Hello,

I have seen most of the students back to class. I look forward to hearing from the rest over the next month or two. We will be opening zoom classes shortly. I am trying to figure it out now. I just got an account set up and an iPad. If anyone has experience and wants to help. By all means give me a call. I have talked to some of the junior black belts and they are willing to help also. This will help students get more class time at a distance. We are also expanding our facebook profile. I would like student and their families tell us what they like about the program and put it on our facebook pages. Video would be nice if you feel comfortable.

- The August when we find out about schools we will be consolidating and moving classes.
- We will keep class size down to eight at that time. The governor allows 10.
- We may still have to be open on Fridays for private lessons.

SCHOOL OPENING SCHEDULES

I need parents to give me the schedule of the schools when they figure out how they will be doing it this year. Please let me know what the plans in different towns are.
