

PREVENT LYME DISEASE!

- WEAR REPELLENT
- CHECK FOR TICKS DAILY
- SHOWER SOON AFTER BEING OUTDOORS
- CALL YOUR DOCTOR IF YOU
GET A FEVER OR RASH

For more information:
www.cdc.gov

Early Disseminated Lyme Disease

- days to months after tick bite
- fever, malaise, migratory arthralgias, arthritis
- secondary erythema migrans skin lesions
- neuroborreliosis, especially facial palsy, radiculoneuropathy
- pancarditis, AV nodal block

© 2004, Jennifer Coburn, Ph.D.

Information session with Dana Boyer on May 8th for parents and their children at the health centre from 4:30-6pm. Supper provided.

Also on the 24th from 12-1 lunch provided