3)

Instructor: Jeff Torres - Director

WA Approved: Yes

Course Description:

This non-Language specific, Non-Instructor led (NIL), three (3) credit hour course will familiarize today's Interpreter with common terms and meanings associated with street drug terminology specific to the raging fentanyl and heroin crisis in our country. Attendees will become familiar with current slang used by individuals addicted to controlled substances, and will also learn current law enforcement investigational terminology, and terminology and phrases used by Drug Trafficking Organizations (DTO's) engaged in the illegal transportation and sale of illegal narcotics. Through a combination of provided video resources, self-guided terminology exploration, definition/word matching and photo/term matching, the language professional can expect to gain a better understanding of terminology and phrases commonly and not so commonly used in today's courtrooms.

Presenter Bio:

With over 25 years law enforcement and judicial system experience, Mr. Jeff Torres brings with him a vast amount of first hand knowledge and experience in all areas of our current judicial environment. As both an investigator and supervisor in many high-level felony investigations which include, Homicide, Robbery, Narcotics, Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence and Death Investigation to name a few. Mr. Torres' knowledge of criminal justice investigative processes and procedures brings to the language professional many years of industry specific terminology and procedure-based knowledge from both the "field" and justice system perspective. Mr. Torres experience extends to the court system where he oversaw law enforcement and security operations for a California Superior Court. His daily interaction with court proceedings, interpreters, court officers, court administration, court assigned deputies and the general public gives him a unique global perspective into the daily operations of our justice system and those who practice professionally within.
