

JOSEPH J. TORRES, SR.

1910 - 1986

Joseph J. Torres, Sr., age 75, of Elkton, died Thursday morning, Jan. 16 at the Huron County Medical Care Facility, Bad Axe.

He was born July 31, 1910 in Mexico, son of the late Peter and Carman (Chavez) Torres. He was united in marriage on Nov. 25, 1939 to Josephine DeHoyos in Gagetown. The couple lived in Elkton since their marriage.

Mr. Torres had been employed by the Elkton Lumber Yard for 30 years and the Human Development Commission, Caro, for 12 years until his retirement in 1981. He was a member of St. Francis Borgia Catholic Church, Pigeon, Our Lady of Guadalupe Society, Pigeon, Elkton Senior Citizens and a past member of the Knights of Columbus, Bad Axe.

Surviving are three sons, Joseph, Jr., Caseville, Henry, Grand Ledge, and Anthony, Elkton; five daughters, Carman Torres, Saginaw, Mrs. James (Josephine) Palmer, Flat Rock, Mrs. Norman (Mary) Sorenson, Mt. Pleasant, Mrs.