Taxes Getting You Down?

Each February do you dread the task of filing your tax return?

Do you have an IRS notice that you are unclear of the next step? Is your business' bookkeeping and payroll taking up too much of your valuable time? If you're looking for a remedy to these problems, SEE Solutions LLC is your answer.

SEE Solutions LLC wants to help you with your tax and bookkeeping needs. You will receive friendly, knowledgeable, one-on-one help from me, the owner, Stefanie Evans.

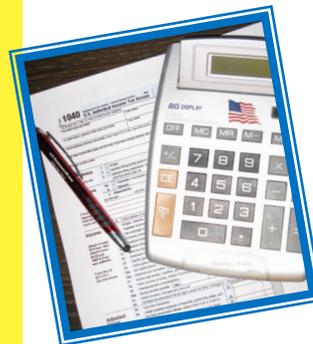

Services To Help You

SEE Solutions LLC is a small tax preparation and bookkeeping business. It was started to allow me to use my knowledge and skills to help others in the community. I offer tax preparation services, including individual 1040s, Schedule A-itemized deductions, Schedule C-small business, Schedule E-rentals and royalties and state returns. If you desire, we can also sit down and discuss some tax planning. As an Enrolled Agent, I can also help you with IRS issues.

For your business, I can help you with all aspects of your bookkeeping needs. Payroll assistance is available and I can prepare your required quarterly and year-end reports. As a QuickBooks ProAdvisor, I can assist you with any QuickBooks problems, training or consultations. Finally, I can also prepare your business tax return.

I want your experiences with SEE Solutions LLC to be helpful and convenient. I try to work around your schedule, and would be glad to come to your location.

Just let me know what your needs are and I will accommodate you to the best of my abilities.

Knowledge & Experience

Knowledge is one of the cornerstones for SEE Solutions LLC. To give you the service you deserve, I must possess a solid educational foundation and the ambition to keep learning. I must continually educate myself and grow my level of knowledge to keep up with the ever changing world.

My foundation began with a bachelor's degree in Accounting. Before starting my own business, I spent approximately five years working for a CPA firm. There, I specialized in individual tax returns, business payroll reporting and bookkeeping. I also prepared business and non-profit tax returns. Since 2012, I have been in the QuickBooks ProAdvisor Program, and currently I am a Gold
